Shriners Returning From San Francisco Convention Hurt—Two Iowans in List.

Leadville, Colo., June 20.—Twenty-four persons were injured, four seriously, when the first section of Denver and Rio Grande Western passenger train No. 2 east bound, was wrecked at Keedler, a small station 10 miles from Leadville. Spreading rails were believed to have caused the accident. The scene of the wreck is near the foot of Tennessee Pass.

The train carried many Shriners returning from San Francisco. The injured, in a hospital at Salida, Colo., include Louis Jones, Wichita, Kan., injury to shoulder. Three Pullman cars and the dining car turned over while another Pullman also jumped the track and turned part way over.

Denver, Colo., June 20.—The names of 11 other persons who suffered less serious injuries in the wreck and who continued their journey after being given emergency treatment were received by the Rocky Mountain News of Denver in a despatch late this afternoon. They are: Linde Jarl, Iowa; Mildred Roath, Minnesota; Juliette Longwell, San Francisco; Hattie Riecke, St. Louis; Mary Scanlon, New York; George Hester, news agent; Mrs. H. Thomason, Eagle Rock City, Cal.; Frank R. Troop, Davenport, Ia.

Elks of Nebraska Meet at Columbus

Town in Holiday Regalia for Annual Convention—Diversions Planned.

Columbus, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—A large number of Elks arrived here today from all parts of the state to attend the annual Elks' convention to open tomorrow. Columbus is in holiday regalia, with streets and business houses decorated for the occasion.

The opening session of the convention will be tomorrow afternoon. An entertainment has been planned for the evening. A baseball game between Falls City and Columbus will be played tomorrow morning. While the women will participate in the entertainment of the first evening, which includes dancing and musical entertainment, they also will have an exclusive and special attention during the business sessions. A morning automobile ride, a reception at the country club, free movies, ball games and athletic events have been planned.

Bonds from Omaha, York and Columbus will furnish music during the convention. The Omaha band will take part in the National convention at Atlantic City, N. J., this summer.

Third Party Men Want Norton's Statement

Lincoln, June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Arthur G. Wray, candidate for nomination for United States senator in the third party, issued a public statement today on his stand on national issues. He first pledged himself to the platform adopted by the third party at the Grand Island convention.

Wray's stand on the third party platform elicited satisfaction from nearly all third party men this afternoon. They are demanding that J. N. Norton, fusion candidate for governor, endorse the same platform and prove himself willing to do something for the third party ideals, if he desires third party votes. The same sentiment appears to be expressed toward all fusion candidates.

To Attend Convention of Teachers at Boston

Beatrice, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)—Superintendent A. J. Stoddard of the Beatrice schools, Superintendent Gregory of Tecumseh, and Mr. Stone, Mr. Moody and Mr. Morton of the Fairbury schools left by automobile for Boston to attend the annual convention of the National Education association. From the convention they will go to Columbia university for the remainder of the summer.

Bloomfield Cyclist Is Hurt in Jam With Auto

Bloomfield, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)—Simon Bouwman was severely injured here yesterday when the motorcycle he was riding collided with a car driven by John Rohlf. The accident happened at a corner on the edge of town where a high bank hides the road from each side. Bouwman was given medical attention and it is believed he will recover.

Hastings Auditorium Bids Rejected by City Council

Hastings, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)—All revised bids for the construction of the municipal auditorium were rejected by the council Monday night, the lowest proposal being far in excess of the proceeds of the bond issue. New plans will be drawn.

Bert Miller Resigns Post at Lincoln Reformatory

Lincoln, June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Bert Miller, assistant superintendent of Gus Miller's reformatory, has tendered his resignation to become effective July 1, it was announced at the office of the state board of control.

Lisco to Celebrate

Oshkosh, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)—Lisco will be the only town between North Platte and Scottsbluff to celebrate the Fourth. A big program of amusements has been arranged.

Oshkosh, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)

The water in the North Platte river is the lowest at this place it has been for months and the flow has decreased to such an extent as to cause the irrigation districts to put in a request that more water be turned in at the Pathfinder dam.

Nebraskan Quits Brazil Exposition Commission

(Continued From Page One.) The commission was organized, for work they had not performed. He claimed in public statements that the members in question refused to attend any meetings of the commission.

The body he declared, is loaded with political appointees, none of whom is earning the salary. As a resident commissioner, Mr. Harrison was selected by the State department to handle all funds in connection with the commission. "Tired of Squandering." "I have been in almost daily contact with officials of the bureau of accounts of the State department," he said, "and there has not been a single penny paid out by me that has not received the endorsement of the State. But I am tired of this money being squandered in the manner it has been and it shall not continue with my sanction."

Former Beatrice Man Sues for Valuable Oil Leases

Beatrice, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Dispatches from Denver report that H. A. Miller of Lusk, Wyo., has instituted suit in the United States district court at Cheyenne for possession of oil leases in Salt Creek field valued at nearly $5,000,000. Miller formerly managed the Paddock hotel here, locating later in Wyoming.

Fireworks Believed to Have Caused Blaze

Beatrice, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Filly, 12 miles east of here, was threatened with a destructive fire this morning when a blaze started at the rear of the garage of Martin Albert and John Clark, presumably by boys playing with fireworks. A large barn belonging to the Smith estate was consumed, but a bucket brigade quickly formed, prevented the flames from reaching the garage. A year ago the entire block was wiped out by fire.

Gage County Farmers Start Harvesting Wheat

Beatrice, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)—A large number of Gage county farmers began cutting their winter wheat, and the work will be well in hand before the end of the week provided the weather remains favorable. Farmers say that while moisture is badly needed a heavy rain just now would damage wheat and retard the harvest. They report corn doing fine, but say oats and potato crops have been hard hit by the drouth. This is also true of the pastures.

Heavy Rain in Western Nebraska Helps Crops

Wood River, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)—All crops in this vicinity are in fine shape as the result of 2½ inches of rain which fell here early Sunday evening. Oats and potatoes were in need of rain. Most of the corn here has been cultivated twice and the second crop of alfalfa is making great headway.

It's yeast that contains the marvelous health-building B vitamin—not drugs!

So when you go into your drug store, say "Yeast Foam Tablets." Because they are pure whole yeast—and nothing else! And they come in easy-to-take and convenient-to-carry tablet form.

Yeast Foam Tablets are recommended for loss of appetite, indigestion, lack of physical strength and energy, under weight, pimples, boils, malnutrition and "run-down" conditions.
