Investigation in Killing of Field Marshal Reveals Number of Prominent Persons Marked for Death.

15 Arrests Are Made

London, June 23.—(By A. P.)— The police investigating the assassi-nation of Field Marshal Wilson, have come into possession of documents, says the Central News today, disclosing a conspiracy to take the lives of a number of prominent persons and conduct a campaign of outrages. The two men arrested for the actu-al commission of the crime, James Connolly and James O'Brien the agency says, are both former sol-diers, who have been living at Croy-
