

Aspirant Declares War on Money Tipplers'

John O. Yeiser Promises to Fight Wall Street Corruption—Favors Soldiers' Bonus.

A close friend of the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt was John C. Yeiser, now a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator from Nebraska. Mr. Yeiser has incorporated his platform for election in a pamphlet in which a letter from the late aspirant is reproduced in fac simile. The letter was in reply to one Mr. Yeiser wrote the former president, famous for his broad smile and "Dee-Lighted," begging him to abandon the idea of a third party and to fight crookedness right in the republican party.

Opposed to Revolutions.

"I am opposed to revolutions as well as third parties and the way to prevent them is to work for the people."

"A good deal has been said about saloons and the government; deciding to take liquor away from the people, because they got drunk and injured themselves and their fellow men."

"I say the concentration of wealth in the hands of a few hundred men has made them 'drunk' with power and greedy for more; they are a greater menace to this country than common drunkards."

"If this unnatural business cannot be stopped and these men cannot be driven to consider the people before I get into the senate, I shall then do all in my power to treat them like drunkards have been treated: Namelessly, pass laws to lock them up until sobered and until they quit their scientific stealing and to take away dangerous amounts of money, and wealth, under inheritance taxes and other constitutional measures. There is a danger limit to wealth as a danger as well as a danger limit to wine."

Seeks Elastic Currency.

"I hope my fellow candidates will tell you something big that they will try to do, because something big must be done. Are they going to be for the machine or against it?"

Will they promise city council ideas and penny stock machine talk, or will they talk dollars and prosperity for everyone? Will they dare to say they will check up the president when he is in error and investigate federal judges and tell the people of the recent officials? Would they have the courage to take a single step to make justice cheaper, easier and more stable?

Will Support Farm Laws.

"While unalterably against big business and prosperity-throttling corporations I do not include such Nebraska mercantile corporations who need help and not punishment."

"I shall vote for the repeal of all infamous laws against labor, including the Esch-Cummins act, and I shall support laws favorable to farming."

"I supported woman suffrage 25 years ago as a member of the legislature, when a man was jeered to take that side of the question."

Favors Bonus.

"I think this government, so quick to guarantee against loss to railroad stockholders and others who sucked money out of the treasury as though using double-decked waterworks pumps; that paid shipbuilding contracts that may have been canceled at a minimum loss; that covered profits on every unconscionable contract, should not hesitate about paying the bonus to boys who gave up jobs and schooling and prospects of every kind to serve their country. They should get the bonus in some useful form as morally promised them. It know it is hard to pay it, but it is hard because we permit a gang of bankers from London and Paris and Wall street to run the finance of this country, ruining the masses in England, France and the United States."

Boy Chicken Thief Breaks Parole; Sent to Kearney.

Beatrice, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—Louie Witzki, who was up before District Judge Colby some weeks ago on a chicken stealing charge, was brought before the court for breaking his parole and sentenced to the industrial school at Kearney until he is 21. Witzki, 18, had been admonished by the judge to keep away from dance halls, pool halls and other detrimental influences, but he failed to obey the order.

Pastor to Be Ordained.

Beatrice, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—Rev. O. M. Adams will be ordained pastor of the Pilgrims Congregational church at Cortland Friday evening. The sermon will be delivered by Dr. W. W. Bolt of Lincoln; the ordinance prayer by Dr. Holmes, the charge to the pastor by Rev. W. A. Taylor and the charge to the congregation by Dr. Tyler. About 22 churches will be represented at the services.

Woman Who Stole Babe Is Believed to Be Demented

Missing Infant Declared Now to Have Been Born to High School Student.

Lincoln, June 23.—(Special Telegram.)—A demented woman is believed responsible for the taking of Maxine, 4-months-old baby, from the home of Mrs. W. C. Sharp here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Sharp, who conducts a home for foundlings, stated today that a demented woman had been to the house five or six times of late, asking permission to take one of the babies. It was during Mrs. Sharp's absence from the home yesterday that the child disappeared.

Seen by Storekeeper.

Lincoln police received a report from Ed Kearns, proprietor of a store at Hallam, Neb., 16 miles south of Lincoln, that while he was driving in the country about 8 this morning he met a woman, apparently about 40, walking along the road with a baby in her arms. He said that she gave her a lift to Princeton and she told him she was on her way to Beatrice. Kearns told police the woman talked peculiarly. The blanket in which the baby was wrapped, according to the man's description, corresponds with the one missing from the child's crib at Mrs. Mrs. Sharp's home.

Gave Name of Johnson.

The superintendent of a maternity hospital here stated that a high school girl, giving the name of Eula Bessie Johnson, gave birth to a baby girl there last February. The superintendent said that the baby was given to Mrs. Sharp and is the one which was stolen yesterday.

The name given by the mother evidently was fictitious, as no one of that name is registered at Lincoln High school or listed in the city directory.

Harvest 10 Days Early in York County. Due to Heat.

York, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—Harvest is on in York county, ten days earlier than ever before, due to the extreme hot and dry weather. Extreme heat the last few days has caused the wheat to ripen too fast. The average of wheat that 10 days ago gave promise of from 25 to 30 bushels per acre will not exceed 10 to 15 bushels. Oats, alfalfa and potatoes are suffering from lack of rain. Pastures are dried up.

Nominated for Trade Body.

Court Decision Held Up in Suit to Oust Sheriff

Trial of Action Against Thurston County Officer Concluded in Record Time.

Pender, Neb., June 23.—(Special.)—The trial of the ouster suit instituted by the county attorney of Thurston county and Attorney General Clarence A. Davis against Sheriff C. W. Rutledge was concluded in record time. About 80 witnesses were examined in the two and one-half days of the trial.

The case was taken under advisement by the court, trials to be filed by the parties on the question of law involved. Judge A. M. Post stated that the order of suspension made by Governor McKelvie on May 13 was null and void, for the reason that to permit an officer to be removed or suspended without a hearing would be a clear perversion of law and justice.

A feature of the trial was a rather spirited tilt between County Attorney Smith and County Judge Flynn during the cross-examination of the latter.

A decision is expected within a few weeks.

Movie Prices Reduced.

A reduction in admission prices for the Moon theater to take effect today has been announced by Harry Goldberg, of the World Realty company. New prices will be 15 cents and 20 cents. The reduction is from 25 cents and 35 cents.

Omaha Sleuths Raid Iowa Camp

War Bride and Husband Brought to Council Bluffs on Liquor Charge.

Detectives Smith, Walker and English and Patrol Conductor Duda returned yesterday from making a raid with Federal Agent Sumner A. Knox on an outdoor camp 10 miles from Missouri Valley, Ia., in the river bottoms.

The officers staged the raid on information that boxcar loot might be found there. None was found, but the officers alleged they bought whisky from one man. Four persons were arrested. They gave the names of John Dodson, Bill Coyne and Mr. and Mrs. William Lowell. Mrs. Lowell met her husband while he was in the army in France, she told the officers and became his war bride. She and her husband were brought to the Council Bluffs jail, where a liquor charge will be filed against Lowell, according to Knox.

Dodson and Coyne were lodged in the Missouri Valley jail on charges of disorderly conduct and carrying concealed weapons.

The trial of Tommy Sullivan, who jumper bond after his arrest a few years ago in connection with the assault of two girls, was put over to the November term of court.

The continuance was allowed by District Judge Leslie only after a bitter fight made by County Attorney A. V. Shotwell, who wanted the case heard at once.

ONE-MINUTE STORE TALK

"I'm from a southern city where we think we have great summer clothing stocks, but your display stands far ahead of anything I've known down south. Surprise to me, too, this warm weather you have here. No wonder you need such goods," said a southern gentleman on a "northern" trip.
