

DAILY GRAPHIC REVIEW OF NEWS EVENTS

VIRGINIA REA, said to be one of the leading coloratura soprano singers of the country, visits Central Park, New York City, today, imitating the notes of song birds. Two years ago, Miss Rea, at her home in Louisville, Ky., sang through the telephone for Wade Hinshaw, and her success followed. She is a direct descendant of Edgar Allan Poe. (Int'l News Reel.)

A TON OF GRACE AND BEAUTY—Their aggregate weight is 3,000 pounds, but the springboard gallantly refused to break under the strain of holding these bathing beauties of Lafayette, Pa. (U. U.)

EMILIO de GOGORZA taking his wife, Emma Emma de Gogorza, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, on board the Ines Olympic, as it arrived in New York from England.

MARY PICKFORD'S DIVORCE from Owen Moore has been attacked again by the Attorney General of Nevada. Mary is now the wife of Douglas Fairbanks.

PROFESSOR AUGUSTUS TROWBRIDGE PRINCETON UNIVERSITY has invented a device which times runners to the 1-100th part of a second and shows the order in which they finished. (K. V.)

THE PROUD SMILE OF A MOTHER spreads over the face of Frances Gordon, former actress—the smile familiar to millions of Americans during the World War as the girl on the War Risk insurance posters. Now she is the happy wife of Lieutenant Commander Frank C. Houston, of Rock Island, Ill., and what is more, she's the happy mother of a new-born son. That's why she smiles again.

A WIZARD?—Well, his title is that of Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and he's Frank A. Simmons, of Atlanta, Ga., photographed at Miami, Fla.

SHIRO TSURUSAKI has been steward on Presidential yacht Mayflower twenty years, since President Roosevelt's administration. As a reward of faithful services he was made steward of the new Congressional Country Club.

TWINS GRADUATE—In the graduating class at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., were twin sisters, Mary (left) and Margaret Waddell, of Madisonville, Ky.

MARCHESA SPINOLA, one of the most beautiful of the titled Italian women, a leader in Roman court circles.

A RADIO WEDDING.—When Miss Vivian M. Kidd, of Santa Rosa, and Leland M. Hodgson, of Sausalito, Cal., were married, their wedding vows were broadcasted by H. M. Shaw, of Rockridge, and heard up and down the coast by radio fans, as well as the songs "Oh! Promise Me," and the wedding march. (W. W.)

AULIS' HAPPY BOY AND AULIS' CHAMPION MISCHEF, best pair of Boston terriers in the Ladies' Dog Club at Brookline, Mass., are owned by Mrs. C. E. Aulis, of Boston. (Int'l Newsreel.)

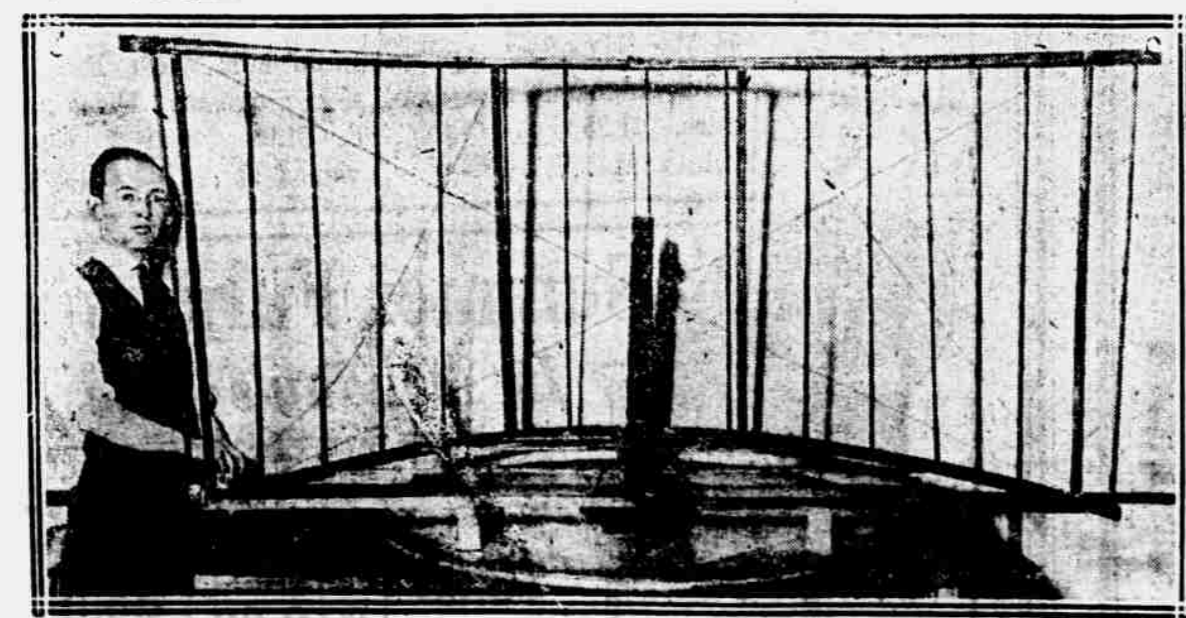

THE HON. MRS. REGINALD ALLWYN FELLOWES, wife of the only surviving son of Lord and Lady Ramsey, regarded as one of the most beautiful women in British society. She is a granddaughter of Mr. Singer, founder of the sewing machine firm.

THIS DELEGATION from the crowded tenements of the lower East Side, went from Jacob Riis Neighborhood House in New York City, with their "Have-a-Heart" petition, signed by 5,000 kiddies, to ask Park Commissioners to turn an East River pier into a playground. (U. U.)

WASHINGTON AN ARMED CAMP when the "devil dogs" pitched tents here. The Fifth and Sixth Marines, who made Belleau Woods famous, encamped at East Potomac Park after a review by President Harding. They were on their way to Gettysburg, Pa., for maneuvers. (Int'l News Reel.)

MARCONI'S FAMOUS NEW INVENTION, the "radio searchlight," concentrates and reflects in one given direction wireless waves, exactly as the searchlight does light rays. The device will be of incalculable value in directing ships in a direct line to safety. (Int'l Newsreel.) Copyright, 1922, International News Service.

HOW THEY KEEP FIT—The setting-up exercise on the campus at Elmira College, Elmira, N. Y., shows how the fair students retain their beauty and health.