Financial

The New York Times. (The Bee is the only Omaha newspaper which publishes the official close of the New York Stock exchange bonds.)

New York, June 29.—Except for an advance in the price of wheat and cotton, largely due in each case to the fact that the market was closed on the previous day, the market was quiet.

On the stock exchange, the movement of prices was extremely confined, most of the railway shares advancing while the 'oil shares' declined.

Chicago Grain

By CHARLES D. MICHAELS. Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Chicago, June 29.—Increased apprehension of black rust damage to spring wheat in the northwest, a continued flood of unfavorable reports from the winter wheat territory and buying of July by houses with eastern connections made an active and higher wheat market, with the close within a fraction of the top, with net gains of 1/8 to 1/4.

Receipts of wheat at Omaha were 9 cars of corn, 42 cars of oats, 22 cars of rye and barley, 3 cars, totaling 76 cars, as compared with 77 cars last year.
