

Legion Is Advised to Be Neutral in Industrial Crisis

State Commander Issues Statement Asking Posts to Avoid Taking Sides in Labor Disputes.

Members and officers of American Legion posts in Nebraska have been asked by the state commander, William S. Ritchie, Jr., to observe neutrality in the "present industrial crisis," and advises that any discussion of the matter at legion meetings is out of order. The request was made in a statement issued yesterday. It follows:

"The position of the American Legion in the present industrial crisis is challenged, and some of our posts and officers have been importuned to take sides or to do things which would have that effect.

Legion Not Judicial.

"You will please advise all of your members and every person who inquires that the American Legion is not a judicial body nor a board of arbitration; that it cannot and should not be expected to interfere with or attempt to adjudicate matters of a purely business or industrial nature. "We are pledged to uphold and defend the constitution of the United States of America and to maintain law and order. This means that we are bound, first to seek to accomplish our own personal advancement in an orderly manner, by, through and under the constitution, with respect for our laws, our courts, and our flag; secondly, that we are pledged to support all public officials whose duty it is to enforce the laws and to maintain public peace. We are not, however, obligated to do these things any more than any other law-abiding and God-fearing citizens; we are not special policemen, nor deputy sheriffs, nor state militia and cannot be expected to act as such."

Discussion Out of Order. "Our employment bureaus are organized to relieve unemployment not to serve as instruments to assist in deciding disputes between employer and employee.

"The post officers and members are therefore directed to maintain a strict neutrality in all industrial or business disputes; that any discussion of such matters is out of order in any post meeting and the chairman should so rule.

"Let us present a united front in this matter and let no post in Nebraska countenance any action which might be calculated to drag the Legion into an unnecessary or uncalled-for dispute."

Pure Milk and Ice Save Life of Ailing Baby

Scores of Other Little Ones in Needy Homes Await Succor of Bee Fund.

Little Marion's life held by a slender thread when a Visiting Nurse came into the two-room home which is her home day before yesterday.

Marion's mother, a little woman who has sacrificed her health for her children, was nearly ready to collapse under the struggle which hot weather had made so much harder.

The nurse hurried to a telephone and gave an order through The Bee's Free Milk and Ice fund. Within half hour a milkman was at the little home with a big bottle of the purest milk.

You should have seen Marion's lips when we tasted that milk. She drew in with great contented breaths.

Then she slept. Now she is getting the milk every day and her life is safe.

There are scores of other little ones waiting the succor of The Bee's fund, most such little unfortunate as Marion in wretched homes where poverty reigns.

Will you help save them? Will you give of your comparative riches to rescue these little frail lives?

Then send or bring what you can to The Bee office today.
