Little "Billie" Donnelly, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Donnelly, 537 South Twenty-ninth street, was drowned Wednesday in Lake Minnetonka, Minn., a telegram informed Omaha friends yesterday.

Detectives on Trail in Mysterious Shooting

Detectives Heller and Vanous set out yesterday to learn the identity of a farmer alleged to have been shot in May, 1920, somewhere between Valley and Elkhorn, Neb.

They were started on the trail by a letter from State Sheriff Gus Hyers, who wrote that a youth on his way to the reformatory in custody of Sheriff F. G. Benton of Lexington had told the story of the shooting.

This youth, Hyers wrote, alleged he and five boys were riding a coal car between Elkhorn and Valley, on their way from Omaha to Cheyenne, when one of them stood up, drew a .38-caliber pistol and fired twice at a farmer 100 yards away. One bullet hit his arm, the other lodged in his body, the boy said.

Grand Island Mother Is Seeking Missing Youth

Grand Island, Neb., July 6.—(Special)—"Jack" Hines, 14, disappeared from his home in this city a few days ago and the last trace obtained of him by his parents was near Central City. He left on a bicycle. Near Central City a woman saw a boy of that description enter a touring car and a bicycle placed on the running boards. The presumption is that he was taken to Omaha. The distracted mother, Mrs. L. F. Bromley, is of the opinion that he may have been taken up by some farmer to work in the wheat fields, for he had indicated a desire to go to the wheat fields of Kansas to work.

Grand Island School Board Reduces Expenses $48,157

Grand Island, Neb., July 6.—(Special)—The Grand Island board of education has prepared its budget for the ensuing year and has reduced the total $48,157 as compared with last year. In this budget an effort will be made to reduce the overdraft of $50,000 reported by the secretary. The total expenditures last year, including an overdraft of $38,700 at the beginning of the year, was $278,000. Recent calculations have shown that the cost per pupil has increased from $19 per annum to $62.

President Again Tries His Hand at Writing Editorials for Marion Star

Marion, O., July 6.—(By A. P.)—President Harding tried his hand again yesterday at his old job of writing editorials for the Marion Star.

Yesterday's edition carried a two-column editorial signed by "Warren G. Harding." It was headed "The Essentials to Success," and brought out that honesty, simplicity, industry, capacity and determination—"available to all who aspire," are the chief essentials of success.

The text of the editorial follows: While Marion is celebrating the centennial of the city's founding, it is fine to rejoice in the coming together again, to find happiness in the exchange of sentiments born of homecoming, to recall the pride in things accomplished, and above all else appraise the qualities of men and measures which made us what we are today. The latter is essential to the preparedness for greater progress in the future. Sturdy men pioneered the way to early settlement—and sturdy women, too. They blazed the way of development in Ohio and sent many of their sons and daughters to the peaceful conquest of the greater west—the Mississippi and Missouri valleys. Resolute and able men made secure the social order here, and simple and courageous men blended determination with genius and made the industrial beginning. They had little wealth, but they wrought wealth out of opportunity. Only a few knew their struggles, their sacrifices, but honesty, simplicity, industry, capacity and determination are known to have been the chief essentials of their success. These make for success anywhere and are available to all who aspire.

High Continues Fight Against Charlie Bryan

Prohibition Leader Insists Lincoln Man Has Made Tie-Up With Senator Hitchcock

Lincoln, July 6.—(Special)—"I know there is a deal on between Charles W. Bryan and Gilbert M. Hitchcock, whereby they have agreed to aid each other in the primary as well as I know anything I can't prove."

This was the statement made by F. A. High, secretary of the Anti-Saloon league, in discussing the reported tie-up between the wet Mr. Hitchcock and the dry Mr. Bryan, candidates for democratic nomination for United States senator and governor, respectively.

"Until Mr. Bryan sees the error of his ways and again becomes the sworn enemy of the Hitchcock we are against him, because we are against Mr. Hitchcock and anything done to re-elect him," High continued.

Eleventh-Hour Conversion

"This so-called eleventh-hour conversion of Mr. Hitchcock to prohibition doesn't wash down with us. The story being told by his friends to that he voted against the light beer and wine bill is unbecome."

Opposed to Bute

"I am in receipt of a letter from J. E. Bute, candidate for the democratic nomination for congress in the Third district, in which he says he was overlooked in our list of endorsements."

Kearney Man Is Killed by Blast

Brother Also Injured—Cause of Premature Explosion of Dynamite Unknown

Kearney, Neb., July 6.—(Special Telegram)—Charles Nielsen, 30, an employe of the Central Power company, was literally torn to pieces late this afternoon by a premature dynamite explosion and his brother, Fred, was seriously injured by the same blast. The men were blasting stumps, preparing the way for widening of the canal.

Charles Nielsen was engaged in placing a shot, stooping over to sink the charge when it exploded in his hands. His brother was standing about four feet away. No other employes were in the immediate vicinity and the injured man was unable to offer any solution as to how contact was brought about between the magnum and battery, residents of Kearney. The dead man is survived by a wife and three children.

Dahlman Gives Address on 4th at Old Haunts

Mayor Speaks at Rushville, Neb., Where He Herded Cattle 43 Years Ago

Mayor Dahlman returned yesterday from viewing his old stamping ground at Rushville, Neb., where he was Fourth of July orator.

Forty-three years ago, before there was anything but Indians and cattle in that part of the state, Jim Dahlman was a cowpuncher there. "The man I worked for had 10,000 head of cattle," said the mayor today. "We line riders had our principal job in the winter to keep the cattle from wandering into the sandhills, where, it was believed, they would perish."

"But in 1879 a terrific blizzard came up and several thousand cattle broke through the line. The owner thought they were lost. Early in the spring about 20 of us were sent into the sandhills to see if we could find any of them. We found, in a 30-day roundup, 6,000 head and among these were 400 without brands, showing that they had been in the sandhills for several years unmolesied and finding their own provender. From that day the sandhills have been recognized as a great asset to the cattle interests of the state."

On the morning of the Fourth, 250 Sioux Indians in full regalia surrounded the house where the mayor was a guest and called with war whoops for a speech. The mayor told them, through an interpreter, that he is now "big chief" of the great city of Omaha and that when he gets through with that job he is going back to be the big chief of his old friends, the Sioux. This got a big laugh from the red men, the squaws and even the papooses.

Court Issues Order for Arrest of Bielaski

Mexico City, July 6.—(By A. P.)—El Universal Graico declares it learns from official sources that an order for the arrest of A. Bruce Bielaski, on a charge of self-induction, was issued by a Cuernavaca court. El Mundo also asserts that such an order "is about to be issued."

Up to late yesterday afternoon, however, the United States embassy had received no advice of an arrest. Bielaski, whose abduction by rebels and subsequent escape were reported last week, was still at liberty yesterday. The only legal process to which he had been subjected was a summons to appear in court in Mexico City and make a complete statement. The government is continuing its investigation of the case in connection with the Cuernavaca authorities. Several arrests already have been made.

Man Who Lost False Teeth in Fountain Wants Pay From City

Chicago, July 6.—Max Mellen thinks the city owes him a new set of false teeth. Yesterday when he stopped to drink at a bubbling fountain, his teeth fell into the water. Max sought the aid of the police in recovering his teeth. Policeman Michael Glon was detailed to the case. He accompanied Mellen to the fountain and they both fished for them in the cup for more than an hour without result. Mellen told the desk sergeant that he wanted the city to make good. His name and address were taken and the waterworks department notified of the loss.

Street Car Man Pleads Guilty to Murder of Woman

Conductor Admits Killing Friend Last April and Pleading Body in Abandoned Moving Van

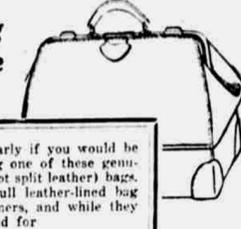

Chicago, July 6.—Thomas Roach, street car conductor, pleaded guilty to the "moving van" murder when he was arraigned in the criminal court. With Russell Mosby, a janitor, he was charged with the murder of Mrs. Anna Caldwell, whose body was found in an abandoned van on the morning of April 19.

At the time of the murder, Roach said in his confession, his wife was in a hospital. He met Mrs. Caldwell in front of his home and she asked him if she could come in. "She was hysterical and said she was having trouble with her husband," Roach said. "We had been drinking moonshine and there was a general fight when Mosby started getting rough with her."
