

"Harmony" Move Lets Bryan Out, Butler Asserts

He Isn't Even Competition Since Lining Up With Hitchcock, Says Omaha Opponent.

"Ain't We Got Fun?" is the latest bit of vocal expression arising from the throats of certain democrats, including Dan Butler and Harry Fleharry, who will not join in the harmony chorus of the Hitchcock-Bryan cheer leaders.

Harmony is said to be the washboard of various other democrats who would cleanse their party of every stain. Dan Butler sits in his office in the city hall, mulling over words which will adequately express his state of mind. Mr. Fleharry is indulging in fulminations.

"I made him what he is today," quoth Mr. Butler, explaining that the personal pronoun referred to Charles W. Bryan of Lincoln, rival candidate for the democratic gubernatorial nomination.

"How come?" a friend asked. "Didn't I teach Mr. Bryan how to operate a municipal coal yard and didn't he gather unto himself considerable credit through his Lincoln coal yard and then what did he do?"

"What did he do?" "He called here recently and wanted to know whether I would withdraw from the race?"

"And you told him—"

"Why, I don't even consider him a serious candidate. He isn't competing now that he is lined up with Senator Hitchcock."

Feature Transactions on Livestock Exchange

Randolph, Ia., was represented on the market by a shipment of 100 head of cattle averaging 1,400 pounds sent in by J. O. Driskell, who received the top price of $10.15 a hundred for that class of stock. Mr. Driskell said he bought the cattle here last November when they averaged 960 pounds and cost him $6.30 a hundred. They were run on oats and wheat stubble ground until January, when they were placed on full feed.

According to Mr. Driskell, the general prospects for crops is good, although oats are only fair, while winter wheat is excellent, with a promise of from 25 to 30 bushels to the acre.

S. D. Mitchell of Cedar Rapids brought in 160 head of steers averaging 1,059 pounds that sold for $9.85 a hundred. They cost him $6.40 a hundred.

"I bought corn at 20 cents a bushel to feed my cattle," said Mr. Mitchell, "and I let a good drove of hogs follow my cattle in the feed lots that netted me a little more profit."

Mr. Mitchell said there were but few cattle left in the feed lots around Cedar Rapids and these would be marketed soon.

Prayer Each Day

The joy of the Lord is your strength.—Neb. 8:10.
Our Father, help us to find the secret of the Master's joy, that we may no longer dwell in the outer courts where our happiness comes and goes as the flowers bloom and fade. May we enter into the secret place of the Most High where He lived, until our joy, like His cannot be taken away from us.

Teach us the joy of discovering the tokens of Thy presence always—in the song of birds, the fragrance of flowers, the marvelous beauty of sunrise and sunset, but more in the ringing laughter and plaintive cry of little children, in the deep hunger in the hearts of our brothers and sisters, and in our own souls, so that we are never alone.

Teach us the joy of a friendship that leaves no hurt nor sting. Help us enter into the deep joy of sympathy with our brother's need, the sympathy that gives insight, and knits heart to heart, until we are able to help where help is needed, and able to receive help when it is offered.

Save us, O our Father, from the darkness of selfishness, and unite us with wise and tender love to those who need us, and those whom we need. All of this, and more which we cannot express, we ask in the Master's name. Amen.

Woman Candidate Imitates Harding

Miss Muir Invites Public to Her Lawn to Hear Her Message.

Lincoln, July 11.—Miss Sarah T. Muir, republican candidate for state representative from the Thirty-sixth district, has adopted some of the campaign tactics of President Warren Harding used in the campaign of 1920. Tomorrow she will deliver a speech from the front porch of her home in this city. She has invited the public to assemble on the lawn to hear her message.

Miss Muir is now and has been for the last six years head of the English department of the Lincoln High school. She has served as president of the Nebraska Woman's Educational club of the American Association of Collegiate Alumnae (now called the American Association of University Women) and of the English section of the Nebraska State Teachers' association.

The candidate was appointed this year a member of the English committee on college entrance requirements of the North Central association. She also is a director of the Nebraska chapter of the National Council of Teachers of English. She holds two degrees from the University of Nebraska and was the alumna orator for the commencement of 1920.

During the suffrage campaign in Nebraska Miss Muir was an organizer and speaker for equal suffrage. During the New York campaign for equal suffrage she did considerable work in that state.

Parents' Problems
Can an intense girl of 12 be trained to relax?
Yes. Teach her some "relaxing exercises"—those given in "Power Through Repose," a little book by Anna Fayson Call, are excellent. Encourage her to laugh, and to "hope for the best." Above all, see that she eats plenty of simple, wholesome food, spends most of her spare time outdoors, and goes to bed early. "Intensity" is often merely the result of fatigue and a rundown condition.

RADIO

Undamped Radio Waves Explained

These swings are similar to undamped waves.
Undamped waves have no audio frequency component—only the continuous radio frequency oscillations.
Sparks
The Canadian people are co-operating nicely with their United States brothers in observing rules for broadcasting.
On the Pacific coast leaders of the Chinese nationalist party are stimulating interest in their party by means of radio.
An eastern paper says one of the benefits of radio is to keep the girls from becoming waitresses and stenographers in the big towns.
Rutherford, N. J., has a philanthropist who spends much of his time teaching youngsters to design and operate radio sets.

Common Sense

Are You An Early Riser?
In this month of the year's longest day, how much of the early hours of these long days do you spend in bed?
Except in rare cases, have you ever seen the sun rise?
When you have been obliged to get up at day break you have spoken of it as heathenish, to have to get up and about with the birds and the chickens.

Do you know that if you really lived right it would be as much pleasure for you to get up in the morning as it is for the birds, which begin these days with song in trilling melodies.
Something wrong with your physical or mental make up, or with your habits, if you do not want to get up early these bright summer mornings.
