

Rifenberg Denied Cut in Sentence

Prisoner Serving 25-Year Sentence for Murder Fails in Plea.

Lincoln, July 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Walter C. Rifenberg, serving 25 years for murder in Brown county, who asked for a commutation to 15 years, was denied the 10-year cut in sentence by the board of pardons and paroles today.

The board granted paroles to six Omaha men and denied five applications from Lincoln men. Those from the metropolis granted paroles are: Ferdinand Brandenburg, forger; John McCarthy, breaking and entering; John McHenry, larceny from the person; James Smith, larceny; Jack Reed, breaking and entering; Walter McHenry, larceny.

Omaha men denied paroles were: Earl Kaine, grand larceny; August T. Rodgers, breaking and entering; Fred Sledge, grand larceny; Hans Barsbell, forger; Walter F. Bell, robbery.

Outstate paroles granted were: H. E. Larson, Dixon, embezzlement; Pete Pitcher, Brown, forger; Chester A. Tebbetts, Hall, forger; Ed Zeck, Dixon, burglary; Ernest Klenke, Garden, burglary; Charles A. Smith, Scottsbluff, burglary.

Outstate paroles denied were: Doan J. Harrison, Lancaster, larceny as bailor; Harry Kuwizki, Oteo, breaking and entering; George Murphy, Gage, horse stealing; Dan Piazzi, Dakota, robbery; Ross Deon, Daves, grand larceny; Floyd E. Taylor, Oteo, embezzlement; Jack Burk, Furnas, grand larceny.

Report That Omaha Party Missed Boat Is Denied

Rumors current in Omaha yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Head and their daughter, Vernelle, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldrige missed their boat in New York Sunday, are untrue, according to Malcolm Baldrige, son of the latter couple.

"They sailed for Europe on the Majestic, as they planned," he said. Mrs. Hugo Brandeis, formerly of Omaha, is a passenger on the same ship.

Friends Congratulate Man Freed of Liquor Charge

A party of Fred Gagliolo's friends surrounded him, just outside the federal courtroom, yesterday, when a jury found him not guilty on three counts of violation of the Volstead law. They showered him with congratulations and handshakes.

Alvin Scollie, found guilty on a similar charge was fined $500.

UP FROM THE DEPTHS.

One of the valuable health lessons for use with boys is Theodore Roosevelt's story of how he built himself up from a spindly, hunched, hollow chested type to the splendid physical specimen of whom a son, speaking to a son said, "The old lion is dead."

An equally valuable lesson, we will come in time to see, was the same man's story of how he converted himself—a day-dreaming, butterfly-catching boy—into a practical politician, shot through with just enough of vision and imagination to save him.

Another great lesson of the type of the second can be made out of a study of "The Mind of Lincoln," and I wish some day the Rev. W. E. Barlow would write the story as a companion piece for his other great studies—"The Soul of Lincoln" and "The Paternity of Lincoln."

Lincoln, in his youth, was a dreamer. Uncontrolled emotionalism came very near wrecking his life.

The Lincoln who wrote the Gettysburg address, thought as clearly as Pericles did.

The story of how the emotional dreamer of the youthful years converted himself into the straight thinker of the full manhood years will make a great lesson for the young some day. Of that harmful emotional period in Lincoln's life, Nicolay and Hay wrote in their "Lincoln," as it appeared in the Century magazine a generation ago, as follows:

"Upon a temperament predisposed (by malaria) to look at things in their darker aspects, it might naturally be expected that a love affair which was not perfectly happy would be productive of great misery. But Lincoln seemed especially chosen to the keenest suffering in such a conjecture. His published speeches show how much the poet in him was constantly kept checked; and, at this time of his life, his imagination was sufficiently alert to inflict upon him the sharpest anguish. No Hamlet, dreaming amid the turrets of Elsinore, no Sidney, creating a chivalrous Arcadia, was fuller of mystic and shadowy fancies of the worth and dignity of woman than this backwoods politician."

As bearing on the relation of environment, and especially malarial influences on the mind of Lincoln in those earlier days, they say:

"Besides this generic tendency to melancholy, very many of the pioneers were subject, in early life, to malarial influences, the effect of which remained with them all their days. Hewing out their plantations in the primeval woods amid the undisturbed shadows of centuries, breaking a soil thick with ages of vegetable decomposition, sleeping in half-faded camps when the heavy air of the rank woods was in their lungs all night, or in the foul atmosphere of over-crowded cabins, they were especially subject to miasmatic fevers.

"Many died, and of those who survived a great number, after they had outgrown the immediate manifestations of disease, retained in nervous disorders of all kinds the distressing traces of the malarial which afflicted their childhood."

"In the early life of Lincoln these unwholesome, physical conditions were especially prevalent. The country around Pigeon creek was, literally, devastated by the terrible malarial miasma, which carried away his mother and half his family. His father left his home in Sangamon county also on account of the frequency and severity of the attacks of fever and ague, which were suffered there; and, in general, Abraham was exposed through all the earlier part of his life to those malarial influences which made, during the first half of this century, the various preparations of Peruvian bark a part of the daily food of the people of Indiana and Illinois."

"In many instances this miasmatic poison did not destroy the strength or materially shorten the lives of those who absorbed it in their youth; but the effects remained in periodical attacks of gloom and depression."

Lincoln had such attacks of gloom and depression.

Whether they were due to malaria and were cured with quinine, as Nicolay and Hay say—

Or to the liver, and were cured by calomel.

Or to an inherent quality of his mind, and were cured by mental training self-applied—

This is an Einstein for Doc Barton to decide.

You're Not Too Skinny.

Miss Anna A. writes: "I am a girl almost 17 years old and troubled with hiccough after eating. I am 5 feet 5 inches tall and weigh 120 pounds."

"I can't do anything I can do to avoid the hiccoughs after meals? It is very annoying."

"2. Should I weigh more? Mother and friends always say I am too skinny, although I always eat."

REPLY.

1. If you will hiccoughize your food your hiccough will disappear. Hiccough of the kind you have results from eating improperly.

2. One hundred twenty-six pounds is right. Why worry about six pounds?

Nasal Diphtheria Severe.

Omaha writes: "1. How does diphtheria in the nose act?"

"2. Is it dangerous?"

"3. Does the patient break out with little pimples on the face?"

"4. Does the nose fester up?"

REPLY.

1. Like diphtheria elsewhere. The membrane is found in the nose. In some cases it is not found elsewhere.

2. Very. Nasal diphtheria is one of the severest forms of the disease.

3. That is not a characteristic symptom.

4. Same answer.

Parents' Problems

Should school boys be allowed to work on Saturdays? This would depend on the nature of the work and the physical condition of the particular boy. The school teacher and the family physician should be consulted.

Would Add Strength In U. S. Senate

Mark Sullivan, the political prophet of Washington, D. C., has the following to say about the candidacy of C. H. Gustafson of Nebraska for the U. S. Senate:

"His appearance in the Senate would add more to the distinctly 'farm bloc' strength. Mr. Gustafson is president of the Grain Growers' association, which is closely affiliated with the American Farm Bureau Federation and represents the latest and latest of the efforts of the farmers in the direction of economic self-help."

As a Senator from Nebraska he would be one of the most effective representatives at the seat of government.

Illinois Central Railroad Co.

To All Illinois Central System Shopmen: Chicago, Ill., July 10, 1922

On June 14th I addressed a communication to you in which I appealed to you to cast your vote against the proposed strike. Since that time the strike has been called by your leaders, and some of you have left your positions, while others have remained steadfast. I feel that the time has arrived when I should make clear to those of you who have left your positions, as well as those of you who have remained, the position of the Illinois Central System with reference to this entire matter.

In my letter to you of June 14th I enumerated the three things which your leaders proposed to have you strike against; namely, (1) contracting of shop plants to outsiders, (2) the order of the United States Railroad Labor Board relating to rules and working conditions and (3) the order of the United States Railroad Labor Board establishing rates of pay effective July 1.

The question of contracting shops to outsiders is not a part of the controversy so far as you and the management of the Illinois Central System are concerned, because this railway system has not contracted any of its shops to outsiders. The questions involved in the matter of rules and working conditions and the order establishing rates of pay effective July 1 are the only ones at issue. They are not questions between you and the Illinois Central System management. They were decided by the United States Railroad Labor Board and those of you who are out on strike are striking against lawful decisions of a branch of the United States Government.

It goes without saying that the public welfare cannot permit the revocation of a decision of a governmental agency under a threat of the use of force. No patriotic citizen would expect such a thing to be done, or would have it done. We believe that we have the best government in the world, but you will all agree with me that it would not long so remain if its institutions could be over-ridden and set aside in the manner sought by those who are contending against the lawful decisions of the United States Railroad Labor Board.

The management of the Illinois Central System believes that those of you who are out on strike have been misled. It bears no feeling of hostility toward those who left its service. To those who have remained loyal it acknowledges a debt of gratitude. It feels that it has a valuable asset in its old employees, and it is eager to hold them together. It believes that, if those of you who are out will calmly analyze the issues upon which you are striking your better judgment will assert itself and you will return to your positions. I sincerely invite you to return. Moreover, I earnestly advise you to pursue that course.

Those who report for duty not later than 11:59 P. M. Monday, July 17, 1922, may do so with the resumption of full seniority and pension rights and will be treated as if their services had been continuous. Those returning after that time, if accepted, will rank as new employees.

I trust that those of you who are out will consider this matter seriously and that your action, whatever it may be, will turn out to be for your own best interests, as well as the best interests of your families and those dependent upon you for a living.

I ask those of you who are striking to bear in mind that you accepted the decisions of the United States Railroad Labor Board when they were favorable to you, and that the Illinois Central System accepted those decisions which were unfavorable to it. Let me also again remind you that since December, 1917, you have received three general increases in wages and that your hourly rates of wages in effect at present, as fixed by the United States Railroad Labor Board, are from 40 to 113 per cent higher than in 1917, as follows:

	July, 1922	Hourly Rates	1917	Hourly Rates	Increases
Machinists, Boilermakers and Blacksmiths.....	70c		50c		40%
Helpers, various classes.....	47c	29 1/2 c	32 1/2 c	45 to 59%
Coch Carpenters.....	70c		40c		75%
Freight Car Carpenters.....	63c		35 1/2 c		77%
Car Repairmen.....	63c		29 1/2 c		113%

Upon reflection, I believe that you will be broad-minded enough to accept the recent decisions of the United States Railroad Labor Board which you consider unfavorable. A long-drawn-out contest would mean losses and suffering, not only for you and your families, but also for the public. We should all recognize that the public interest always rises above the interests of the railroad or of its employees.

None of us is fortunate enough to have issues affecting his life always decided in his favor. The principle of "rule or ruin" invariably has led to disaster. It can have no other ending. The wisdom of the principles of "give and take" and "live and let live" have been fully demonstrated. Those are the principles upon which we desire to conduct this railway system for the benefit of the public, the employees and the owners.

The management of the Illinois Central System is under obligations to serve the public with uninterrupted transportation and under any conditions which may arise it must faithfully discharge that obligation.

I ask that you accept this letter in that same friendly spirit in which I address you, free from any feeling of hostility or censure for anything that has been said or done in regard to this unhappy affair.
