DO you remember the Brandeis Store Shopping Expedition that made a tour of Europe last winter? Because of its unusual character, that expedition attracted general attention. That it was productive for merchant and customer alike, we well knew, for the reason that even our representatives were surprised at many of the rare bargains they obtained. Some of these purchases arrived several weeks ago. Now, week by week, others are coming in. In today's ad you have a hint of the success of that tour. You find it in the offering we make of a carload of clothes baskets made in Belgium, where basket weaving has come to be a real art. You will be impressed with the good quality of these baskets and delighted with the low prices. In linens, direct from Ireland, our customers obtain another advantage from our European trip and in that department the prices are, likewise, attractive.

You will be interested in knowing that there are cities much larger than Omaha whose stores have never enjoyed a European shopping tour on anything like so large a scale as that of the Brandeis Store. Aside from the matter of the advantages which our customers obtain from such an expedition, it will be a matter of pride to them, as it is to us, that an Omaha store is able to carry to a successful conclusion such an important enterprise.
