Safe or Out,

Q. Are there any players in major league games who bat cross handed?

A. None of whom I know. Occasionally one begins that way but he usually changes his style.

Q. Umpire was behind the bat and the ball which was thrown home, glanced from the catcher to the umpire. He advanced the runners. Was that right?

A. The ball was in play when it hit the umpire and the runners did not have to be advanced. They could not be advanced arbitrarily.

Q. If the batter is hit by a pitched ball which he does not attempt to dodge should he be given a base?

A. It depends on what the umpire thinks. Usually he should not be given one.

Q. Batter hits a home run over the fence and fails to touch first. Is it a home run?

A. No, not if the fielding side discovers the blunder and makes the put out.

Q. Runner on third with two out. Batter strikes at the second strike as the runner starts home. They catch the runner between bases and finally the catcher blocks him without the ball in his hand. The umpire says the run counts. If it does it wins the game. Was he right?

A. I should say yes. The catcher has no right to block the runner if he does not have the ball in his possession.

Buffaloes Split Double Bill With Isbell's Witches

Omaha Loses First, 2 to 6 With Aid of "Ump" and Cops, Second by 7 to 5 Score.

In the doubleheader replete with thrills, the Omaha Buffaloes and the Wichita Witches divided a doubleheader at league park yesterday afternoon, Isabell's gang copping the opener, 6 to 2 and the Buffaloes annexing the second bargain-day attraction by the score of 7 to 5.

The first contest was a hard game for the Buffaloes to drop. Aided by the work of "ump" Held, the Witches shoved over two scores, one in the figrst and another in the fourth, that failed to meet with the approval of the spectators and there was a large crowd of the latter.

In the first inning, "Midget" Smith reached third by a single, walk and sacrifice and then stole home, according to "ump" Held. Blakesley was at bat and had two strikes registered against him when Smith came home. Pitcher Tipple whipped the ball to Wilder who in turn nabbed Mr. Smith, but not according to Held.

Again in Sixth.

Again in the sixth the Buffaloes were handed a poor decision. Smith knocked a high one down to Grantham at third. Shirtstop Wilcox, scenting trouble, eased over beside Grantham. The latter juggled the ball and it fell into Wilcox's mitts. While all this was going on, Manda crossed the rubber "Ump" Held had his optics glued on the plate, but called Smith safe at first. All this hapened after two hands were down, and didn't help the "home boys" in the least.

Outside of "ump" Held's work, the first game was an exhibition of dandy pitching on the part of "Lanky" McDonald of the visiting crew. McDonald didn't strike out as many as Tipple, but he had far better control and a curve ball that the Buffaloes failed to connect with. "Mac" worked the entire nine innings and allowed but five hits, all of them being of the scattered variety.

Dan Tipple hurled for the Buffaloes. The husky Buffalo was troubled with the heat or something, for he allowed the Witches eleven hits, of which three were doubles. He walked six Witches and walked 'em all at the wrong time. He struck out eight of Isabell's athletes and succeeded in wriffing the mighty Eeast, home run king of the Western league, three times.

Score in First.

The Witches scored one in the first and shoved two runs across the pan in the fourth on a base on balls, two singles and a Buffalo bobble. A base on balls, error and McDonald's double resulted in another Wichita tally in the sixth and in the eighth the 1921 champs registered two scores on a single, sacrifice, McDowell's double and a single.

In the sixth inning, with three men on, McDonald doubled. Blakesley scored, but Manda and McDowell were both caught at the ulate. Manda was on second and McDonald on first when McDonald clouted out his double to center Manush whipped the ball to Catcher Spencer who tagged the two Wichita runners at the plate.

Manush's triple in the fourth inning paved the way for the first Omaha score. The Buffalo centerfielder scored a minute later on Begrer's error. The Buffaloes started a rally in the eighth, but only one run was eased across the rubber and Omaha lost the first game.

"Dad" Gregory labored through the second game for the Witches and was treated roughly by the Buffaloes in the first inning.

Buffaloes Score Five.

In the first spasm, Gregory was nicked for three singles and a double. These blows coupled with a base on balls and Gregory's bobble caused five Buffaloes to score. During the eight innings Gregory toiled, he permitted the Buffaloes to swat out eleven hits, one of these being a homer by Manush.

Joe Dailey pitched for Omaha and was nicked frequently. Re received good support at the proper times although one Buffalo error resulted in the final Wichita tally in the ninth.

Besides hurling Gregory copped the batting honors of the afternoon for Wichita. "Dad" poled out a home run with one on in the fifth inning and his double in the sixth scored the fourth run for his team.

Manush's homer over the right-field fence in the fifth session was the run that won the game for Omaha

Joe Berger, manager of the Wichita club, engaged "Ump" Held in oral combat in the sixth inning and was ousted from the lot.

The same teams play this afternoon.
