Bennett's Homer in Seventh Enables Tulsa to Beat Buffaloes in First Game

Omaha Loses When Fincher Weakens, 3 to 4

"Big Bill" Hurls Good Ball Crosby, e for Six Innings-Manush Gets Home

By RALPH WAGNER.

One mighty home run over the Benpeer, e .... seventh in n i n g enabled the Tulsa Oilers to grab the first game of the Series with the Omaha Buffaloes

at league park yesterday afternoon. The score was 4 to 3.

With the Oilers trailing, 2 to 3, in the seventh in the seventh. and the tying run and the tying run on second, this bird Bennett politely spanked the ball on the mose and sent it sailing out of the park for his seventeenth homer of the season. This little hunk of stick work on the part of Bennett decided a pitchers' battle in favor of Carl Black and Lelivelt's Oilers.

After hurling good ball for six innings, "Big Bill" Fincher felt the effects of the heat in the seventh inning and withered down to where the Tulsa sluggers got to him for four runs and five hits, enough of the forming and withered down to where the Tulsa sluggers got to him for four runs and five hits, enough of the former to win the game. During the first half dozen frames, "Big Bill" struck out six Oilers and allowed buy four hits. Only one Oiler east past first base in the first six innings.

Black on Mound.

Carl Black, better known to Western league fans as just plain "Grunt" Black, was Manager Jack Lelivel's choice for slab duty. "Grunt" held the Buffaloes to six hits, one of these being a homer by Manush—his 13th, 10 ft hills the base in the "season. Coupled with Black's hurling was dandy support.

sion by getting a single. McGinnis also singled, advancing Stuart. Met Ginnis came to bat and doubled, scoring Stuart. At this stage of the game, Fincher started withering. Crosby then doubled and McGinnis went to third. The Buffalo hurler continued to wobble as Black strolled to the plate and cracked out a single to center, scoring McGinnis. Crosby attempted to race home on the single, but a little quick work on the part of Fincher caught the Oiler at the plate. Apperson, in whippin' the ball home, threw wide of the plate. Black took second on the throw, but Crosby failed to make the home station before Fincher scooped up the ball and made the throw to Spencer. Bennett's homer with Black on second won the game.
