Wife of Sportsman Says Message From Dead Father Told Her to Slay

Sister.

New York, July 27 .- A message from her dead father urging her to "make an end of all this business" prompted Mrs. Minnie Reisler, wife of "John The Barber" Reisler, widely known sporting man, to shoot her sister. Bertha Katz, police quoted her as saying, after the had been locked up with her two sons and a brother on homicide charges.

Miss Katz was shot in her home early Wednesday. Detectives indicated they believed Mrg. Reisler's statement, although Miss Katz, in a deathbed gratement, told them that Morris Reisler, a son of Mrs. Reisler, fired the shots which killed her. Morris, George Reisler and Max Katz were held with Mrs. Reisler after an investigation of Glad She Obeyed.

"I did it because my father, who is dead, came to me in a dream and told me to put an end to all this business," police said Mrs. Reisler told them. "He knew what was go-ing on. In the Jewish religion, peo-ple believe those dreams. I was disgusted with myself for waiting. And

An all-day search failed to bring John the Barber" whose alleged love affair with Miss Katz was declared by Mrs. Reisler to have been the cause of the shooting, into the hands of the police. Mrs. Reisler maintained throughout the day the same attitude of defiance that she had had since early in the morning when she screamed "you lie" to the dying girl as the latter accused Morris Reisler of the murder.

Broke Door Down.

"I shot her and I'm glad of she told reporters. "We broke the door and she came running toward me in her night gown. I yelled and shot. She grabbed me and I fired again. She kept on fighting and I gave her another and because she wasn't dead then, I fired again.
Then she dropped.
"I wanted to catch them both.

Morris and George and my brother Max were with me because they thought I was going to beat her up. They did not know I had a gun.

Bertha were going to Bertha's apartment last night and we stood in the rain waiting for them. But when they drove up Bertha saw us and my husband stepped on the gas When Freiden appeared at the door and I couldn't shoot. Then later the of her home Mrs. Taylor, according and I couldn't shoot. Then later the boys helped me break in the door and I killed Bertha. I am glad of it too. It's off my mind and I won't have to worry about it any more."

Baltimore, Md. Rothery was arrested after he is alleged to have stolen a $1,500 ring from a jeweler there. He gave the name of McClellan, but the manner in which he stole the ring led the authorities to believe he was Rothery. Rothery and his methods are known all over the world. Police in the arger cities of the United States and surope have trailed him from time time during his career.

When asked by Baltimore police to identify Rothery, Detective Anderson of the Bertillon bureau here, located the Scotland Yard picture and noted that it closely resembled the one taken recently in Baltimore. Rothery was arrested here September 23, 1891, charged with being a jewelry sneak and ordered out of town. At that time he was well known in Omaha, having figured prominently in a saloon brawl before
