Meyer and Grosse had played sensationally in previous matches and the fact that they did not put up a stronger game was a disappointment. To local followers. The scores were 6-2, 6-1, 6-3.

Meyer's faulty returns netted many points for his advercarits.

The victory entitles Bagby and Newell to compose in the natinal doubles tournament at Longwood next month.

St. Louis. July 30.—The Browns regained first place defeating Boston, moving one-half game ahead of the Yankees, due to the latter's defeat by Chicago. Wayne Wright pitched excellent ball, holding the visitors to five hits, one a home run by Menosky, who batted for Russell in the eighth inning. Two home runs, one by Jacobson and one by Williams, accounted for three of the Browns tallies. Tobin being on first when Williams made his circuit drive.

The Browns won minus the services of First Buseman Sister and Catcher Severeid, both of whom were injured in Saturday's game. Score:
