striking shopmen from interfering with shop workers.

The injunctions provide that it is a violation for strikers to call workers "scabs," to carry banners or to place more than one picket at any one point near railroad property. Harold E. Clancy of Clinton, arrested for violating an injunction at Council Bluffs, was arraigned before Judge Wade. His bond was fixed at $500, and the case was set for trial His attorney demanded a jury trial. Clancy is alleged to have crossed a right of way against the wishes of a railroad guard.
