

Benson Society

Benson Correspondent—Call Walnut 5370.

Vacationists.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson left Wednesday for a six weeks' vacation trip by auto through Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Wooley will leave August 12 for Denver. Mrs. Rebecca Meyers is visiting relatives at Rockford, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson left Saturday for a two weeks' outing at Lake Okoboji. Miss Amelia Wehrs, who teaches in the South High, and her sister, Miss Cecelia Wehrs, of the Beatrice schools, are vacationing in Denver and Colorado Springs. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kelley are making plans for a trip through Wyoming and to the west coast. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stanley and family are at Sunset Beach, Lake Minnetonka, Minn.

Birthday Party.

Duane Beavers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beavers, celebrated his 13th birthday with a party Tuesday at his home in Bensonhurst. Thirteen of his boy friends were in attendance. A very merry party was enjoyed.

M. E. Home Mission Society.

Ladies of the Methodist Home Mission society will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. C. Sturtz, 6561 Maple street.

En Route to Home in East.

Five hundred Walther leaguers who attended the national convention in Omaha a few weeks ago and then left for a trip through Colorado and Yellowstone park went through Omaha Monday, en route to their homes in the east. While in Colorado they held an early morning sacred service on the top of Pike's Peak—first services of that kind ever held there.

Ladies' Aid Society.

Members of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society will meet Wednesday, August 16, at the home of Mrs. R. A. Sherbondy. The nominating committee for the election of officers, to be held the first Wednesday in September, will be named at this meeting. Mrs. D. C. Sturtz has been president of this society during the past three years.

Vacation Disturbances.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barton, Mrs. G. W. Hamilton and Mrs. Russell Walsh, who left a couple of weeks ago for a fortnight of quiet vacation pleasures at Spirit Lake, Ia., were destined to be reminded that "the best laid plans," etc., go amiss at times. The second day after their arrival the hotel in which they were stopping burned. After getting their belongings safely housed in a nearby hotel they assisted in the rescue work from the burning building. Mr. Hamilton joined the party for the week-end, departing for Chicago Monday accompanied by Mrs. Hamilton. While in Chicago Mrs. Hamilton became seriously ill and was hurriedly brought to her home in Keystone park, where she is slowly recovering. The remainder of the party finished their two weeks at the lake and returned to Benson feeling that vacations were rather strenuous.

Highland Park Kensington.

Mrs. R. H. Walstrom was hostess Friday afternoon at her home to the members of the Highland Park Kensington club.

Student Pastor Fills Pulpit.

A student pastor from the Midland college at Fremont filled the pulpit last Sunday at the English Lutheran church. Rev. O. W. Ebricht, regular pastor, will deliver the sermon today. Rev. Mr. Ebricht returned Monday from Burlington, where he was called by the serious illness of Mrs. Ebricht, who had been taken from Carthage, Ill., where she was visiting, to a hospital in Burlington for an appendicitis operation.

Union Sacred Services.

Regular union sacred services will be held Sunday evening on the Presbyterian church. Rev. E. E. Money-maker will deliver the sermon.

Personals.

F. B. Oliver was soloist Sunday at the Zion Lutheran church. Mrs. G. W. Uhler is home from a fortnight's visit in Cheyenne, Wyo. Gorton Roth left Wednesday for a business trip to Washington, D. C. Miss Roma Roth is a guest of Miss Lillian Calvert of Plattsmouth, Neb. Miss Dorothy Roth is visiting relatives and friends in Tekamah, Neb. Miss Grace Barry of Blair is a mid-week guest at the home of Mrs. James Maney.

Mrs. C. E. Smith and children returned home Thursday from a visit at Alliance, Neb.

A. J. Weet of Wisner is visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Leuthausen, and Mr. Leuthausen.

Y. W. C. A.

Misses Glen Vale Sleeper, Verla A. Black, Harriet Brenestall, Louise Brown, Helen Sorenson and Isabel Nixon leave Omaha the first of the week to attend the Central City conference of Y. W. C. A. at Lake Geneva, Wis., August 8 to 18. Miss Sleeper, who is membership secretary for the Omaha association will be delegation leader, and Miss Verla Black, recreation secretary for the local association, will have charge of the recreation program for the entire conference.

The "Slogan Contest" poster in the lobby of central Y. W. C. A. building is attracting considerable attention. A $5 prize is offered to the individual or club submitting the best slogan to be used for the finance campaign in October. Contest closes September 1.

All Y. W. C. A. members and friends—here is a chance to "sharpen your wits."

During these hot days those who are unable to avail themselves of the swimming pool at Camp Brewster will be glad to know that special rates will be made for the use of the shower baths in the freshly painted basement of the Central building, at Seventeenth street and St. Marys avenue.

Circle 6 of the First Presbyterian church had luncheon at Camp Brewster on Thursday.

The first year gymnasium girls are having a reunion at camp this week-end.

In addition to the many transient guests registered at camp for a stay of a day or two—there are at present about 50 business girls who are spending their vacations of from one to three weeks at Camp Brewster.

Evangelist R. R. Brown will give a Bible talk at noon today and at the 5 o'clock vesper service there will be a talk on "Trees" by Mrs. Carrie Ada Campbell and special music.

Library Chats

The reading rooms in the public library are very popular these warm summer days.

"The Story of Mankind," by Van Loon is in the reference room and is available for those who wish to read it half hour or more in the library. Dictionaries, reference books, suggestions for parties and books on games may also be found in the reference room.

H. G. Wells, "Secret Places of the Heart," which is a collection of a great deal of discussion as it is written in a style and theme quite foreign to the authors accept books, is on the library shelves.

The following books on travel are also available: "Two Years Before the Mast," by Dana; "Travels With a Donkey," Stevenson; "Innocents Abroad," Twain; "How I Found Livingstone," Stanley; "The Purple Land," by Hudson; "Travels of Marco," the Venetian; "Oregon Trails," by Parkman; "Mirrors of the Sea," by Conrad; "A Vagabond Journey Around the World," Franck; "South," by Schachtel. This group was voted by visitors to the International Travel Exhibit held in New York as the most popular travel books ever written.

If you wish a bit of information in a hurry use the library telephone. Any questions will be gladly looked up and answered.

Christ Child Society

Mrs. A. V. Kinsler, president of the Christ Child society, who is spending the summer in Europe, attended the convention of the International Federation of Settlements, which was held in London the first week in July.

The Lightning Athletic club is already making preparations for football. John Johnson, basketball star, Morgan has been elected captain and manager for the coming season.

A party was given at the center on Tuesday afternoon in honor of little Concetta Cova's ninth birthday. Concetta has been in this country but a short time and she speaks English very well. The children played games and sang songs. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Charles La Rose and S. J. Carnazzo were the winners in a pitch tournament which was staged by the Lightning Athletic club at the Center, on Friday evening.

Now Is the Time to Consider Fall Fashions

To write to Polly the shopper, who shops free of charge for every reader of The Omaha Bee, taking time to outline for you the new fashions of the season. Do not send money for information in regard to what you think you'll want for fall and winter. Polly—at your service—will delight to answer your inquiries at length, making a tour of the shops for what she thinks you'd like, sending interesting details, fabric names, colors, prices, together with sketches of models seen. If garments are ordered sent C. O. D., remember that a $2 deposit fee is requisite.

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

Not just this little garden with its hollyhocks is mine—
Its phlox, its pinks, its pansies, and its flights of columbine.

Mine the park at Blenheim; mine the woods at Fontainebleau;
Mine that old moat at Warwick where the rhododendrons grow.
The roses at Portland are mine, too, and I shall keep Their fragrant beauty always; mine the dazzling flame-drifts deep

Of glory at Magnolia; mine, beneath soft purple skies,
That jasminted Creole garden where I watched the gold moon rise.
Mine that old planted places—ours, oh heart, because we care—
We've loved our bit of bare, brown earth so much, flowers blossom there!

—MY GARDEN—By Anne Arnold.

DEAR FASHION FOLLOWERS:

FOR the first dinner dance of fall are the gracefully draped little black dresses shown, caught in fascinating fashion at one side by jade-set buckle, with a suggestion of ground sweeping length expressed by hem extending points in unexpected places. Of unusual length, too, the enveloping fur coats shown. A season of intriguing caprice.
