

Cool Breezes Heighten Enjoyment at the Den

Cool northern breezes made last night one of the pleasantest of the summer in the Ak-Sar-Ben den, where visitors and the regular crowd of knights viewed "King Arthur's Goats" as presented by the Ak-Sar-Ben players in unparalleled style.

Special guests of the evening included several hundred inhabitants of Ashland, Wahoo, Memphis, Mead and other parts of the vocational training school, Bellevue, and the staff officers from Fort Crook.

The professional quality of the show was acclaimed by those who had not seen it before. Dr. Wagener's famous saxophone octet scored a big hit.

The Chinese make out of the soy bean a substance strongly resembling milk in color, taste and chemical composition.
