

SOCIETY AND WOMAN'S PAGE

Omahans Wed in Berkeley.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Helen Drummond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Drummond of this city, to Charles Partridge of Berkeley, Cal. Mr. Partridge was a widower, and the wedding took place at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stirling Parr, and was a quiet affair. Miss Drummond has just recently finished a course at the University of California. Mr. Partridge is a former Omahan, and he and his wife are expected here for a visit in September. They are now on a motor trip through California, and will make their home in Los Angeles.

Krelle-Semerad.

The wedding of Miss Pauline Semerad and Herman Krelle took place last evening at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit. A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother.

Miss Semerad had as maid of honor Miss Bess Vasco of Howells, Neb., and for two matrons of honor were Mrs. Benjamin Koomman and Mrs. B. F. Krelle. The bride wore white tulle with a crown veil. Miss Vasco wore coral. Mrs. Krelle an orchid shade, and Mrs. Koomman was gown in peach crepe. They carried colonial bouquets, while the bride carried roses and lilies of the valley.

The Rev. C. A. Burkholder read the service, and Mr. Krelle had as his best man Benjamin Koomman. His ushers were Bert Krelle and Victor Button. Little Virginia Smiley was flower girl and Walter Janacek and Clark Krelle stretched the ribbons.

After a two-weeks' honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Krelle will be at home at the Coronado apartments.

Popular Visitor From Seattle.

Many affairs are being given for Mrs. J. M. Hensman of Seattle, Wash., who is here visiting her brother, Dr. W. H. Lacey, and her sister, Mrs. S. E. Underwood. She spent last week-end in Jefferson, Ia., as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard. Tuesday Mrs. William H. Gould, Jr., was hostess at luncheon at her home, honoring Mrs. Hensman, when covers were laid for Mrs. James B. Brooks of Portland, W. H. Lacey, S. E. Underwood, R. O. Luckey, Ethel Gould, W. H. Dorrance, Gertrude Cahow, B. E. Rogers and Miss Betty Jean Gould. Dr. and Mrs. Lacey gave an old-time party at their home last evening and Mr. and Mrs. Underwood will entertain at dinner Friday evening at the Carter Lake club for her. Mrs. Hensman will motor to Elkhorn Thursday for dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Whitney. She will spend next week-end with relatives at Center, Neb., and will return to Omaha to visit until August 20, when she leaves for Seattle.

Bridge for Ohio Visitor.

Miss Gladys Summers entertained at bridge Tuesday evening at her home, complimentary to Miss Florence Chapman of Ashland, O., who is visiting her aunt, Miss Alice Geisselman.

For Miss Sutherland.

Mrs. Terry Reimers entertained at a bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home in honor of her sister, Miss Georgianna Sutherland, of Grand Island, Neb.

Covers were placed for the Misses Sutherland, Ruth Miller, Sarah Smeaton, Geraldine Nussbaum, Alice Kimberly, Betty Kennedy, Helen Stollenberg, Jubanta Harper, Marjorie Pancoast, Katherine Smith, Elizabeth Morgan and Marguerite Hess.

Old Soldiers Entertained.

Vocal selections by Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Schlegel, Comrade D. M. Haverly and Comrade Emory Johnson will be a feature of the lawn social to be given by Betsy Ross tent, Daughters of Veterans Thursday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock, at the home of Comrade Johnson, 1018 South Thirty-first street, for members of Old Guard and Phil Kearney posts, their families and widows of civil war veterans.

Mrs. Alton F. Munnell is in charge of the affair.

Miss Leach Honored.

Miss Ruth Wallace was hostess Wednesday at a luncheon at her home complimentary to Miss Nancy Leach, the guest of Miss De Wency Conrad. Covers were laid for 12 and bridge followed.

Porto Rico has nearly 4,000 women school teachers.

Personals

The Misses Edythe and Helen Harsch have returned from a week's stay at Lake Okoboji.

Miss Isabel Bostwick left Wednesday for her home in Pasadena, Cal., after a visit here with Mrs. Victor Caldwell.

William Wallace will leave Friday for Berkeley, where he will enter his second year at the University of California.

Mrs. Ferdinand Adler left Wednesday for Manitou and Estes Park, Colo. She will not return to Omaha until October.

Miss Mary Louise Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryan of Lincoln, is visiting Miss Ruth Miller for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Lamarre returned Wednesday from a month's trip in Ohio and Michigan, where they visited relatives.

Mrs. Lloyd Holsapple, who has been visiting her parents in Hudson, N. Y., is expected to return to Omaha the end of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Nelson, who motored to Woodland Park, Colo., are now at the Broadmoor hotel with Mrs. Nelson's sister, Miss Emma Hiett.

Miss Ida Adams, daughter of Captain and Mrs. C. E. Adams, has gone to California for the month of August. She will visit relatives in Los Angeles.

Miss Alice E. Hitt, supervisor of art in the Omaha schools, is spending the summer in Los Angeles, Cal. Miss Anna Adams and her sister, Miss Fanny Adams, are also summering in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Edward L. Burke and son, Ned Burke, left Wednesday by motor for Estes Park for two weeks. Mr. Burke, who is on a camping trip in Nevada, will join them at Estes Park before their return.

Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Luce of Lincoln were in Omaha Tuesday enroute to Minnesota. They will visit their daughter, Mrs. Paul Schoy at Rochester, and go to St. Paul, Minneapolis and a number of the lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor White of Omaha are in Los Angeles for a few days on their way to San Diego, where they will spend several weeks. Late in August they will attend a Masonic convention in Salt Lake City.

Miss Henrietta Rees returned Wednesday from six months' trip in Europe. While in Paris she met Mrs. A. V. Kinsler and Miss Mary Munchhoff of Omaha, who are summering abroad. Miss Rees will be with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rees for a few days.

Miss Alice Putnam, daughter of Mrs. Irene Putnam, who has been spending the summer at Camp Tecumseh on Lake Madison, is now at Watertown, S. D., on her way to Sioux Falls, where she will visit her uncle, Dr. E. D. Putnam, and family. Mrs. Putnam will join her daughter about the middle of the month.

Birth Announcements.

A son was born August 8 at Lord Lister hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parsley.

A daughter was born August 8 at the Methodist hospital to Mr. and Mrs. W. O. De Veres.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCloud announce the birth of a daughter August 5 at the Methodist hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Swanson announce the birth of a daughter, August 8, at the Methodist hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Davis announce the birth of a son at the Clark hospital, August 6. Mrs. Davis was formerly Miss Olga Metz.

Announcement is made of the birth of a daughter at the Methodist hospital, August 6, to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weiner. Mrs. Weiner was formerly Miss Fanny Greenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Washington, D. C., who have been occupying the C. M. Wilhelm house for the summer, are host and hostess to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dixon of New York. In September Mr. and Mrs. Smith will take Miss Carrie Millard's apartment until after the holidays.

Junior Girls to Hold Their Annual Tennis Tournament.

The junior girls' tennis tournament is scheduled for August 14-19 at the Omaha Field club. The tournament is held under the national tennis tournament and is for all girls up to 18 years of age. It has been held for several years, and the school girls are eager to make it an annual affair. Miss Letha Gant, Miss Eleanor Smith and Miss Margaret Shotwell are in charge. Thirty-two entries are necessary and there are already 21. Further entries may be made with Miss Shotwell at Harney 3449. Entrance fee is $1.50. Among those now signed are:

Florence Drake, Ruth Daniels, Helen Hoover, Josephine and Bessie Kory, Alice Holsapple, Claire Abbott, Geraldine Wyckoff, Elaine Musmann, Mary Harsch, Elizabeth Roberts, Eleanor Brown, Katherine Gallagher, Emma Nash and Anna Young.

Bridge Tea.

Miss Geraldine Nussbaum entertained the following at a bridge tea Wednesday afternoon at her home: Mrs. Terry Reimers, Mrs. John O. Yeiser, Jr., the Misses Georgianna Sutherland of Grand Island, Miss Mary Louise Bryan, Lincoln Sarah Smeaton, Betty Kennedy, Marion Howe, Ruth Miller, Lucile Lathrop, Alice Kimberly, Mary Alice Turney and Mary Findley.

Mrs. Yeiser presided at the tea table.

Kappa Psi Delta.

Miss Mary Kilian will entertain the alumnae of the Kappa Psi Delta sorority at her home Thursday evening.

Miss Alice E. Hitt, supervisor of art in the Omaha schools, is spending the summer in Los Angeles, Cal. Miss Anna Adams and her sister, Miss Fanny Adams, are also summering in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Edward L. Burke and son, Ned Burke, left Wednesday by motor for Estes Park for two weeks. Mr. Burke, who is on a camping trip in Nevada, will join them at Estes Park before their return.

Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Luce of Lincoln were in Omaha Tuesday enroute to Minnesota. They will visit their daughter, Mrs. Paul Schoy at Rochester, and go to St. Paul, Minneapolis and a number of the lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor White of Omaha are in Los Angeles for a few days on their way to San Diego, where they will spend several weeks. Late in August they will attend a Masonic convention in Salt Lake City.

Miss Henrietta Rees returned Wednesday from six months' trip in Europe. While in Paris she met Mrs. A. V. Kinsler and Miss Mary Munchhoff of Omaha, who are summering abroad. Miss Rees will be with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rees for a few days.

Miss Alice Putnam, daughter of Mrs. Irene Putnam, who has been spending the summer at Camp Tecumseh on Lake Madison, is now at Watertown, S. D., on her way to Sioux Falls, where she will visit her uncle, Dr. E. D. Putnam, and family. Mrs. Putnam will join her daughter about the middle of the month.

Announcement is made of the birth of a daughter at the Methodist hospital, August 6, to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weiner. Mrs. Weiner was formerly Miss Fanny Greenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Washington, D. C., who have been occupying the C. M. Wilhelm house for the summer, are host and hostess to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dixon of New York. In September Mr. and Mrs. Smith will take Miss Carrie Millard's apartment until after the holidays.

My Marriage Problems

Adelle Garrison's New Phase of "REVELATIONS OF A WIFE"

(Copyright 1922)

The Entertainment Lillian Offered Madge.

There was a tenseness in Lillian's manner which told me that "the news" had been brought, to which she had referred so flippantly, was in reality, of great significance. With an experience born of years of association with her, I made her no reply, knowing that she wished none, and she would without questioning tell me anything she wished me to know about Dr. Pettit's news.

"You will no doubt be delighted to hear that the ankle of our distinguished neighbor, Mr. Smith, is entirely well," she said, and I guessed that she was using the mask of mockery to cover the excitement which she scored to betray. "Herbie's going to tell him so tomorrow, and then we can look out for a little high-class diversion."

"Funny thing," she went on. "I'd have sworn that Smith would have tried to cover the tick before this for he's been able to use the ankle for two or three days; only Herbie advised him against it. But I fancy he must be one of those birds who believes everything a doctor says is gospel, and it's lucky for us he does. It gives us a chance to get ready for."

"No one will ever accuse you of making a doctor's word law and during that time I have lived eight months in the same house with my daddy-in-law, and there has been no quarrel. I sometimes ask daddy for advice and when he gives it I do it and do not stop to ask questions. Our fault-finding is given and taken in the same way. My husband was willing that I do as I have done."

A DOUBTFUL WIFE. I think since your husband agrees with you that you are doing right. Your own mother and father have each other, and it is only kindness that you could well afford to take care of a lonely old man who depends on you. The difference in your ages is so much that I cannot see that you are defying the conventions by staying with him.

Why Do They Object? Dear Miss Fairfax: I read your column every day and you have given many others good advice. Do you think that cousins should marry? If my folks object to my marrying, would it be right to? They have no reason why I should not. Or would it be right if one doesn't care and the other does? I do not see my letter in the paper, and thanking you for your advice. BLUE EYES.

Scientists tell us that if two cousins are healthy, and there are no bad tendencies in their families, there is no harm in their marrying, but marriage between first cousins is forbidden by law in Nebraska. You say your parents have no reason for objecting to your marrying. They must have some reason, or they wouldn't object, and unless I know what their reason is I cannot advise you.

ADVERTISING. Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growth.

(Beauty Culture) Here is a method for removing hair from arms, neck or face that is unfeeling and is quite inexpensive. Mix a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water and spread on hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes, rub it off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. No harm or inconvenience results from this treatment, but be careful to get genuine delatone and mix fresh as wanted.

Safe Milk for INFANTS and INVALIDS. Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

Horlick's Malted Milk. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages. Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder. No Cooking—Nourishing—Digestible.

prised, "that Mr. Chester and Mr. Drake will both be here?" She flashed me an enigmatic, mischievous look.

"I'll keep them from clawing each other," she said slyly, and I felt my face flame with resentment at her gibe because of my own anger at her banality.

"But—" I snatched at the first words which came to my mind, "is Mr. Drake well enough for a conference?"

Madge Is Curious. There was reason for my inquiry. I had not seen Allen Drake since the day he had so signally put the accolade of approval upon my solving of the puzzling code found in Smith's eyeglass case. His long hours of arduous mental labor over the code had brought on a succession of terrific nervous headaches which had kept him a prisoner in his room under the care of my father.

"Yes, he's much better today," she responded, and in her tone there was, or so I fancied, an indifference to the man's suffering which I resented. Lillian is so flaming an enthusiast that she sometimes lacks common human sympathy. I told myself hotly, and the next instant was ashamed of my stricture.

"I wish you'd go and haul Katie out of bed," Lillian went on. "Sorry to have to disturb her slumbers, but to put this stun over I'd interrupt Gabriel blowing his horn. There's a good deal at stake, you know."

"Did I fancy it, or was there a rebuke concealed in her words? I concealed my wonder with a question.

"I don't think the bill there is very good tonight," she responded in kind, "while I can offer you a secret conference with three—count 'em, three—charming men present."

"It sounds very attractive," I commented lightly. "Is it too presuming to ask their names?"

"Your father, Allen Drake, and Tom Chester," she replied. "When Herbie left, tonight I told him to round up young Chester and get him over here. He ought to be along pretty soon, and then we'll be able to get a line on this thing."

"You mean," I stammered, surprised, "that Mr. Chester and Mr. Drake will both be here?"

She flashed me an enigmatic, mischievous look.

"I'll keep them from clawing each other," she said slyly, and I felt my face flame with resentment at her gibe because of my own anger at her banality.

"But—" I snatched at the first words which came to my mind, "is Mr. Drake well enough for a conference?"

Madge Is Curious. There was reason for my inquiry. I had not seen Allen Drake since the day he had so signally put the accolade of approval upon my solving of the puzzling code found in Smith's eyeglass case. His long hours of arduous mental labor over the code had brought on a succession of terrific nervous headaches which had kept him a prisoner in his room under the care of my father.

"Yes, he's much better today," she responded, and in her tone there was, or so I fancied, an indifference to the man's suffering which I resented. Lillian is so flaming an enthusiast that she sometimes lacks common human sympathy. I told myself hotly, and the next instant was ashamed of my stricture.

"I wish you'd go and haul Katie out of bed," Lillian went on. "Sorry to have to disturb her slumbers, but to put this stun over I'd interrupt Gabriel blowing his horn. There's a good deal at stake, you know."

"Did I fancy it, or was there a rebuke concealed in her words? I concealed my wonder with a question.

"I don't think the bill there is very good tonight," she responded in kind, "while I can offer you a secret conference with three—count 'em, three—charming men present."

"It sounds very attractive," I commented lightly. "Is it too presuming to ask their names?"

"Your father, Allen Drake, and Tom Chester," she replied. "When Herbie left, tonight I told him to round up young Chester and get him over here. He ought to be along pretty soon, and then we'll be able to get a line on this thing."

"You mean," I stammered, surprised, "that Mr. Chester and Mr. Drake will both be here?"

She flashed me an enigmatic, mischievous look.

"I'll keep them from clawing each other," she said slyly, and I felt my face flame with resentment at her gibe because of my own anger at her banality.

"But—" I snatched at the first words which came to my mind, "is Mr. Drake well enough for a conference?"

Madge Is Curious. There was reason for my inquiry. I had not seen Allen Drake since the day he had so signally put the accolade of approval upon my solving of the puzzling code found in Smith's eyeglass case. His long hours of arduous mental labor over the code had brought on a succession of terrific nervous headaches which had kept him a prisoner in his room under the care of my father.

"Yes, he's much better today," she responded, and in her tone there was, or so I fancied, an indifference to the man's suffering which I resented. Lillian is so flaming an enthusiast that she sometimes lacks common human sympathy. I told myself hotly, and the next instant was ashamed of my stricture.

"I wish you'd go and haul Katie out of bed," Lillian went on. "Sorry to have to disturb her slumbers, but to put this stun over I'd interrupt Gabriel blowing his horn. There's a good deal at stake, you know."

"Did I fancy it, or was there a rebuke concealed in her words? I concealed my wonder with a question.

"I don't think the bill there is very good tonight," she responded in kind, "while I can offer you a secret conference with three—count 'em, three—charming men present."

"It sounds very attractive," I commented lightly. "Is it too presuming to ask their names?"

"Your father, Allen Drake, and Tom Chester," she replied. "When Herbie left, tonight I told him to round up young Chester and get him over here. He ought to be along pretty soon, and then we'll be able to get a line on this thing."

"You mean," I stammered, surprised, "that Mr. Chester and Mr. Drake will both be here?"

She flashed me an enigmatic, mischievous look.

"I'll keep them from clawing each other," she said slyly, and I felt my face flame with resentment at her gibe because of my own anger at her banality.

"But—" I snatched at the first words which came to my mind, "is Mr. Drake well enough for a conference?"

Madge Is Curious. There was reason for my inquiry. I had not seen Allen Drake since the day he had so signally put the accolade of approval upon my solving of the puzzling code found in Smith's eyeglass case. His long hours of arduous mental labor over the code had brought on a succession of terrific nervous headaches which had kept him a prisoner in his room under the care of my father.

"Yes, he's much better today," she responded, and in her tone there was, or so I fancied, an indifference to the man's suffering which I resented. Lillian is so flaming an enthusiast that she sometimes lacks common human sympathy. I told myself hotly, and the next instant was ashamed of my stricture.

"I wish you'd go and haul Katie out of bed," Lillian went on. "Sorry to have to disturb her slumbers, but to put this stun over I'd interrupt Gabriel blowing his horn. There's a good deal at stake, you know."

"Do you want Katie to dress and come down here?"

"You have guessed my meaning exactly," Lillian retorted. "As Katie is to have a prominent role in our little comedy tomorrow—the powers grant it be only a comedy—she ought to rehearse a bit. Don't give her a hint, though. Just tell her I want her."

I went up the stairs to Katie's room with my curiosity mounting at every step. And I had not reached her door when I heard the ring at the doorbell, which I knew "announced" Tom Chester's arrival.

Legion Auxiliary Names Delegates to State Meeting at York.

The American Legion auxiliary elected the following delegates to the state convention to be held in York September 18-20 at a meeting Tuesday evening in Memorial hall, court house: Mesdames Sam Reynolds, Harry Hough, William Mettlen, H. M. Conklin, Leo Crosby, Pat Boyle, Marie Rhode, Carl Kraus and Miss Minnie Isaacson.

Alternates will be chosen at a special meeting, Tuesday evening, August 22, in Memorial hall.

At the Field Club. Mrs. George R. Watson entertained at luncheon Wednesday in honor of Mrs. T. J. Hartley of Peoria, Ill., who is her house guest. Covers were placed for nine.

At the dinner dance last evening Albert Cahn had 10 guests, Dr. George Potter had nine and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hamilton entertained 12.

Parents' Problems

What can be done to help a little girl of 5, who, in the country for the first time, is so afraid of grasshoppers, beetles, toads, etc. that she is unable to be happy out of doors?

Begin very gradually to overcome the terror of insects by telling stories of ants, bees, and butterflies—their nature and habits, and also by reading to her of them. Show her the wonderful home the spider makes for itself, and help her to make a drawing of it. At nightfall find the firefly, and explain all about his lantern. Point out the bees and tell of their habits. All this will awaken an interest and the fear should be a thing of the past. A magnifying glass might be used to good advantage.

Women rice workers in Italy work 14 hours a day.

Sure Relief FOR INDIGESTION

6 BELLANS Hot water Sure Relief

25c and 75c Packages Everywhere

25c and 75c Packages Everywhere

FURS "From Trapper to Wearer" FURS

The woman with discriminating taste is now buying her furs from the NEBRASKA FUR MFG. CO.

She saves at least 30% through our method of buying direct from the trapper. Her garment is manufactured for her ALONE in our own factory and work rooms. She can also make an additional saving by taking advantage of our August Fur Sale.

Her garment will be stored for her until November 1, 1922, without any additional charge.

Nebraska Fur Mfg. Co.

5026 South 26th Street

FURS FURS