

Dundee Burglar Captured While Selling Plunder

Man Who Robbed Home of G. C. Cunningham Confesses—Was Bartering Graduation Gown.

With the arrest of two men, one of whom has made a signed confession, police officials believe they have put an end to a series of burglaries which have taken place within the past two weeks.

Fred Hart of Racine, Wis., one of the men, was taken into custody by Detectives Ryan and English yesterday afternoon while attempting to dispose of several garments at Ninth and Capitol avenue. Shortly afterward, Edward Johnson, Dodge hotel, the other, was arrested by Detectives Franks and Anglin in a pawnshop in lower Douglas street, where, according to the detectives, he had put several articles of stolen jewelry in pawn.

Had Two Suitcases.
When Hart was arrested he had two suitcases filled with clothes, which were stolen from the G. C. Cunningham home at 122 South Fifty-first street Thursday afternoon. He was trying to sell a dress worn by one of Mr. Cunningham's daughters when she graduated from high school.

Hart confessed that he robbed the Cunningham home and also the home of W. H. Morrin, 5009 Nicholas street.

Home Ransacked Twice.
The Cunningham home was ransacked twice this week. Mr. Cunningham's wife and three daughters are spending the summer at the lakes in northern Minnesota. Mr. Cunningham and his son arrived home about 9:30 Monday night and found clothes scattered about the house and several garments missing. Entrance to the house was gained by cutting a glass in a rear door. Thursday night they returned home at 8:30 only to find that the burglar had made a return trip and had taken what he missed during the first burglary.

East Omaha Trustee Makes Willy Move in Fight to Evade Fine

G. A. Palmer, East Omaha trustee, who refuses to pay $13 into the treasury of the village as a fine for absconding himself from 13 village board meetings as per one of the statutes, is patiently waiting for A. L. Timblin, village attorney, to make the next move.

Palmer obtained a change of venue from Justice of the Peace Medore Martin's court in East Omaha to Justice L. N. Bunce's bench in Omaha.

Justice Bunce is waiting for an agreement between plaintiff and defendant as to date for the hearing.

Railroad Restrained From Taking Up Switching Track

The Metropolitan Utilities district obtained an order from district court yesterday restraining the Chicago & Northwestern railroad from taking up a switching track at the Florence Martin plant in East Omaha. Working the track was started yesterday morning and as the workmen refused to stop when told to do so attorneys hastened by automobile to the court-house and then to the home of District Judge Goss where the order was signed and served on the working force.

"It is a track owned by the railroad company and has been there for years," said R. B. Howell, manager of the district. "We have side tracks of our own also but we don't want this particular one removed."

Ranch Comprising 11,000 Acres Sold for $765,000

P. L. Randall of Rapid City at the Hotel Henshaw yesterday told of the sale of the famous Ed Stenger cattle ranch of 11,000 acres, 20 miles south of Rapid City, S. D., to the J. P. Rogers Land company of St. Paul, through Mr. Randall and his brother, G. H. Randall, for $765,000. The sale is one of the largest ranch land transactions recorded in this country for many years.

Moonshine in Medicine Bottles Seized in Raid

Several cases of one-ounce medicine bottles filled with moonshine whiskey, were taken by federal agents in a raid on Morris Ruben's place, upstairs, 423 South Eleventh street, in the city market district. Five gallons of whiskey and 400 to 500 empty whiskey bottles also were found.
