Shop Keepers and Hotel Owners Find Visitors No Longer Spend Money in Lavish Way.

London, Aug. 13.-(By A. P.)-England's shopkeepers, hotel and proprietors and head tourist crop is not of the munificent as she read the first words, enterprises that usually wax fat on ourists rushes the steamship companies are the only ones who have no complaint, for as yet there is no steamship substitute for transattantic travel and they have selever, eclipsed this year's But once landed on Engish soil, this year's tourist has conducted himself quite differently from the old-times who made the Amerithe old-time; who made the American traveler known for his lavial tips, reckless buying of jeweis and clothing and indiscriminate purchases of "curios," genuine or otherwise. Instead of buying trunksfull of apparel, the 1922 tourist is bring-ing plenty of clothing along and do-ing plenty of clothing along along and do-ing plenty of clothing along along along along along along along along his sight-seeing from "rubbernecks" charabanies instead of from the privately hired motor cars of afraid to count too much on that,- Outtipped by British.

According to the waiters, the present-day tourists have trimmed their tips to a scant 10 per cent of their fills-in fact, are outdone by British and continental patrons in the matter of tipping. The hotel macmatter of tipping. agers note a marked decrease in the number of American tourists who travel de luxe with their families and retinues of servants.

"Only a few of those most fortunately situated apparently can af-ford to travel in such state nowadays," was the plaint of one manager.

Chess Given Boom. The world's chess congress, now in session in London, has given a great fillip to the ancient game and budding Capablancas throughout the city may be puzzling over the open gambits and complicated moves, completely ignoring their roast beef and boiled potatoes.

One firm of caterers that operates 200 shops has sets of chessmen for its patrons, which, incidentally, would seem to give an insight into the amount of time available to Eng-

City of Khaki Tents Built by Guardsmen

(Continued From Page One.)

up prizes for the best drilled in its Company K. The road give an annual pass to the men of the best squad in the company. Col. Thomas said the afternoons will be filled with dress parades, guard mounts and just plain drill. The chaplain who is in charge of welfare work plans to give moving picture shows in the evenings. There will also be boxing and wrestling. Lt. Col. W. A. McDaniel is senior instructor of the camp; Capt. J. W. rissy, assistant instructor. They are permanently detailed regular army men. For the two weeks of the camp these additional regular army offi-cers have been detailed for instruc-tion work at the camp: Maj. C. M. Dodson, Maj. Pruym, Maj. Bendell and Capt, E. R. Colpin, besides several regular army "noncoms."

Government Pays Bill. The men receive a minimum of $1 day during the encampment and the officers receive regular army pay during the two weeks. The federal government pays all expenses. Telephone wires were strung to headquarters at the camp today and the extension of the Plattsmouth city water system to the camp was completed and water turned on. A canteen has already been established. There was a baseball game this afternoon,

"The camp started out with the smoothness that should mark the working of an army," said Col. Thomas. "This is a fine site. But. oh, I hope it won't rain. The ground is very low. I think we are due to have a dry spell of two weeks."

Man Who Won Big Verdict From Road Loses on Appeal

O'Neill, Neb., Aug. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge Robert D. Dickson Saturday granted a new trial in the damage suit of W. J. Gartner of Casper, Wyo., against the North-Casper, Wyo., against the North-railroad for an injury received in February, 1921, in falling from a stock train.

permanent injury.

The new trial was granted on an affidavit showing that Gartner had engaged in heavy manual labor for a Casper oil company soon after the Read The Omaha Bec every day, you will like it.

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated

Compare This Price New Tires, Ford $5.95 At the Sprague Factory, 18th and Cuming

Marriage of Barry Wicklow

By RUBY M. AYRES

Copyright, 1922.

Hazel sat looking at it with appre- them since; they had a sort of mashension. She knew quite well that culine comfort that appealed to her; the week was up today. She had she liked them better than this new, wakened that morning with a little expensive flat. quickened heartbeat, wondering what her, what he would expect.

his letter. He had never written to waiters say this year's American her since their marriage. She flushed Her heart swelled with pride.

He was taking a great deal for angry. She read on eagerly;

"I am coming back to town to-morrow, and shall hope to see you immediately. Hazel, I've been very patient. I've tried to do as you wished, but a dozen times a day I've "Barry!" His name rushed to her nearly thrown up the sponge and tips, her heart gave a little throb; ome back to you. Can't you forget she had wanted to see him before all that you can't forgive about me, anyone eise. ly for a letter when I get back to town. I never was an eloquent chap, but when I see you again-but I'm

Barry. Not much of a letter, perhaps; but something in its Incloquence pealed to Hazel. She sat for a long time while the breakfast grew cold, ading and rereading the few lines. Lately she had begun to feel the oneliness of her position; she had or cared for. Barry was her husband. He was er natural protector, and if she cast She heard voices outside in the passage and the next mo-ment Delia entered the room, "Yes

Hazel sprang to her feet. could not believe her eyes. Delia here! At this time of the morning! She began to stammer her amazement, but the elder girl cut her

"I just had to come. Have you heard the news? Isn't it too awiul? Poor Mr. Wicklow! I can't believe it's really true!" Hazel's heart seemed to stand still;

she went white to the lips. Barry! Something had happened to Barry. She felt as if every drop of glood in her body was frozen. Delia rattled saw it. I was only having lunch with him two days ago, and I dare say you you've seen him since then. Isn't it frightful? You never know whose turn it is to go next." She flung herself down in a chair. "One thing, it will be a good thing for your Barry," she said grimly.

Hazel caught her breath; then it locked the door.

was not Barry. She felt so weak down, wringing her hands, that she nearly fell; she groped for Barry and Mrs. Due her chair and sat down. She knew now how great her fear observant.

"I can't believe it-poor dear! I only hope he didn't suffer.

She looked pale and upset; she few lines.
hated death in any form. She had "I have decided that I cannot ever to someone about it, even if it were see me again."

She did not even sign her name the room critically; she had not been in the flat before.

"Well, they've done you all right," she said. "No wonder you prefer this to my hole of a place."

"I liked being with you; I should have stayed with you if you had wanted me to," Hazel answered.

"But about Norman" an envelope, stamped and addressed it. Then she rang the bell and told the maid to take it to the post.

She stood in the center of the pretty room till she heard the shutting of the outer door; then she fell to crying as if her heart would break. in the flat before.

"But about Norman But Delia was tired of the topic already.

"You'll find it in all the papers," she said, "Let's talk about something more cheerful. Give me some never can stand getting up early."

Hazel poured out the coffee. Last spring Gartner was given a verdict of $15,000 on his claim of things out quietly things out quietly.
"My darling wife . .

was evidently not such a mean beast often. as Hulbert. She asked how many imes he came to see Hazel.

haperon!"

the eyes. Then she sat down again. He

She had learned that deep down in the elder man's eyes as he looked up her heart she had never ceased to at his nephew care for him, that she loved him as "Matter, wh much today, in spite of everything, can't expect as she had done when he first kissed down here.

She had so engagements for that night, she wondered if she dared go said ankwarily. "I'll be back again found to his rooms. She wondered to the week-end" He sturned to the door, but Mr. Bittle thrill to picture the delight in his eyes.

It would be so much easier than stood waiting. writing a letter; so much easier than (Continued in The Hee Tomorrow.) waiting here till be came.
She lay back in the big chair and cothers as you are with your own.

(Continued From Saturday.)

Harry's letter was propped up though she had only been there once; she had so often thought about

She looked out one of her prettiess would happen, what he would say to frocks. She sang as she dressed her-Barry was once more the won-Her hands shook as she opened derful man she had first thought him; and he was her husband, too!

She was just putting on her hat when Hulbert called. She went to see him impatiently; she did not want to be detained now; she greeted him almost coldly. His keen eyes scanned her flushed

"I hope I'm not worrying you. wanted to see you rather urgently. He stopped: "I've just seen Wickw," he said. "Barry!" His name rushed to her

"Yes, I went round to his fooms:

He looked at her with sharp sus

"You know where he has been?"
"Yes; I know-of course I do." She was impatient with this cross-Hulbert shrugged his shoulders.

"Do you know who has been stay-ng at the same hotel with him?" She echoed his words vaguely, "Staying at the same hotel!

written to Joe Daniels and had re-erived no answer. She felt cut off flew back to that night at the resfrom everyone she had ever known taurant, to that afternoon in Barry's ooms when Norman had flung Mrs. Dudley's photograph to the floor. She said again dully: "Staying with him—at the same he was playing. After a moment,

"He's not worth a thought, my dear child," he said gently. "Let him go; he's no use to you. As a man he's quite a decent chap, but as a husband She let her hand lie limply in his; she felt very cold and unemotional. Barry and Mrs. Dudley.

Hulbert pressed his advantage. "He's the sort of man who will handicap you all the way along," he you seen the papers. Haven't a certain amount of sympathy into his voice. He sounded as if he were really very sorry for her. said. He was clever enough to get

He never cared for you." Hazel dragged her hand free; pain was waking again in her heart, tear-

She went back to her room, and locked the door; she paced up and could think of nothing else.

All her happiness of the day had been that something had hap-pened to Barry! Delia was too wrapt ue in her own emotions to be very When she was sure that Hulbert "I thought you would be sure to ing room. She tore Barry's letter know; Norman was such a pal of scross and across, and watched the pieces burn away to gray ash. One, fluttered by the draught from the felt ashamed because in the sudden chimney, lay for a moment on the revulsion of feeling she had no room for any emotion but gladness. It was not Barry, and that was all that eyes. "My darling wife."

seemed to matter.

"He was dead when they picked dried her eyes fiercely and went him up," Delia said with a shiver. not write now, she would never write at all, she knew. She dashed off a felt that she must rush off and talk live with you. Please do not try to

She folded the paper, slipped it into an envelope, stamped and addressed

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Barry went down home the night he heard of Norman's death, and for a week stayed there in durance vile. As a boy he had been fond of the coffee; my head's just splitting. I old house, but now it depressed him, and got on his nerves.

She could hardly bear Barry out of her sight. She talked to him by the her sight. She talked to him by the hour of Norman, recalling incidents hour of Norman, recalling incidents of the days when they were boys together. She took it for granted that Barry was as cut-up at the death of his cousin as she was.

Barry did his best; he got through words kept echoing in her brain the first days of mourning without softly.

Delia sipped her coffee and drew her chair nearer to the fire; she had had never realised before what a great deal to say about everything kind heart Barry had. She begged the room; she said that Greaves Barry to come down and see them

"You're the only one who can talk to me about my boy," she said over and over again. "I know you were "He hardly ever comes. I don't like his coming here when I am alone." Delia screamed with laugh-im from his London rooms; he just "Little Miss Prude!" she said read it through once and burnt it. expected; he supposed he had been a Hazel was glad when she went fool to hope for anything different, way. She flung the windows wide One evening he followed his uncle eay. She fluig the windows wide One evening he followed his uncle into the unbearably heavy perime. Delia was always scented up leally if it would matter if he ran up to town for a few days.

Then she sat down again. He The hatchet between Barry and yould be home that night. Her his uncle had been hursed by mutual cheeks burned with excitement. In consent Hazel had never been men-There was something pathetic

"Matter, why, of course not! We can't expect you to spend your life down here. Do as you please, my

Barry returned reluctantly and

Oil Producers .Vote to Shut Down All Drilling Work

Five Hunderd Operators to Suspend Activities as Prevention of Further Price Slump.

Tulsa, Oki., Aug. 13.-Approxi-tately 500 independent oil producers gathered here from five states of the outhwest, unanimously voted for a amplete shutdown of drilling operaions as the only means of preventing urther declines in the price of crude I. The five states represented were: misiana, Texas, Arkansas, Kansas and Oklahoma. The action was taken at a joint seeting of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association and the National Association of Independent Oil Pro-The final decision was practically the same as the original pro-posals promulgated by the Mid-Continent association.

A secondary proposal designed to increase storage facilities was adopted. It was for the erection of a storage tank by every producer who is A central committee was appointed whose duty it will be to see to it that the drilling shutdown is made effect-The committee is composed of M M. Doan, chairman, Tulsa; Wirt Franklin, Ardmore; C. L. Freeland, Bristow, Okl.; W. G. Skelly, Tulea;

C. J. Wrightsman, Tulsa; G. A. Gif-ford, Okmulgee, Okl.; Howard N. Cole, Frank Cullinan, Dallas, Tex., you mean?"
"Mrs, Dudley was there. She has and J. Edgar Pew, Dallas, non there all this week. They came A joint committee of joint committee of producers and refiners also was appointed with up town together this afternoon." and refiners also was appointed with "Mrs. Dudley!" Hazel's thoughts instructions "to arrange details of sterage of crude oil on a co-operative plan and the issuance of warehouse receipts." This committee is composed of H. R. Straight, chairman; C. C. Brown, Ponca City, Okl.; E. R. Perry, Tulsa; W. L. Kistler, Tulsa, and W. E. Wood, Okmulgee.

Hulbert was not looking at her; he felt a trifle ashamed of the part Answer to Peace Plan in Strike Is Divulged.

(Continued From Page One.)

board for review. Further resolved, that the strike is to be called off with the understanding and agreement by all parties that no intimidations shall be practiced or permitted as against any of the employes who have remained have taken service or against those who may return to service under the proposal of the president.

Minority Report.

"Resolved that the chairman be willing that:

"'(A) All former employes who of the railroads shall be assigned to denied shooting anyone, but a 45 their former positions where vacan-caliber revolver was found in one of cies exist. been assigned, questions of their seniority aries which can not be set-tled locally, they shall be referred to United States railroad Labor Board for review.

"'(C) In agreeing to submit questions as to seniority as provided above to the United States Labor Board for review, it is understood that neither the railroads nor the employes shall be deprived of the right to review by the courts of such decisions if they effect agreements between any railroad and its employes.

Engineer Killed, Two Men

Injured in Train Wreck Columbia S. C., Aug. 13-Sea-oard Air Line railroad train No. 3, Jacksonville to Washington, left the track near Dixana, S. C., killing Engineer John Preacher of Savan-Stevens, also of Savannah. One passeger was injured. Sand on the track, officials believe, caused the accident.

Aviator and Mechanic

Killed When Plane Falls Cleveland, Aug. 13.—Louis Yahn, Newark, N. J., and James Ray, mechanic and aviator at the Medina Aviation club, were killed when airplane went into a tail spin Mrs. Wicklow was broken-hearted. and fell about 200 feet as they were

Man Charges Woman With Inducing Wife to Return to Kitchen

Denver, Aug. 13.—Charging that Mrs. Carrie M. Cordes, prominent in Denver society, induced his wife, Mrs. Eda S. Groff, to forsake him and return to the kitchen of the Cordes home, where she had previously been employed, Jacob W. Groff brought suit against Mrs. Cordes in the district court for $40,000 for alienation of affections.

In his complaint Groff charged that Mrs. Cordes made use of "a strange influence" to induce his wife to forsake him. Groff met his wife in 1891, the implaint set forth, when she was a maid in the Cordes home. The cou-ple were married and lived in Denver intil 1907, when Groff took his wife

o Salt Lake City.
In 1917, Groff alleges, his wife was nduced to return to Denver and at a later date he declares that Mrs. ordes drove up to his home in hig automobile and carried his wife

REPRESHING HOT-WEATHER TONK

Horaford's Arid Phosphate referance, and her the coives, in Delightful in water or Prognicts -- Advantagement, ADVERTMENENT.

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE DOES IT When shoes pinsh or corps and legions ashe, get ALLENS FOOTEASE, the abliancia powder to be shaken into the shoes and epinkled in the fact that. It takes the sting out of corns and bunders, bimarting, Aching, Suciles feet, 1, 100, 800 hounds of powder for the feet were word by our Arms and Navy during the war.

Tukey Made Treasurer

Allan A. Tukey has been named as treasurer of the republican county Shortage of Coal entral committee, which was organzed last Tuesday afternoon. The apniment was made by Oscar E Engler, new county chairman. The secretary will not be named until

I.C.C. Rules Rates to Nebraska on Roofing Unjust

Finds Twin Cities Are Favored-Updike Grain Company Allowed to Intervene in Suit.

Washington, Aug. 13 .- (Special Telegram.) - The Interstate Commerce commission, in the case of Certainteed Products company against the Santa Fe railway, decid-

Rates on prepared rooting, asphalt, building and rooting paper, rooting cement and related articles from East t. Louis to points in Minnesota, Nebraska, the Dukotas and Kansas, fixed by the roads, are unjust and unreasonable and unduly prejudicial as compared with rates to the Twin Cities and Missouri river cities. The mmission also found that proposed cago, to and from Twin Cities to Chicago and related points on the Missouri river crossings are not justified, and reasonable rates are au-

In the case of the McCaull Dinsore company against the Chicago, St. Paul, Minucapolis & Omaha road, the Updike Grain company and a large number of elevator companies, grain concerns, etc., in South Dakota, are allowed to intervene. The nterventors will be treated as parties to the complaint with the right to have notice of and appear at the taking of testimony, produce and crossexamine witnesses and be heard in brief and oral argument, provided, ity arise with them which cannot be however, that the permission to insettled locally, they will be referred tervene shall not be construed as alto the United States railroad labor lowing interventors to introduce evitervene shall not be construed as allowing interventors to introduce evidence which will unduly threaten blaze a new trail to camp and at the issues raised in the complaint, Man Sitting in Front of Drug Store Shot | S. F. Townsley, chief ranger

Joseph Nussrallah, 11131/4 Pacific street was shot in the right leg at 10 Saturday night while he was sitting The following minority report was with two companions in front of the supported by roads having a milage Camel drug store. Thirteenth and with two companions in front of the

Pierce streets, Martin Anderson, 1244 South Four authorized to reply to the president's teenth street, arrested by Detectives telegram of August 7 that the rail-road represented at this meeting are by witnesses of the shooting as Nussrallah's assailant, Anderson was found scated in the have not been guilty of violence side car of a motorcycle three blocks against the employes or the property from the scene of the shooting. He his pockets.

'(B) Ifa, after these men have Police said last night that Ander-He is being held or investigation. Nusscallah's wound is not serious.

Police Surgeon Kinyoun said. Oklahoma Senator Opposes Ford Offer

Washington, Aug. 13.—Henry Ford's offer for the Muscle Shoals projects was declared "unconscionable" by Senator Harreld of Oklahoma, a republican member of the senate agriculture committee, in a letter to Gray Silver of the American Farm Bureau federation. "In my judgment this is an unconscionable contract so far as the people of the United States are concerned, and I cannot favor it," said Senator Harreld. "I am not averse to leaving this power to Mr. Ford, but cannot favor losing it under such terms as these (in the Ford offer). Especially do I oppose the making of such a lease for 100 years.

Cold! Cooling!! Delicious!!!

Satisfy the craving in your parched throat with a slice of cooling, satisfying and deli-cious Watermelon.

It tops off the noon or evening meal in a tasty way.

is just the thing during hot A slice for 10c is waiting for you at WELCH'S.

And as a bite between meals,

Try it with your meals this week.
WELCH'S Water-melon is the choice of the market.

Buy Today At S5.95 Fresh Made Tires At the Sprague Factory, 18th and Cuming

"Brevity" Is Motto Work on Highways for G. O. P. Committee Is Threatened by

More Than 300,000 Men Will Be Thrown Out of Work if Fuel Is Not Obtained Soon.

Omniu Bee Leased Wice, Washington, Aug. 13 .- Telegraphic eports received at the Washington headquarters of the National Motor- to sts' association are to the effect that all highway construction throughout the country is seriously threatened by the shortage of coal and the curtailment of transportation. More than 300,000 men will thrown out of employment within the next few weeks if coal is not ob-tainable by that time," is the message sent by the automobile clubs throughout the country by Raymond Beck, field secretary of the National Association of Motorists. In a conference with Chairman Charles C. McCord of the Interstate Commerce commission, it was pointed out that the transportation of coal was very essential for road building purposes, so as to operate steam rollers, steam shovels and other road building machinery, as well as for the manufacture of highway materi-

"Chairman McCord has asked us to make an immediate survey as to the situation in all states," continues increases from St. Louis, Marseilles and reports so far received show that and East St. Louis, Peoria and Chifrom 4,000 to 30,000 workers on highways in different states will be out of employment unless relief is furnished. As rapidly as more detailed information is received as to this situation, it will be promptly furnighed the Interstate Commerce commission and the Department of Com-

Three Youths Marooned

on Ledge in Mountains Yosemite, Cal., Aug. 13.—Three ouths, Ivan L. Anderson, Robert Hones and Clifford Freeze, all of Salt Lake City, were marooned on the rocky apron which separates upper from lower Yosemite falls, 1,000 feet from the floor of the valley.

darkness found themselves caught the spray which the fails give of on the ledge before the second dr to the Merced river.

S. F. Townsley, chief ranger, rocky ledge from the valley effort to extricate the boys, is expected they will not be affect a rescue until daylight.

Robbers Fell Victim

Earl Steiner, 4506 Frederick street, a pistol by one of two highwaymen who stopped him near Thirty-third and Arbor streets Sunday morn-ing Steiner resisted the robbers and was given the pistol blow, after which the robbers ran to an automobile parked near the scene of the attempted holdup, and escaped. Steiner was not searched after he

of Woman Candidate

Madison, Neb., Aug. 13 .- (Speial.)-Mrs. Jean Whitney, republican candidate for state representative in the Norfolk district, was the only oman candidate to be called upon to deliver an address before the county convention here. The convention was held in the district court room and facing a big audience the Norfolk woman pointed to a picture of her father, the late Isaac Powers, once district judge and once member of the Nebraska constitutional con-

I was nervous when you asked me deliver an address," the woman candidate said, "but looking into the face of my late father, my nervous-ness has left me, and I have an inspiration. The late Judge Powers always told me of the value of brev ty, and I, therefore, will be brief am a woman candidate, now in politics, and perhaps it is new for tried and experienced politicians to hear a woman talk at a convention. will merely say that election is some time off; that I am studying the questions you ask me to talk about, and until I learn more about them from those who are more experienced I will be brief and merely state that I thank you for the honor of calling upon me to speak.

Underwood Opposes Plan to Settle Claims

Washington, Aug. 13.—Formal protest against the action of the ad-Beck. 'This we have started to do ministration in concluding an agreement with the German government for establishment of a joint comm sion to pass on American war claim against Germany was made by Senator Underwood of Alahama, democratic leader, in a letter to Chairman Commins of the judiciary sub committee. The subcommittee has before it Senator Underwood's bill for an all American commission to adjudicate war claims. Senator Underwood, in his letter challenged the contention of the State department and White House that precedents existed for the ad

Tablet Unveiled

Sugar Island, Thousand Islands, Aug. 13.—A tablet was unveiled here by the American Canoe association as a memorial to members who died in the war. Paddlers from many states and eastern Canada witnessed

Actors in Germany Facing Poverty

One-Time Star There Takes Up Miner's Pick to Earn Livelihood.

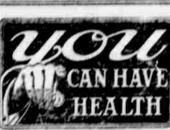

Berlin, Aug. 13.—(By A. P.)—Un-usually hard times have fallen upon the stage world of Germany. Ecosomic difficulties which have been distressing theatrical managers ever since the revolution have thrown hundreds of actors and actresses into the streets and at the same time closed many theaters. Numerous directors are waiting until almost curtain for the winter season before entering into The artists themselves have been so hard pressed for means of gaining a livelihood that they have een turning to other work. In one town in the occupied territory an actor who once played leading hero parts has taken up the pick of a coal miner rather than stoop to a minor part on the stage or accept a salary which would be low compared with a miner's wage This instance is said to be typical

Kansas Court Authorizes Removal of Two M. P. Trains

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 13.- The state ndustrial court granted permission to the Missouri Pacific Railway company to take off two through trains operating in Kansas-Kansas City to Fort Smith, Ark., and Kansas City to Omaha.

Dr. Frank F. Burhorn Chiropractic Specialist

My business is to get alek people well. No cases accepted that I can not help Consultation free. Office hours 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Phone Doug. Suite 414-426 Securities Bldg. Cor. 16th and Farnam Sta.

$9,378,660 assets is the Occidental's record of the SAFE because of careful control by conservative, experienced officers; because of state supervision; because of a reserve fund of $460,000 and because of security in first mortgages on homes. SUCCESSFUL because our members' savings have never earned less than 6% per annum, dividends payable each Junuary. April, July and October. DIVIDENDS QUARTERLY-ABSOLUTE SECURITY-GET RICH BY SAVING.

The

Cooling Fruit Fresh Pears

They're here! Carloads of fresh, juicy, luscious Pears -filled with thirst-quenching flavor.

You can't eat too many pears-they are healthful and well known as a cooling fruit. Pears are nourishing and refreshing. Nutrition tests show that they have more food value than most other fruits-they contain earthy salts and vitamines indispensable to good health in hot weather. Serve this Fresh Pear Salad:

Take 2 cupfuls diced fresh pears, 2 oranges separated into sections, 2 tablespoons chopped almonds, lettuce hearts. Arrange pears and lettuce hearts in salad dish (individual or large) orange sections forming a circle around them. Sprinkle chopped nuts over pears, pour over a French fruit salad dressing, or place a spoonful of mayonnaise on top. Chill before serving. The addition of a little candied gurger will make this salad doubly delicious. BUY PEARS NOW While They Are Cheap! Can, Pickle and Preserve Them

Order from

Hotel Rome Nebraska Fruit Dealers Association