Barnes Pays to See Self Lose in Tourney

Pittsburgh, Aug. 15.—Jim Barnes had to pay $1 to see himself participate in the national professional tournament at Oakmount Country club today.

Then he went to the secretary's office and got his money back.

Entry List for Early Closing Races Full of Fast Trotters and Pacers; Meet Opens Soon

WITH thousands of dollars as bait, several of the country's fastest trotters and pacers are expected to be entered in the Ak-Sar-Ben annual fall festival harness race meet which opens at King Ak's "million dollar" plant, September 12 and continues until September 16.

Sir Roch, Hal Mahone, Johnny Quirk, Logan Hedgewood, Main Direct, Hal Bee and Aquilla Dillion are some of the fast harness horses that are likely to race over the Ak-Sar-Ben oval this fall.

The early closing list is chucked full of entries and each event, judging from some of the trotters and pacers entered, will be an interesting race.

Horseman have until August 22 to enter the late closing events and when the time rolls around for these entries to close it is expected that the cream of the harness game will be entered.

Should Sir Roch compete here, and it is likely that he will, railbirds will get a chance to lamp one of the most promising pacers of Grand circuit racing. His victory over Margaret Dillon at the recent Toledo meeting in one of the most sensational pacing races ever staged, landed him right in the center of the spotlight.

Sir Roch paced to a record of 2:02 1-2 at Columbus last year when a 4-year-old. His first start this season was at the first Toledo meeting where he hooked up with Margaret Dillon and was beaten, forcing the mare to pace the second heat in 2:00 flat. He raced at Kalamazoo where he was beaten by Jimmy McKerron but won the third heat in 2:02 1-2. At Columbus he came through in the free for all pace, his first heat in 1:59 3-4 and the next two in 2:02 and 2:01, Margaret Dillon won the 2:04 pace at the same meeting, pacing the third heat in 2:00 1-4.

Gerald L. Patterson, Australia's captain, in a post-climax match with young Henri Cochet, won another four set victory, 6-2, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2. As a result of the tournament, totals stood: Australia, 4 matches won; France, one.
