

Market, Financial and Industrial News of the Day

Omaha Gram

As was construed by the trade Thursday after a higher finish that grain markets would probably continue to display a stronger tone for a while at least was entirely reversed today when numerous reports of rain through the grain belt took the edge off the corn and wheat and values eased to lower levels.

Chicago Gram

By CHARLES D. MICHAELS. Omaha Bee Local Wire. Chicago, Aug. 18.—A decided reversal came in the grain markets, which were as weak as they were strong Thursday. Prospects of a quick settlement of the rail strike and partial breaking of the drought in the corn belt led to general selling. Stop loss orders were caught on the way down. Final trades were within a fraction of the bottom, with wheat off 2 3/8¢ to 2 1/2¢ and oats 1/8¢ and rye 1/8¢.

Financial

By ALEXANDER DANA NOYES. Omaha Bee Local Wire. New York, Aug. 18.—In the broad field of financial events, the further collapse of the German mark was the outstanding occurrence. Our own stock and bond markets continued to display the composure and confidence which they have maintained ever since the coal and railway controversies became acute. But this was merely manifestation of an unchanging attitude, the movement of market exchange indicated that Germany's financial problem was passing into a new phase.
