Oilers Hand Buffaloes Double Defeat---Boehler Wins Initial Game

Gislason's Error in Ninth Frame Beats Omaha

Tulsa Scores Two Runs in Final Inning of First Contest and Beat Herd—McLaughlin Hurls Second.

By RALPH WAGNER.

BUMPING four Buffalo hurlers for a total of 27 hits in two games yesterday, the Tulsa Oilers succeeded in handing the Omaha entry in the Western league race a double defeat in the form of 7 to 6 and 3 to 0 games.

George Boehler, the ace of Jack Lelivelt's hurling staff and the king pin pitcher of this little circuit, is given credit for first game, although he coughed up an even dozen hits.

Okrie opened for Omaha, but started his ascension in the third, and after three runs had been scored off his deliveries he was yanked in favor of the veteran, Dan Tipple.

As soon as Tipple took the mound the game developed into a hurling duel between Dan and George. Dan beat George in the first game of the series played Thursday and would have beaten Boehler again yesterday had not Gislason juggled Stuart's drive in the ninth which allowed Lamb and Bauman to score the tying and winning runs.

Buffaloes Score.

The Buffaloes scored three in the first inning when Boehler gave out four hits. Gislason, Grantham and Manush registered tallies in this frame.

The Oilers slipped four runs across the pan in the fourth, three of em when Okrie got sort of liberal with his hits. Boehler started the inning with a single. Bennett followed with a one-base blow and Thompson singled, scoring George. Davis doubled cleaning the sacks and then Tipple was rushed to the scene.

Omaha came back in its half of the same inning and chalked up three more tallies. Gislason strolled and took second when Boehler curved the pellet around the "ump's" head for a wild pitch. Bates grounded out and "Whitey" went to third. Grantham singled and Gislason scored. The former pilfered second a moment later. Manush singled and then both Grantham and Manush scored on Apperson's dandy double to center.

Apperson Triples in Favor of Omaha.

The Oilers made the score 6 to 5 when they scored a man in the sixth. The Buffaloes came near making the count read 7 to 5 in the eighth, when Apperson got his third hit of the game, a triple. He was the first man up, but the next three Buffaloes were easy outs and the "Jack Rabbit" was left stranded on third.

Lyman Lamb started the fireworks in the ninth that spelled defeat for Omaha. Lamb singled. Lelivelt whiffed for the second out, but Bauman doubled. Lamb was held up at third by the coach and for a time it looked as if Omaha would win the game, when, all of a sudden, Stuart drove the ball down Gislason-way. "Whitey" got his mitts on the pellet, but put on a juggling act that permitted Lamb and Bauman to score and Tulsa to win a game.

Whitewashes Herd.

In the second game, Pitcher McLaughlin applied a coat of whitewash to the Buffaloes, beating the herd, 6 to 0. In whitewashing the Buffaloes, McLaughlin had the support of each and every one of the other eight Oilers. He let the herd down with six scattered hits, and only twice during the game did the Buffaloes see third base, once in the eighth and again in the ninth.

Joe Dailey hurled the first four and one-third innings for the Buffaloes. These four and one-third innings were enough. During Dailey's reign he was touched for three runs and six hits. Darrough relieved Joe, but didn't do any better than his teammate, the Oilers nicking the midget Buffalo for the same number of runs and hits.

Gene Sarazen to Play Hagen for Title

Pittsburgh, Aug. 20.—Gene Sarazen, professional and open golf champion of the United States, will meet Walter Hagen, British open champion, for world's championship on October 8 and 9, Sarazen announced here tonight. Part of the match of 72 holes will be played here October 8. The following day the game will be completed at Rye, N. Y. Arrangements for this match have been definitely closed, the monarch announced.

"Black Sheep"

HERE is Phil Douglas, Giant's leading pitcher, who was banished from baseball by Judge Landis, after evidence was produced by Manager McGraw that Douglas attempted to betray the team.

Giants Defeat Cubs.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—New York made it two out of three from Chicago by winning the final game of the series here, 5 to 4, before the largest crowd of the season, more than 26,000 persons being present. The three-game series was said to have drawn close to 80,000 persons.

The Giants won the game in the seventh inning when O'Farrell permitted a throw from the outfield to get away from him during a rally by the visitors. Smith started the scoring by cracking a home run over the right field wall. Singles by Scott, Bancroft and Groh gave the Giants another run, and when O'Farrell let Barber's throw get away from him, Bancroft scored and Groh went from first to third, scoring a minute later on Meusel's hit. The other Giant run was scored on Bancroft's double, a sacrifice and a single by Meusel.

Krug started a Chicago rally in the eighth, winning a home run. O'Farrell walked and Callaghan, batting for Kaufmann, doubled into the crowd and Jonnard relieved Scott. After the next two men had been retired, Terry singled, scoring O'Farrell and Callaghan, Grimes was called out on strikes, ending the rally. Score:

Beatrice Blues Win.

Beatrice, Neb., Aug. 20.—Beatrice won a double-header here today, defeating Lincoln by the scores of 4 to 1 and 7 to 6. Bowman's superb pitching in the first game, which held Lincoln to only three hits, deserved a shutout, but two errors in the ninth inning gave Lincoln their only runs. Lincoln's loose fielding in the eighth inning lost them the second game. Score:
