Now Being Distributed

A new emblem of improved design for recognition of good work in improving live stock is ready for distribution by the United States Departs bution by the United States Department of agriculture. The certificate, which resembles a steel engraving, is suitable for framing.

Any Nebraska stock man holding an old emblem and desiring to exchange it for a new one, may do so by returning the old one to the extension service office of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture. About 7,800 of these em-blems have been issued to breeders and others working with the department in improving the utility value of farm animals, reducing the number of runts and in other ways benefitting the livestock of the country, Pears are nourishing and refreshing. Nutrition tests show that they have more food value than most other fruits-they contain earthy salts and vitamines indispensable to good health in hot weather.

Take 2 cupfuls diced fresh pears, 2 oranges separated into sections; 2 tablespoons chopped almonds, lettuce hearts. Arrange pears and lettuce hearts in saled dish (individual or large) orange sections forming a circle around them. Sprinkle chopped nuts over pears, pour over a French fruit salad dressing, or place a spoonful of mayonnaise on top. Chill before serving.
