Buffaloes Give Okrie Poor Support in Pinches and Oklahoma City Wins

Omaha Chucker Holds Indians Scoreless and Hitless for Five Innings; Bobbles in 7th Costly

AKING advantage of two Omaha errors that bobbed up in the fatal seventh inning, the Oklahoma City Indians celebrated the opening of their series with the Buffaloes here yesterday by defeating the herd by a score of 3 to 2.

The Buffaloes had things going their way and Frank Okrie was hurling pretty good ball until the Oklahoma seventh breezed around. The score at this period of the contest was 2 to 1, with the herd on the long end of the score, but after the Indians had dropped their war clubs and trotted out to the field the Buffaloes were on the short end.

Poor Support.

With no hands under and all sacks loaded. Okrie got sort of peeved and he had a right to get that way, for the support given him in this inning was of the kid kind. However, the Buffalo southpaw sent Long back to the dugout smarting under a strikeout, but allowed Love to connect with one of his groovey ior a single, scoring "Ging" with the tying run. Here of late Okrie has received poor support from his teammates. In the other games he has started in the last 10 days the support given him has not been up to standard. Yesterday. Okrie was turning the Indians hack in quick order and held the visitors hitless and scoreless until the sixth. In the sixth the Redskins bunched three hits with a hit batsman for a lone tally, all they deserved and the final count should read 2 to 1 in favor of the Buffaloes. But those costly bobbles spilled the beans.

third sack when Griffin grounded out.

The Buffaloes had a chance to tie the score in the seventh and win out in the ninth, but inability to hit when hits meant runs, ruined Omaha's chances of winning in spite of its blunders. In the seventh, with two down, Gislason tripled to left, Bates failed to deliver, after collecting two doubles, and the Buffaloes didn't knot the count. In the ninth after Wilder ground out, Herman, batting for Okrie, walked. Gislason forced the "Babe" at second and went to third when Bates singled to right. Grantham fouled out to the catcher and ended a perfect day—for Oklahoma City.

Philadelphia, Aug. 21.—Philadelphia at the start Morvich slowed after going five and a half game of the series, 7 to 5, while the Yankees, being idle, gained a half game on the Browns.

A pair of home runs in the first inning by Welch and Perkins off Kolp and Davis, helped the locals in scoring five runs. Williams had two hits, running his string of hitting in consecutive games to 25.
