Making Home a Delight

By LORETTA C. LYNCH. "To begin with," writes a correspondent who signs herself "A Mother-Faithful," "I confess I have not fully neglected my children, but it has been my ignorance that has caused me much sorrow. I thought it perfectly all right to let my boy go over to the Higginses each evening after dinner to study his lessons. I thought it all right to let my younger sister get extra fresh air by remaining out in the street to play after dinner—in fact, I encouraged it. For it left John and me free to devour our newspapers, to comment upon the happenings of the day, to rest."

New Officer

Mrs. J. B. Redfield

Mrs. J. B. Redfield is the newly appointed publicity chairman for the Omaha Woman's club music department. The department will entertain at a bridge luncheon Wednesday, 1 o'clock, at the Field club, when Mrs. Redfield will be the hostess. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Redfield, Mrs. George J. Camp Brewster

The housing capacity of Camp Brewster will be taxed to its utmost over the week-end, for the gymnasium girls have planned an informal reception for Miss Alta Bee Wolcott, the new director of the health, educational department, and Miss Elizabeth Fry, assistant director. In addition to the new health education secretaries, Miss Mary Patton, the new industrial and club secretary, and Miss Louise Hatch, the new girl reserve secretary, will be at camp over the week-end and will be glad to meet informally any committee members for their respective departments or any of the girls of the local association will be at camp for at least part of the time over the week-end and during Labor day. Miss Wolcott and Miss Fry will live at Camp Brewster during the month of September, coming into the city each day for their regular office hours at central building. There will be a vesper service at camp this afternoon at 5 o'clock, with special speaker and soloist. Junior camp had its formal closing last Wednesday with 56 juniors in attendance. A hare and hound chase with picnic supper at the close, was one of the sports of the day. The remainder of the season no girl between the ages of 12 and 16 years can be registered at camp without her own chaperone as the junior camp is formally closed for the season. Only the noon meal will be served at the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria and cafe on Labor day.

Alice Paul Tells of Results the National Woman's Party Has Accomplished

Just as women were enfranchised through methods of action—swift, dramatic action, compelling attention, Miss Alice Paul, vice president of the national woman's party, believes a similar policy is necessary in showing up the defects of our present political and economic system. And so Miss Paul is continuing this policy in rapidly building up a sound and permanent organization at Washington whose main purpose is the removal of discriminations against women. When asked to name specific results obtained by the national woman's party and where its work is being most felt, Miss Paul outlined briefly how the woman's rights bill works in Wisconsin. "For example," she said, "Governor J. J. Blaine of that state claims from experience that the enactment of that bill, which has been in successful operation for a year, is in complete harmony with the suffrage amendment, and directly effective in establishing full equality of women with men before the law. "Not only have women benefited politically by this bill, but an emphatic statement from the chairman of the Wisconsin industrial commission is that the equal rights law has not in any way affected the enforcement of the state labor laws for women. "The laws," continued Miss Paul, "which Wisconsin has had on its statute books for some time for the protection of women employees do not discriminate against women, but rather protect and give them special privileges. The industrial commission considers this fact significant, especially in view of the fact that articles have appeared which claim that the woman's rights bill has swept away all special legislation for the protection of women. The commission also states that this is a claim which only people who know nothing about the law have urged. "When asked if she knew of any glaring instances where unfair discriminations against women were now being made, Miss Paul laid emphasis on the fact that in Washington at the present time very serious details are being made to women for the very simple reason that they are women. "For example," she said, "take the following case: Positions of considerable importance in foreign cities have never been open to women until

Community Service League Appeals for Funds

The Girls' Community Service League is conducting a campaign to raise $7,000 for next year's budget. To date $3,000 has been raised. During the past week the members of the finance committee mailed out 2,000 letters appealing for funds. "If the 2,000 women to whom we are making this appeal will each give $2 the work can be continued for another year," says Mrs. H. C. Sumner, a member of the finance committee. The league was organized during the war for the entertainment of soldiers stationed at the forts. Since its reorganization two years ago its purpose has been to provide a home-like center where employed girls may meet for educational and recreational activities. The club rooms are located in the Gardner building, 1712 Dodge street.

Many Young Women Are Benefited by P. E. O. Fund.

During the past year Omaha has become the home of the national office of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, and the center from which supplies are sent to the more than 1,000 P. E. O. chapters throughout the United States and British Columbia. Here, too, is administered the educational fund, which is the great philanthropy of this organization. Since the establishment of this fund in 1907, with a nucleus of $800, the fund has grown through gifts from members to more than $160,000. Loans are made to worthy young women properly recommended who have attained the age of 18 years, have completed the high school course, or its equivalent, and desire a further education with a view to becoming self-supporting. Since January 1, 1922, 100 girls have been granted loans from this fund, and Mrs. L. A. Anderson, treasurer, has in the past week written checks for $10,500 loaned to 73 girls who are entering school in September. In all, 696 girls, representing 33 states and British Columbia, have been assisted. The fund is administered by a board of trustees appointed by the president of the supreme chapter, Mrs. Bertha Clark Hughes of Omaha. Omaha has nine strong P. E. O. chapters, forming what is known as the Omaha P. E. O. association. These chapters are all deeply interested in the educational fund and are planning for the entertainment of the Nebraska state chapter, which meets in Omaha next May.

Christ Child Society

A Little Mothers' club for girls of 12 years is being planned for the coming season at the Christ Child center. The feeding, clothing and general care of infants and children to the age of 5 will be taught under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Stowitt of the visiting nurses. The daily shower at the Christ Child center is crowded with the firemen's hose parties for first honors. Music pupils will be interested in news of their teacher, Miss Elizabeth Witt, who is spending the summer studying in Los Angeles. The boys and girls of the center are busy practicing a play for the party on Friday, which brings the summer season to a happy closing.

Alkali in Soap Bad for the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best, most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Mulholland's famous hair soap. It is a mild, pure, and gentle soap, and it leaves the hair soft, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get Mulholland's famous hair soap at any pharmacy, or by mail, and a few ounces will supply you with enough for the laundry for some time. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulholland's.

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding Plans. Miss Fern Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, will be married to Harold Schaper of Milwaukee, September 25. The wedding will be an informal home affair at 4 o'clock. Twilight

Of all the hours in Time's blue tide Pray give to me the eventide When labor's din and bustle cease And I can smoke my pipe in peace Till some one cries, "Love, don't you think You'd better fix the kitchen sink?"

Those hours of reverie are sweet: A song bird lulls the sleepy street O'erhung with branches drooping wide And I with life am satisfied. Its fretful moments drift away In dreams of golden yesterday.

Old friends, old loves, old places pass As figures in a misty glass. The turmoil of the present seems A background for those joyous dreams Until I hear a voice implore, "F wish you'd mend that cellar door!" —Louis Brandt Crane, Jr.

Life is full of bumps, but a sense of humor is a great shock absorber.

Face Peeling Easy for Blonde or Brunette "The blonde's complexion fades early, because her skin is extraordinarily thin and fine," says Lina Cavalieri, perhaps the most famous living beauty. "The brunette, on the other hand, has a thicker skin and has a tendency to an oily appearance." For either the faded blonde's skin or the brunette's oily or sallow complexion, the best remedy is ordinary mercurized wax. Used daily, this will give one an entirely new complexion within about a week's time. The wax gradually absorbs the non-oxidizable skin with all its defects, a little each day, without affecting the delicate under-skin. In the long run, the latter will have the exquisitely beautiful glow of youth—indeed, one may readily lose ten or fifteen years from her age, or far as appearance goes, by a course of this simple treatment. Mercurized wax, obtainable in original packages at any drug store, is applied like cold cream, and allowed to remain on over night.
