More Tributes Paid Fall Ak-Sar-Ben

The pulling power of the "Smiles of 1922" was made evident Tuesday in two letters received by Secretary Charles Trimble of the Ak-Sar-Ben exposition, which will produce the show at Ak-Sar-Ben field the evenings of September 12-16, inclusive.

The first letter came from A. P. Corey, secretary of the Iowa state fair.

"Please save me a box for your 'Smiles of 1922,'" the letter read. "I saw the 'Smiles of 1921' you put on and it was splendid, but I have also seen the 'Smiles of 1922' at the Marigold gardens in Chicago, and in my opinion it is even better than last year's production."

The other letter came from E. J. Curtin, member of the Iowa board of agriculture. It said in part:

"I also want to engage a box for the first two days of your 'Smiles of 1922.' I consider myself fortunate in seeing the Smiles show you put on last year, and understand
