

"This Is the Life," Says Absent Wife

Check From Husband Drives Away Blues—Reconciliation Is Probable.

When you've decided your husband is a veritable "oil can"—and you've packed up and fled, taking the baby with you— "Ain't it a grand and glorious—s-s feeling" when hubby turns out to be a regular guy? "Ain't it" asks Mrs. Fred Workey of Akron, Ohio, who now resides at Tenth and Pacific streets with her baby, 6 months.

Man Kicks Bandit; Holdup Thwarted

It was boots against a gun in an attempted daylight holdup near Elmwood park yesterday afternoon, and the boots won. "Put 'em up," commanded the bandit as he leaped to a car driven by Reno Pierce, driver for Cedar Knoll Dairy company and pointed a gun at him as Pierce approached the park from the west at 2.

Public Schools Dismiss Pupils as Mercury Soars

A majority of the public schools closed either at noon or at 2 yesterday afternoon because of high temperatures. Some of the schools also permitted the pupils to go home Tuesday, the opening day, when the thermometer soared. School authorities said that after the mercury rises above 90 degrees, principals are permitted to dismiss the children. The matter is optional, however.

Fund Campaign to Be Held Here for Salvation Army

Campaign of the Salvation Army home service fund in Iowa and Nebraska will be held October 9 to 16. Brig. William Andrews of Des Moines, division officer, will be in Omaha today to make final plans for the campaign. The Nebraska quota will be approximately $100,000, it is believed, of which amount Omaha probably will be asked to raise $60,000.

Omaha Men to Fly to Fair on Airplane Made Here

As a feature of Omaha day at the Nebraska state fair today, four Omaha men will fly to the capital city in the Bellanca sedan monoplane. Air Mail Pilot W. C. Hopson will hop off Ak-Sar-Ben field with the quartet of passengers as soon as he arrives from Chicago in a mail plane. Victor Roos, Prof. G. M. Bellanca, designer of the plane; J. W. Elwood and A. H. Fetters will make the flight. The plane will hop off at 11 a. m. and skirt along the O-L-D highway.

Record Bond Is Required of Smith

Man Charged With Wrecking Arizona Bank Must Put Up $75,000 for Freedom.

"The heaviest-bonded criminal of record," is the title acquired Tuesday by Alva E. Smith, bank wrecker, in Parker, Ariz., when his bonds were fixed at $75,000, according to word received by Dave Dickinson, secret service agent here. This, added to the $35,000 bond under which Smith is held for return to Omaha for trial next month for passing forged Liberty bonds, makes the total $110,000.
