ADVERTISEMENT. SIMPLE APPLICATION THAT DISSOLVES BLACKHEADS

No more squeezing and pinching to get rid of those unsightly blackheads, blackheads. There is one simple, safe and sure way to get them out and that is to dissolve them. To do this just get about two ounces of salicylic powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub lightly over the parts and every blackhead will be gone.

Pinching and squeezing out blackheads makes large pores and you cannot get all the blackheads out this way—while the simple application of salicylic powder and water dissolves every particle of them and leaves the skin and pores in their natural condition. Any druggist will sell you the powder and you will not see a man who will not get rid of his blackheads.

Mushrooms Have High Food Value as Well as Delicacy.

Mushrooms are a choice food, and are really one of the things on which epicures spend a great deal of time. On the other hand, they have high food value, and it is quite true that in certain parts of the world native tribes of people count mushrooms among their few staples of food. This is said to be the case in Terra del Fuego. Here are some good ways of preparing mushrooms:

Mushrooms in the Chafing Dish. One cup of stock, one-half pound of fresh mushrooms, two tablespoons of flour, a few drops of lemon juice, three tablespoons of butter, two tablespoons of grated cheese, toast, salt and paprika to taste. Wash 10 mushrooms, peel the caps and cut in large pieces. Season with salt and pepper and dredge lightly with one tablespoon of flour. Melt two tablespoons of butter in the chafing dish, add the mushrooms and cook four minutes. Remove to a hot dish. Make a brown sauce by melting the remaining tablespoon of butter. Add the remaining tablespoon of flour and brown. Add the stock. Stir until the sauce thickens. Return the mushrooms to the sauce and cook until they are reheated. Sprinkle with cheese, season with lemon juice and serve.

Smother Mushrooms. One-half cup of stock, one-half pound of fresh mushrooms, one tablespoon of butter, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, yolks of two eggs, three tablespoons of flour, one-fourth tablespoon of paprika. Wash and peel the mushrooms. Melt the butter in the chafing dish, add the mushrooms and season with the salt and pepper. Put the cover on the chafing dish and cook for eight minutes. Add the flour; stir until it is smooth. Pour in the stock and when heated stir in quickly the yolks of the eggs. Serve at once.

Never serve more than one fried food at a meal.
