

COURT EXTENDS U. S. INJUNCTION

State G. O. P. Campaign Is Opened

R. B. Howell and Charles Randall Speak at Kearney—National Issues Are Discussed.

Simmons Wins Crowd

By a Staff Correspondent. Kearney, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram)—R. B. Howell, republican candidate for United States senator...

H. A. Webber, chairman of the county central committee, presided and introduced the speakers. Music was furnished by the State Industrial School band...

Mr. Randall spoke in favor of a business form of state government and modification in the present system in keeping with efficiency and economy...

With clear-cut statements, Mr. Howell outlined to his audience the issues of his campaign, and was given close attention...

Mr. Simmons captured the crowd when he promised that if elected he would use his best endeavors toward promoting irrigation projects...

"I believe that agriculture is the basis of our national prosperity," Mr. Simmons said, "and that the tariff, railroads, problems of financial and of all other questions should be acted upon in the light of their effect upon agriculture."

Statements Denied. Speaking of the rumors which have been put in circulation that he has promised to retain all the appointees now in state employ, Mr. Randall said:

"On my return to the state after an absence of 10 days, I am informed that reports have been circulated that I have promised in the event of my election as governor to reappoint all the appointees of the present state administration, and that I will oppose amendments to the present code bill."

"Both of these statements are false. I have made no promise to the appointees of the present governor, nor to any other person that would prevent me, in the event of my election, to select the men or women who are best qualified."

Favors Amendments. "As to remedying any defects in the present code law, I stand squarely on the republican platform, which declares: 'We pledge the party administrative code, subject to such amendments as four years of experience (Turn to Page Two, Column Three.)'"

Ratification of Tariff Bill Due Wednesday. Washington, Sept. 11.—The conference report on the administration tariff bill was in the making today, the republican conference having reached a final agreement on the 2,430 points in dispute between the senate and house after 17 days of labor...

Compromises were necessary on practically all of the high spots. Thus long staple cotton which the senate had proposed to tax at 7 cents a pound, went back to the free list, while the tax on sugar was fixed at 2.20 a pound on full duty and 1.76 cents on Cuban raw. The senate rates were 2.30 and 1.84, respectively, and the house rates 2 and 1.6.

In agreeing to a duty of 31 cents a pound on raw wool, secured content, the senate conferees yielded 2 cents while the house managers accepted an increase of 1-1/2 cents over the house rate. With this decrease in the senate duty of 33 cents a pound, slight reductions were made in the compensatory rates on woolen goods.

Although both the house and senate selected a proposal to continue the present 45-cent licensing system, the conferees agreed to its continuance for one year with authority for the president to keep it in for an additional year.

91 at Portland Yesterday. Portland, Ore., Sept. 11.—This was the hottest September day in Portland since 1909. The mercury at 3 p. m. went to 91. Continued warm weather was predicted for tomorrow.

Box Lunch King Killed in Fight at Roadhouse

Cyclone Miller Shot by W. G. Cline, Road Grader, Who Formerly Lived on Farm Near Wayne.

As Cyclone Miller, box lunch magnate, drove to "Mammy's chicken house" on the Dodge road west of the Peony farm early Sunday evening with Miss Genevieve Martin, one of his employees, he talked of seeing out on grading gangs...

At 11 Sunday night he was shot and killed by W. G. Cline, 55, a road grader, after a dispute in "Mammy's chicken house," which Miller owned. An inquest will be held at 9 today at the Crane Mortuary.

At least one other girl among Miller's 40 employees yesterday claimed to be his fiancée. This is Dorothy White, 15, who wears an engagement ring. Her mother is also one of Miller's employees.

Fires Nine Shots. Cline, charged with the murder, is the father of 10 children and until recently was a farmer near Wayne, Neb. According to his wife, he became involved in debt and had to leave the farm. Since then he has been working on grading gangs.

Cline, who was arrested by police in his tent near the chicken shack, said he shot nine times at Miller after Miller had fired at him twice. Employees at the shack, who witnessed the shooting, said that Miller did not have a revolver and that Cline did the shooting. Police doubt Cline's story and said that he was intoxicated when arrested.

Miller, who was 24, died in the arms of Miss Martin, who was at the shack with him. Following the shooting she commanded a passing automobile and rushed him to the Lord Lister hospital. But he died in the automobile as it sped toward the hospital.

"I prayed for him as the machine raced toward the city," said Miss Martin, whose engagement to Miller was to have been announced Sunday, she said. "He mumbled something to me and died in my arms."

Girl Tells Story. Here is the story of the shooting as told by Miss Martin: "Cline came into the shack and asked for a bottle of pop. He drank it and then said: 'I want seven more bottles. I got seven kids home and want to give them each a bottle.' Mr. Miller thought he was joking and tried to talk him out of it, but he insisted on having the pop."

"Cyclone then put the bottles in a sack and gave them to him, knowing that he had been drinking. He started to pay Miller, but I told him to stop. He then pulled a gun and shot me in the back of the head. He then shot at me and I fell. He then shot at me and I fell. He then shot at me and I fell."

Who Said "They Never Come Back"? He never used a "Lost and Found" Ad in The Omaha Bee—that's sure. Because they certainly do come back—lost pocket books, watches, rings, money—and dogs.

Mr. L. B. Goldman lost his gold fountain pen and decided to advertise his loss in the "Lost and Found" column of The Omaha Bee. Early the next morning the pen was returned to him.

Your purse isn't lost because you dropped it somewhere while you were downtown yesterday—it's simply mislaid until you've tried an Omaha Bee "Lost and Found" Ad.

When you lose something—don't worry—call Atlantic 1000 and ask for a "Want" Ad taker.

Three lines—three lines—ten dimes.

Wife of President Continues to Gain; Doctors Hopeful

Bulletin Issued in Evening Shows Respiration Nearly Back to Normal—Operation Postponed.

Washington, Sept. 11.—The improvement shown in the condition of Mrs. Harding was maintained today, according to the official bulletin issued by the attending physicians at 7:30. The patient enjoyed a "most comfortable day" the statement said. While her temperature remained at 100, Mrs. Harding's pulse had decreased to 90 and her respiration to 28. Laboratory observations show increased elimination and improvement in character of findings. General appearances indicate improvement of complications. Surgical procedure further deferred, awaiting localization of infection. Patient has had most comfortable day during the present illness. While all indications show favorable progress, prognosis is still guarded.

J., Sept. 11.—The shop craft strike and demands for a general strike of all organizations of the American Federation of Labor as a result of the injunction submitted by Attorney General Daugherty against the striking shipmen were on the program for consideration when the executive council of the federation resumed its conference today.

Many of the members of the council, although denouncing the injunction as a "blow to the rail craft and a threat to all organized labor," expressed their opposition to a general strike.

Four Major Changes Made in Compensation Measure by Senate and House

Conferees. To Follow Tariff Action

Washington, Sept. 11.—(By A. P.)—Conferees on the soldiers' bonus bill reached an agreement late today and it was announced that the measure would be reported Tuesday to the house. It will not be called up there, however, until after the conference report on the tariff bill has been disposed of, which may be on Wednesday or Thursday.

After the house acts, the bonus bill will go to the senate where also it is to be put behind the tariff. Four major changes were made in the bill in conference. They were:

Elimination of the Simmons amendment authorizing the financing of the bonus out of interest from the foreign debt.

Elimination of the land reclamation feature, which, under the senate plan embodied in the Smith-McNary reclamation bill, would have involved an expenditure of $350,000,000.

The limiting of the time in which veterans might file applications for a bonus to January 1, 1928.

Acceptance of the house provision fixing the amount to be advanced for farms or home aid to the amount of the adjusted service credit increased by 25 per cent in place of the senate plan of amounts ranging from 100 per cent of the adjusted service credit if the applications were made in 1928 or thereafter.

No important change was made in the adjusted service certificate option with its provisions for loans to veterans by banks in the next three years, and for government loans thereafter. The vocational training aid option and the provision for cash payments to veterans whose adjusted service credit would not exceed $50 also were unchanged.

No Word From Harding. There still was no official information as to whether Mr. Harding would approve the measure in its present form, but its proponents believe he will, while opponents are firmly of the opinion that he will not, owing to a promised fight on the senate side.

The bill conference report in the senate is expected in two weeks before the bonus measure reaches the White House.

Two of the 10 conferees—Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, and Representative Garner, democrat, Texas, voted against the bonus as finally perfected, while one manager, Mississippi, was absent. Those supporting the measure were Senators McCumber, North Dakota, and McLean, Connecticut, republicans, and Simmons, North Carolina, and Walsh, Massachusetts, democrats, and Representatives Fordyce, Michigan; Green, Iowa, and Longworth, Ohio, republicans.

Light Vote Expected in Colorado Primary. Denver, Sept. 11.—A light vote in Tuesday's statewide primary election in Colorado was predicted by politicians here tonight. The democratic and republican parties will nominate full state tickets and candidates for congress. Seventeen state senators and a complete lower house of the legislature will be chosen.

The democrats have a three-cornered race for governor, William E. Sweet, wealthy Denver broker, regarded as a liberal candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, and Earl Cooles, now lieutenant governor, are contending for the nomination for governor in the republican primary.

TO THE PEOPLE OF OMAHA AND VICINITY: We are to observe our annual Ak-Sar-Ben festival from the 12th to the 23d of September. This event has become a very important institution for the entire middle west, and while its success has been dependent in large measure upon our own efforts the hearty co-operation of neighboring towns and territory has been an important factor in the growth of our Ak-Sar-Ben. This year the business men of Omaha have determined to make the affair bigger and better than ever before. In every line of business activity revivations are promised. Fresh stocks of every description are to be shown—the newest and best of their kind, and at prices that will make prospective purchasers wonder how it can be done. A trip through the business sections of our city during the coming two weeks will well repay every visitor within our gates, and Omaha themselves will do well to take advantage of this opportunity to look and learn for themselves just how wonderful their home city really is. Of course, the keynote of success of this festival is centered in the well-known maxim, "Patrons—Be Home Industry." All together for the greatest Ak-Sar-Ben season of all in 1922. JAMES C. DAHLMAN, Mayor.

Move to Impeach Daugherty Causes Hubbub in House

Representative Keller Introduces Motion—Denied Privilege of Extending Remarks in Record.

By GRAFTON S. WILCOX. Omaha Bee Special Writer.

Washington, Sept. 11.—A move for impeachment of Attorney General Daugherty was made in the house by Representative Keller, Minnesota, republican, upon charges of malfeasance in office, based largely upon his conduct in securing the temporary injunction against the railroad strikers in Federal Judge Wilkerson's court in Chicago.

The interrogation of the impeachment proceedings created a lively hubbub in the house. In the course of it Mr. Keller was denied the privilege of making a speech or of extending his remarks in the record. He was forced to content himself with making the declaration of impeachment and the introduction of the formal resolution, both of which were promptly referred to the house judiciary committee.

Unless sentiment against the attorney general grows stronger, there is little likelihood of the judiciary committee making a favorable report on the impeachment resolution to the house. A meeting of the committee to consider the impeachment probably will be called at an early date and arrangements probably will be made then to give Mr. Keller and his supporters a hearing.

Inquest to Be Held Today Over Partly Cremated Body. Inquest over the body of Demetrio Nazar, known in Omaha as Joe Davis, whose charred form was found in the ashes of a bonfire in the weeds at Sixth and Pierce streets Sunday, will be held at the Crane mortuary today. Evidence gathered by police and condition of the body point to a probable murder, according to Mrs. Veretta Crane of the mortuary.

Bitulithic Paving Is 'Suicidal,' Expert Says. Opinions that bitulithic paving is "suicidal" and that the concrete base at Ninetieth and Pacific streets is poorly constructed were expressed by G. S. Hoag of Detroit, Mich., Lincoln Highway association head, in Omaha yesterday. Mr. Hoag, after inspecting the Ninetieth and Pacific streets paving, in company with members of the Omaha Auto club and County Commissioner Stroud, stated that he found evidences of poor cement mixture.

A warm session is expected today when the county commissioners hold a meeting to which auto club members and other "sickers" have been invited. Rerouting of the Lincoln Highway through Omaha to run west from the Douglas street bridge to Twenty-fourth street, thence south to Farham, was announced by Mr. Hoag, following a conference with highway association officials.

Fifteen proprietors of saloons, still open on other streets, were charged with liquor law violations.
