Common Sense

Do You Worry About Things That May Never Happen? Are you always worrying for fear something is going to happen to you? You may die early in life, you may lose your job, some of your investments may prove poor, your house may burn or you may run down some person while you are out in your auto—but none of these things may come to pass.

By worrying about them. When driving a car you have often noticed that a hill appears much steeper at a distance, and the actual climbing is much easier than it looks before you have tried it.

A Queer World

Toreador Trousers Appear First and Probably Last Time on Santa Clara U. Campus—Ship Passengers and Cootie Friends Separated Under Protest.

Santa Clara, Cal., Sept. 20.—Toreador trousers appeared on the campus of Santa Clara university yesterday for the first and probably last time. One pair, together with the wearer, went under the gymnasium shower while half the student body shouted its approval and the other half continued in pursuit of two other pairs.

Best Friends Must Part. New York, Sept. 20.—New York's police force gets many unusual calls, but yesterday it was forced to perform one of the most peculiar duties in its history when bluecoats had to use moral persuasion on 58 third-class passengers on the President Adams, who had held that vessel up for seven hours in the harbor, by refusing to disembark.

After the War. New York, Sept. 20.—The explosion of a shell, a war relic, filled with shrapnel in a west side apartment house last night, destroyed the hearing of Joseph McLean, a war aviator, who served in France where he escaped without a scratch from a fall of 300 feet.

Duck Hunting. Chicago, Sept. 20.—Scion of a wealthy San Francisco lumberman, Charles Legal, 24, was arrested last night in the Great Northern hotel on a charge of cashing a fraudulent check for $21 on the San Francisco First National bank.

Large Casket. Sioux City, Sept. 20.—A huge casket is being constructed for Mrs. Daisy Butterworth, Fat Lady with a carnival show, who died at Huron, S. D., Sunday.

Forest Fires on Coast. San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 20.—Seven forest fires raging in three national forests, threatened California with the worst fire loss in years.

Mexico to Pay on Debt. New York, Sept. 20.—Local bankers announced today that sufficient funds had been deposited here by the Mexican government to meet the first interest payment on the Mexican debt which is due January 1, 1933.

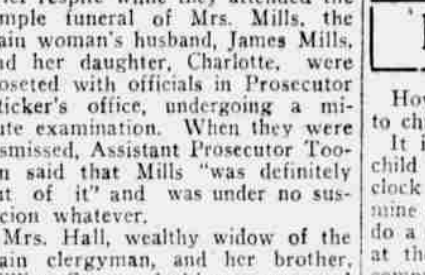

Pistol Is Found Used by Slayer

Probe of Double Murder of Church Rector and Choir Leader Is Nearing End.

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 20.—(By A. P.)—Discovery of the pistol with which Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, and his young choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, were slain brought the investigation of the mysterious double murder near its close last night.

Parents' Problems. How can punctuality best be taught to children? It is well to drill the unpunctual child by causing him to consult the clock frequently in order to determine the length of time necessary to do a certain thing.
