

McFarlane Lecture Series Opens Saturday

Mrs. Ida Kruse McFarlane, head of the English department, University of Denver, who has conducted lecture courses in Omaha for several seasons, will give the first of a series of talks on "Timely Interests" Saturday afternoon, September 30, 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Orchard & Wilhelm store.

For Removing All Kinds of Stains

Clean white kid slippers with any mild soap, and sprinkle them with talcum powder. When dry, rub off with a soft cloth. This makes them retain that new look. Yellow spots on clothing are often due to acid. Try immersing them in a weak solution of ammonia and warm water.

Overblouses are gay and various. Embroidered, trimmed with braid or applied designs or made of brocaded and figured materials they constitute the principal feature of any costume of which they are a part.

New York.—(Special Correspondence.)—That the circular skirt was ordained to be the spider who threatened Miss Muffet's way—this was the prediction of many who listened to whispers of the coming winter mode. This cheerful forecast was not correct. Already women are buying and ordering the new kind of frock. And, indeed, why should they not? For little Miss Muffet looks just as little in these circular effects—many of them, at least—as she did in the old monotonous chemise frock.

Leads Orchestra

Women orchestra leaders are rare, but Mrs. Todd Johnson, whose band is playing at the Athletic club dances this winter, is just that. A graduate of the Conservatory of Music at Kansas City, Mrs. Johnson has played since she was 2 years old and has toured the southwestern part of the country with various orchestras and in vaudeville.

Club Women Will Assist at Children's Health Conference

During the first week of October the Burgess-Nash company will sponsor a children's health week in the store auditorium from 9 until 12 daily when parents will be instructed in the care of children under five years of age.

Girls' Community Service League

Classes and club meetings at the Girls' Community Service league for the coming week will be as follows: Sunday—The Girls' Community Service Hikers club will meet at Pearl and Broadway, Council Bluffs, at 3:30 p. m. for a hike in the bluffs.
