ed. "Are you going to eat it now?"

nd eat it all myself," he replied, look of distress stole over his face.

And that was a plan that Billy

"Don't you want to buy some fine cake?" he asked. "It's only ten apple

They each bought a slice, which

"I don't call th's very good cake."

Aunt Polly Woodchuck remarked to so good as that your mother makes,

they begun to eat on the spot.

They saw him at the same

"You may as well close you out of it.

band and myself,"

ter than he had dared hope

Turner court, 3106 Dodge.

Railway Mail Service.

B. P. of the Railway Mail Service

"I'm going to hide behind the tence

Billy Woodchuck nodded.

fore it was all gone.

bit asked, "Are you ill?"

Jimmy Rabbit suggested.

ten apple seeds a slice!"

spoke to them.

seeds for a slice."

Miss Connell Names Wedding Attendants

Miss Josephine Connell who is to be wed to George Peterson on Saturday has chosen Miss Evelyn Clarke na her only attendant. The groom's brother, Harold Petersen, will serve as best man. Before the ceremony Miss Elenor Connell will sing, and Miss Evelyn Vore will play the wedding march, assisted by Miss Rachet Jordan, violiniat.

Miss Connell has been widely entertained. On Baturday her mother, Mrs. land for a week-end house party at the home of Mrs. C. R. Darst.

On Monday evening the Misses Rachel Jordan and Hazel Zerbe gave a shower for the bride to be, and on Puesday Mrs. Edgar Ernst, and Mrs. Paul Davis were hostesses at dinner. Wednesday Miss Katherine Revealds were entertained at dinner, when the guests were the Misses Pearl Klingbell, Evelyn Clarke, George Petersen Harold Petersen, Hilbert Petersen and Frederick Silabe.

On Friday Mrs. Walter Petersen mother of the groom will give a rehearsal dinner. The young couple plan to live in Dallas, Tex.

McAdom-Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jordan an nounce the marriage of their daughter, Cecilia, to Herbert McAdom Septem ber 18 in Council Bluffs. The young couple are now living at the home of the bride's parents.

For Br'de-to-Be.

Miss Gretchen Hess entertained informally et a trousseau tea Wednesday at her home in Council Bluffs. That evening Miss Hess and Mr. Peters were honor guests at a dinner g'ven at the Country club by Francis Gaines and Wallace Shep-

For Mrs. Miller

Mrs. Harry Byrne entertained at luncheon at the Athletic club Wednesday in honor of her sister Mrs. Robert Miller of New York, who is at present the guest of Mrs. Barton Millard. Covers were laid for the Mesdames Alian Tukey, Louis Clark, Wynne Megeath, Harry Kelley, Ross Towle, Ben Wood, Yale Helland, Charles McLoughlin, Myles Standish, Hilda Hammer, Wilson Austin, Clyde Roeder, and the Misses Hilda Hammer, and Gladys Peters.

Mesars, and Mesdames John Red.ck, fances thereof. Charles Metz, Edward Cre'ghton, Al-Mrs. George Red ck, and Messrs. Ross a month for the American. Towle, Lou Clarke and Denise Barkalow at the Country club.

Honoring M'ss Hamilton.

Mar'on Ham'lton, and George Ham'l- companied her. ton of Washington, D. C., entertained at dinner this evening at the Country

The guest list will include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ham'lton, jr., and the evening at the parish school. ilton of Wash'ngton, Helen Hussle and will be set for bridge and high five, Mesers. Herbert Connell, Porter Allan, Edward Crofoot, Fred Ham'lton, Floyd Sm th. Jack Peacock and Harry and Robert Burkley.

Kappa Psi Delta.

Kappa I'si Delta sorority of the University of Omaha will entertain at a progressive dinner this evening for their rushees. The hostesses will be the Misses Betty Sowell, Georgia Street and Dolores Partsch. A feature will be arranged at each home by way of entertainment. Miss Katherine Reynolds will entertain the sorority at a rose luncheon at her home in behalf of the alumnae Pledging will follow. Thirty-five any number of times, and I think

Dear Miss Fairfax: 1. Please tell me if a 15-year-old girl is too young to go with boys 16 years old. My mother and father object to this go ing-with-the-boys business. Also what is the first thing a boy notices about a girl? What is a good way to get if dof blackheads without injuring the skin?

Fifteen is rather young for a girl women were taken for a two hours drive through the city, and there was a dance at the Blackstone that even ing. Wednesday 169 covers were laid for luncheon at the Blackstone for the women. Wednesday was the closing day of the conference. Many of them are leaving for New York Thursday to attend the national convention there.

Sisters of Mercy.

The following have made reservadames T. J. Dwyer, M. R. Murphy. J. F. Kennebeck, T. Mickel and M ..

Pioneer Omahan a Visitor. Mrs. Mary Chapman, for many

Mother of Four and Noted Nebraska Short Story Writer in Omaha

The woman who mixes stories with@ "You can always find time for the foughnuts is in Omaha. Bess Street thing you want to do," is her answer. Aldr.ch of Eimwood, Neb., is she, And so she writes while the pie bakes probably the foremost short story and the kettle sings. writer residing in the state, as modest | Her baby is 2 years old. Mary Eleaas the town she comes from, and as nor, her only g.rl. is 14, and the in-Ella T. Connell, had 12 guests to gen al as the sun which shines down betweeners are 9 and 11. The three dine with her at her home, and in the upon it. It is quite fixe her that it is boys are coming into their own in the Since he was a hearty eater, he liked evening the party motored to Ash, her bushand's business which brings new Aldrich home going up in of all his presents, his birthday cake her bere. Charles S. Aldrich being Elmwood for the basement (they can't the most. His grandmother made the one of the bankers attending the fall down any farther, Mrs Aldrich cake herself and brought it to him all s ghed comfortably) is being equipped cake herself and brought it to him all Pm worried about this cake. I don't The explicitive burst from Sm th's not exactly of a literary nature, will Green's pasture, where she lived.

"Don't tell me motion picture companies steal plots," said Mrs. Aldrich who has just sold to the Clarence Bricker Company of Los Angeles the rights on her recent story, "Last Night When You Kissed Blanche

"All they wanted was an incident in the story and I would never have known, had they gone ahead and used it," Mrs. Aldrich declared. The ompany telegraphed to New York tor Mrs. Aldrich's address then to her at Elimwood and finally she replied to them regarding, "Last Night When You Kissed Blanche Thomp-

"I must ask my editor to stop usng such long titles for my stories if I have to telegraph about them, commented Mrs. Aldrich with the light humor so characteristic of her speech and writings.

Mrs. Aldrich was an honor guest at the Omaha Woman's Press club uncheon at The Brandels Wednesday She has attended the various ocial functions arranged for the bankers' wives, and has been selectng plumbing and electrical fixtures for the new house, and has dropped n to a movie or two. She does! things easily and with a kindly outook, wasting no minutes of priceless time in thinking or saying she is busy, or in fretting about the things n life we would like to change and She has never been to New York. She finds the material for her stories in the life and people about She loves Elmwood and the lived since coming from Iowa 13

Truly we are master of circum stance. Or as Shakespeare better said it many a year ago: "The fault, dear Brutus, is not in our stars lings,

Bankers' Wives Widely Entertained

Mrs. H. S. Clarke was hostess at a tea at her home Tuesday afternoon for the wives of the out-of-town lankers who are attending the convention here. Presiding at the ten table the knife." The women of St. Margaret Marys were the Mesdames A. L. Reed, Fred parish will give a card party Friday Davis, John L. Kennedy and Milton Re- Barlow. Assisting through the rooms M sees Nann'e and Mary Em'ly Ham freshments will be served and tables were the Mesdames M. D. Cameron. Eastman, Osgood Eastman, Fred Clarke, T. L. Davis, Ford Hovey, Frank Boyd, and Mrs. J. R. Cain Jr. who heads the reception committee,

Over two hundred guests were present. Prior to the tea, the visiting

The Sisterhood of Temple Israel will hold a style show and informal dance

Personals

Miss Gladys, returned Saturday from a six weeks' trip to Boston, New York and New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Sant of Gladstone, Ill., arrived Wednesday and are the guests of Mr. Van Sant's mother, Mrs. W. B. Van Sant. Gwyer Yates will leave Wednesday evening for New York City where he will attend the National Bankers Convention. He will remain a month. Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Coulter left a few days ago for Santa Anna, Cal., where they are to make their home. Miss Mildred Weston is planning to got east about October 7 to be brides-

Miss Hazel Nichols, Mrs. Lucien Hough, Mrs. Blaine Young and Mrs.

try club.

Bruner of Kokomo, Ind. Miss Weston

Mr. and Mrs. Barry L. Street of Mrs. Charles J. Simon of Chicago. arrives Thursday to visit her brother, fiel Bergman, and Mrs. Bergman,

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vammen of son, Heptomber 27, at the Stewart

ADVERTMENT.

CHAPTER XXVII. The Brinday Cake.

It was Billy Woodehuck's brthday for them, and doubtless many a plot the way from the other end of Farmer

> There was no doubt that it was a wonderful cake. The top of it, instead of being stuck thick with walsome. The inside of it, instead of grandma made for me? I couldn't do wipe, is burning, dyingbolding raisles and citron and such that." dainties, hid bits of turnip and cabage and whole pens. Billy Wood don't you sell allow of the cake?" chuck could tell just by sniffing at the cake that it was delicious. And Woodchuck Pked. everybody else that came anywhere near it thought the same. "A-ahem!" Ellly's father coughed,

'Let's cut the cake new and we'll all enjoy a taste of it." As he spoke, Mrs. Woodchuck reach- he was munching b'rthday cake, ed for a knife. And Grandma Wood-as soon as he saw this fine present.

I'll take two slices and I'll pay you to-morrow Jimmy Rabbit told him h's mother and Aunt Polly.

be disappointed in the cake. But she didn't really mean that. She knew chuck was angry with everyone, She it was good. And she had lingered caught her son by the ear and asked for a while in the hope of having a him what he meant by letting a rabslice of it herself. Well, the whole family was surorised when Billy Woodchuck began Mrs. Woodchuck told Aunt Polly that to howl. "This is my cake," he declared. "I ion't want it cut now. When it's cooking.

cut I intend to cut it myself." "Very well," said Mr. Woodchuck, d'dn't know what to my. She opened And to his wife he said, "Give Billy her mouth, but no words would come

But Billy Woodchuck wouldn't take the knife. "I don't want to cut fuy cake here at home," he blurted. "Well, I never!" cried his mother Den't you want us all to have a wee bit of this lovely cake" "No. I don't," he answered. Mr. Woodchuck cried out that it cut the cake himself. He was wild to taste it. But Grandma Woodchuck spoke up and said that she had made the cake for Billy, and that she thought he ought to be allowed to do with it as home of Mrs. J. C. Blanchard, 219 teeth.

he pleased. Well, Mr. and Mrs. Woodchuck ouldn't say much after that remark. especially, looked very anxious. Real- program.

Friends of Music. Even when Billy picked up his cake and started out of doors with it, they did not stop him. And his rather, when Mrs. L. F. Crofoot will give a just a trifle of conversation with you.

My Marriage Billy had not gone far from home when he met Jimmy Rabbit. "Look!" cried Billy, "See what I've Problems got. A hirthday cake!" "Well, well, well?" Jimmy exclaim-

'Revelations of a Wife"

(Copyright 1922)

Jimmy Rabbit went with him and Who Is This Strange Man, Smith? watched h m engerly. He hoped, some-If Allen Drake had meant to good how, to have a piece of that cake be Smith into some sort of emotional beraying outburst by his complete ig-After B'lly had finished half of it foring of the bound man, and his impressively polite request of Lillian, he "What's the matter?" Jimmy Raburceeded signally. +

"No." Billy told him. "It's not that, You dev.l of a thousand devile: know what to do with the rest of it." White lips no if it had been forced "Why don't you give a piece to through them by superhuman pres every friend that comes this way?" sure. "You spawn of a jellyfish, you scum of the sea, to dare stand there and emolie when a man like me, a What?" cried B'lly Woodchuck. nuts, was covered with clover blos. "Give away my birthday cake that my man whose shoes you are not fit to

"A million pardons, my good man," ."Then," Jimmy Rabbit said, "why Mr. Drake's voice was infuriatingly patronizing, "I am remise. May I offer you a cigar?

With a swiftness strongly contrast "I'll do it." he decided, "I'll sell the ing to his languid attitude of a minute rest of my cake for-let me see! For before, he crossed to Smith and with one hand defuly put a cigar in the "I'll take two sloss and I'll pay man's mouth while with the other he you temorrow." Jimmy Rabb't told held a light to the end of the cigar. I him. And in about two seconds more found myself tensely watching Smith to see what his reaction would be. His While he was enjoying the treat fury against us, his contempt for us chuck, who hadn't gone home, re-B'lly Woodchuck suddenly jumped up were so patently at war with the most marked that she hoped they wouldn't and ran off towards the woods. And polynant craving a smoker can have, soon Jimmy knew why his friend had that curios ty as to his action sent my left him, for B'lly's mother and Aunt | mental thermometer up dangerously Polly Woodchuck came strolling by, near the bursting point, They stopped when Jimmy Rabbit

Atlen Drake "Moves."

That Smith's Cret impulse was to reject the c gar and strike the light from Mr. Drake's hand was plainly evident as his face contorted with rage and he lunged his bound body forward, straining futilely at the bonds confining his hands. Then, as if acting upon some driving impulse beyond her friend, Mrs. Woodchuck, "It's not his own volition, his teeth clenched upon the cigar, and he inhaled and In fact, I call this cake a mighty poor puffed until it had caught the flame which Allen Drake held to it.

If Billy Woodchuck had only stayed My eyes went to Allen Drake's face way until the two ladies left, everynd I saw upon it a sat sfied trium thing would have turned out pleasantphant look such as a scientist m'ght ly. But he supposed, of course, that wear who had just concluded some they had gone on about their busidoubtfil experiment necessary to the ness. He came waddling back, saying solution of the problem he had in to Jimmy Rabb't, "How do you like and. And I realized that back of his my cake?" And then, too late, he saw languid po'se, h's ignoring of Sm'th. and h's flaunting of the cigar had lain a d'at'not purpose. He had needed just and heard him, too. And Mrs. Woodh's look into Sm'th's mental processes and he had cut his way to them with the sureness of a surgeon's scalpel. For a few minutes there was bit self his slice of birthday cake. Withsilence in the room. Smith's eyes out wa'ting for an answer from h'm, were half closed, and he was patent ly giving himself up to the rapture if she thought that cake was a m'ghty of the clear, Allen Drake's eyes poor one she was no judge of good never left the face of the other man. The rest of us divided our curious Poor Aunt Polly Woodchuck! She watchful glances between the brilliant government agent and the man whom he was slowly impaling. "Your Highness."

As a tiny ash began to show upon mouth." Mrs. Woodchuck informed the ends of the cigar, Allen Drake her. "You needn't think you are gostepped forward again. ing to have any more of this birth-

"Permit me," he said in the same day cake that my mother made. I'm ironically courteous tone he had going to take the rest of it home. used before, and he deftly slipped the where it will be enjoyed by my huscigar from between Smith's lips, knocked the ash off, then stood for Mr. Woodchuck said, afterward, second or two which seemed as that the whole affair turned out betmany hours looking at the round, brown object which meant to Smith the difference between comfort and will meet Friday at 2:30 o'clock at the S sith's lips curled back over his "Ah-h! The third degree, I per-

"Oh, no, nothing so crude," he and your hands, unfortunately, must ceive!" be snarled.

than for me to act as your first gentleman in waiting. Believe me, our highness, the task is no more ongenial to me than to you."

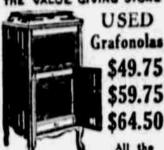

I had thought the high-sounding itles Mr. Drake had uttered were out part of the siry, mosking persiflage with which he was tantalizing Smith. But I had been watching Mr. Drake closely, and I saw his eyes narrow slightly as he speke the first litle. My eyes flew to Smith's face, and there I saw the amazing truth that Allen Drake had struck home. It was but a tiny spasm which eized his facial muscles, but in it was revealed a part of the mystery of the man named Smith.

Semewhere across the seas before cataciyan which converted threnes into junk heaps, princes into wanderers, the man before us had occupied an exalted place.

Hee Want Adv bring results

The Original Food-Drink for All Agesk Lunchat Home Office & Fountains. RichMilk, Malted Grain Extract in Powdera Tubletforms. Nourishing-No cooking. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

COLUMBIA RECORDS

Your Terms Are Our Terms USED SEWING MACHINES "Hous," $2.50

THE VALUE-GIVING STORE Howard St., Between 15th and 16th

Leave it to the kiddies to pick Kelloggs Corn Flakesthey are never tough or leathery!

Put a bowl of KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes and a bowl of imitations in front of any youngster! Then see KELLOGG'S disappear! Try the experiment yourself! It's great to know the difference in corn flakes-the difference between the genuine and the "just-asgoods"! Kellogg's have a wonderful flavor that would win your favor by itself-but when you know that Kellogg all-the-time crispness! Well-they just make you glad! Kellogg's are never tough or leathery or hard to eat! Kellogg's will snap-up kiddie appe-tites something wonderful! And, our we know of that fine shirts are made of. The patterns and colorings are beautiful and any taste may be gratified. These shirts were to sell at 5,00, and at 2.95 you should anticipate your year's requirements. Sizes 14 to 17.

Main Flaor-South

cloths, perfectly tailored in new patterns.

We want you to carefully examine these silk shirts. The uitks are from such well known makers as Roth & Squires, Empire Silk Co., Swartzenback & Huber, Finn's imported silks. No low end silks will be found in this sale, and, remember, we have plenty of white all'k iercey shirts. Sires from 14 to 17.

Muin Floor-South

Problems That Perplex BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Pledging will follow. Thirty-five any number of times, and I think most parents recognize it, that there is no harm in an occasional party or dance, even for 15-year-olds. There is to be a story in next Sunday's Bee as at the Blackstone October 7. Mrs. I. The following have made reserva-tions for the Sixers of Mercy card to what is the first thing a boy notices to what is the first thing a boy notices when he me is a girl. Watch for it. To cure blackheads, mix two grains the season October 9.

of sulphate of zinc or copper in one that of distilled water or rose water, did six ounces of pure soft water. Press out the binckheads with the fingritude of a rough towel, then apply wears a resident of Omaha, and who now makes her home in Sioux City with her daughter. Mrs. R. A. Mc Farland, is now in this city visiting ferred.

GREATEST SUCCESS IN HISTORY OF MEDICINE

More Than 30,000,000 Bottles of Tanlac Sold Santa Anna is near Los Angeles. in Less Than Eight Years. Merit Alone Has Confirmed It in the Favor of the People of maid at the wedding of Miss Mary North America. Foreign Countries Bruner of Kokome, Ind. Miss W will be gone about three weeks. Clamor for It.

Most proprietary medicines are sold by the dozen or by golfers who went to Lincoln today the gress; some are bought by the trade in quantities from for the opening of the Lincoln Counten to twenty gross; a very few are sold by the carload, and then to only the largest jobbers, covering extensive territories. The fact, therefore, that scores of jobbers have a Chiengo are expected next work for demand sufficient to justify them in ordering not one car- Kennedy. They are well known here, load, but from two to three carloads of Tanlac at a time as they have been quests in former makes Tanlac's pre-eminence in the field of medicine all years. the more noteworthy.

to supply their normal demands. 28,800,000 bottles have been sold it deposited, depressed feelings. out the United States, Canada, Mexi stored to health and happiness by the en and Coha, and this convenues and use of Tunion.

Orders from retailers of from 50 to Still others who seemed fairly well I gross are not uncommon and practively who suffered from indigestion. buy Tealer in from 10 to 20 gross lots upuils, sour, gassy stomachs, could Neola, in, announce the birth of a tongues, foulness of breath, constipa-Taniar has now been on the mer- tion, bad compleason, loss of appetite host about eight years, and more than afceptionness at night and of verrible has slead the acid test of time and stated through the public prints that public trial. It is known and how they have been entirely relieved of ored, a household medicine, through- those distressing symptoms and reexar-increasing popularity is the one. So the people have made Tonian great outstanding proof of its merit. Millions have used it and told other Your of thomsands of mon and was colliners. Tunior's narrows content he treatment is here given for the quick took of all ages and in all walks of based on more advertising, for on an removal of heavy growing. Mix weak, this, nervous men and women parallel new enters a wider sale and move, wash the akin and the hairs apparently on the verse of collapse popularity than ever before. It is the have varietied publicly that they have being policies in a the parallel policies that they have being policies and the parallel policies that they have been fully restored to their occupal acteurs, the greatest success in the tomplia, buy weight, health and strength by its history of medicine. I Tunian is not? by all good draggists. watted

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish A hurmines, 'yet very effective, tife, afflored with accomach, live and ticle of trade can survive for eight snough powdered digiture and water kidner trucke, seems of them of long score which done not produce actual to cover the undestrable bases, apply based and thousands of and positive results.