Omaha Grain. The European political situation was considered more serious today and our markets ruled strong and higher in the early session.

Chicago Grain. By CHARLES D. MICHAELS. Omaha Bee. Chicago, Sept. 29.—Grain prices were highest early and lowest about the close.

Financial. NEW YORK TIMES. New York, Sept. 29.—In so far as the financial unsettledness has been a consequence of the dispute with Turkey, the recovery in today's markets must be considered as reflecting not a change in the aspect of that singular controversy, but doubt as to whether the market's movement might not take too much for granted.

Brasfield's Trade Review. New York, Sept. 29.—Bradstreet's, New York and industrial conditions very generally about the same as last week. Trade in fall buying, already to higher commodity prices, a still faster pace in industry, especially about the most widely diffused of the year, collections better and the clearing more prompt with trifling free damage, are among the outstanding special features in a week which has seen some of the intensest of the season's trading.
