

N. Y. Republicans Name Candidates at Closing Session

Governor Miller and Senator Calder Renominated—Administration Endorsed in State Platform.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The republican state convention of 1922 completed its work yesterday, renominating Governor Nathan L. Miller of Syracuse and United States Senator William M. Calder of Brooklyn and naming a ticket of state officers.

The complete ticket nominated is: Governor, Nathan Miller of Syracuse; lieutenant governor, Col. William J. Donovan of Buffalo; comptroller, William J. Maier of Seneca Falls; attorney general, Erskine C. Rogers of Hudson Falls; secretary of state, Samuel J. Joseph of the Bronx; state treasurer, N. Monroe Marshall of Malone; state engineer and surveyor, Charles L. Cagle, Rochester.

Secretary of State John I. Lyons, who persisted in his determination to carry his fight for renomination to the convention floor in spite of overtures of state leaders who wished him to withdraw, was overwhelmingly defeated by Mr. Joseph in the only contest of an otherwise harmonious convention. The vote was 1,951 to 155.

The Savannah River is carrying 135 carloads of Georgia farm land into the ocean daily, because the wanton destruction of forests has given the heavy rainfall a better chance to do its work.

Mrs. Stillman Wins Fight on Divorce

The referee's report, on motion by either side, will go to Supreme Court Justice Morschauer for confirmation or rejection. It is expected that Justice Morschauer will uphold the findings of Mr. Gleason.

Two of the banker's attorneys, Col. William Hand and Outbridge Horsey, waiting to hear the decision in Mr. Gleason's office at Poughkeepsie, declined to say whether they intended to appeal from the referee's findings.

The Stillman divorce case, in which the principals accused one another of being the parents of illegitimate children, has been in many ways without parallel in the history of domestic ruptures in American high society.

James A. Stillman, who instituted the court proceedings, was president of the National City Bank of New York, the son of a former head of that institution and a noted multi-millionaire. He charged his wife, the former Pili Potter, a famous beauty of infidelity, saying she was guilty of misconduct from 1914 through 1919 with Fred Beauvais, an Indian guide at their summer camp near Three Rivers, Quebec.

This charge was denied by Mrs. Stillman in retaliation she accused her husband of misconduct with three women. One of those named was Florence H. Leeds, a former Broadway show girl. The other two were identified as "Helen" and "Clara."

Mrs. Stillman asserted her husband was the father of two children born to Mrs. Leeds, the daughter of a New York plumber. One infant died at birth. The other, Jay Ward Leeds, born in September, 1919, is living and Mrs. Stillman said her husband had furnished the mother with luxurious homes in New York and on Long Island, and that he lived with her and her child in these places, posing under the name of "Franklyn Harold Leeds."

Dr. Sun Admits Attempt to Form Triple Alliance

Deposed President Says China in Need of Aid From Powers That Will Treat Nation as Equal.

Shanghai, Sept. 29.—(By A. P.)—Dr. Sun Yat-sen, deposed president of south China, today admitted the authenticity of letters published by the Kungkong Telegraph, taken from Sun's private safe after his flight from Canton, disclosing his connection with a project to form a triple alliance composed of China, Germany and the Moscow soviet government.

In a lengthy statement Sun declared that it was his "considered opinion that China stands in great need of assistance from powers that will treat her as an equal and I believe that Germany and Russia, as they now are governed, can and will treat with China on terms of equality. Therefore I favor a policy looking towards closer relations with these powers."

Sun's statement continued: "China ever has been held inferior by the powers. I regard the disarmament of Germany and the abolition of Germany's extraterritorial rights in China as placing her in the category of nonaggressive powers."

"One of the greatest dangers to the political independence and integrity of China has been removed by the rise of the soviet government of Russia and so long as the soviet continues its nonimperialistic policy, republican China will have nothing to fear from Russia."

"I do not consider that a policy of rapprochement with these powers would militate against the legitimate interests of any other power desiring a strangle, reunited China. On the other hand, such a policy would serve the best interests of a nonimperialist, nonreactionary China."

Ultimatum Delivered to Turkey by British

(Continued From Page One.) white flag or with rifles reversed whenever they are near our troops. They show no aggression, but make the British situation militarily most difficult, and their movements naturally furnish an excellent method of reconnoitering."

Humors of Evacuation.
There were rumors overnight that the allies would possibly evacuate Constantinople, thus allowing the Kemalists through to Thrace, while the allied headquarters would be established in Gallipoli, where they could co-operate with the British forces in Chanak in keeping the straits open.

The opinion is expressed that Kemal is trying to provoke the British to fire on the Turks so that he can turn to the Mohammedan world and claim he has been attacked by the Christians. Should such a thing occur, it would naturally raise a grave issue for Great Britain, India, Egypt and Mesopotamia.

British Embarrassed.
Constantinople, Sept. 29.—The British in Chanak are frankly embarrassed in the face of the continued encroachments on their position and are puzzled to know what to do, as they have orders not to fire. These unopposed invasions give the Turks excellent opportunity of reconnoitering.

Observers say the British have shown patience and tolerance and that perhaps never in history did friend and foe touch elbows so closely without a single shot being fired.

French for Defense.
The allied high commissioners have decided to dispatch a commission composed of British, French and Italian officials to Rodosto, Lule-Bourgas and Adrianople, in Thrace, in order to exercise a pacifying influence there.

According to the Exchange Telegraph, part of the French troops which were withdrawn from Chanak, and which have since been in Constantinople will be used for the defense of the European shore of the Bosphorus.

Every outgoing train and boat is filled to capacity. Small fishing and merchant boats are taking the overflow and their owners are reaping large profits. The prospect of war has brought to Constantinople newspaper correspondents of every nationality. The United States leads with 15 writers. Great Britain has 11, France 7, Italy 4 and the rest are scattered among other countries.

Revolutionaries Place Ministers in Prison

Constantine Prisoner.
Paris, Sept. 29.—(By A. P.)—Ex-King Constantine has been held prisoner in Athens pending arrangements for sending him out of the country, according to messages received in official quarters in Paris today.

Five ministers of the Protapasadiah government have been imprisoned, the message states, charged with responsibility for the defeat of the Greek army in Asia Minor and the succeeding events in Greece. These ministers, it is declared, will be tried by a military commission. They are: M. Gounaris, Stratos, Theotokis, Goudas and Protapasadiah.

George Takes Oath.
Athens, Sept. 29.—(By A. P.)—Crown Prince George has taken the oath as king, and Greece, pending the formation of a new ministry, is being governed by 12 officers representing the army and navy. An executive committee, a triumvirate composed of Colonels Conatas and Plastras for the army and Captain Phokas for the navy, is in actual direction of the new regime. Athens continues quiet, perfect order being maintained everywhere.

The nationalist movement, as it is called, is absolutely nonpartisan, according to an announcement by the executive committee. It is probable that a military cabinet will be formed, but the revolutionary committee will continue its surveillance of this provisional government until elections can be held.

Destination is Unknown.
It is reported that the abdicated king, Constantine, former Queen Sophie, and Constantine's brothers, Prince Nicholas and Prince Andrew, are to leave Athens today, but their destination has not been learned.

Prince Paul, younger son of Constantine, probably will be asked to remain in Greece.

The new king assumes the title George II. George I, his grandfather, a prince of the royal house of Denmark, was born in Copenhagen in 1845 and was assassinated in Saloniki in 1913.

Candia, Crete, Sept. 29.—The officials here of the Constantinian regime have turned over their offices to revolutionary forces who formed a provisional government of three Venizelists.

Romyra, Sept. 29.—(By A. P.)—Ten Greek-owned vessels steamed into the harbor last night, under the protection of the American flag, and took of 20,000 refugees and victims of the fire. The American navy, under Rear Admiral Bristol, is striving valiantly to save the remainder, who number not less than 45,000.
