

Tax Reductions of "Ranimaker" Must Be Small

Governor McKelvie Exposes Slogan of Bryan in Campaign for State Executive.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Governor McKelvie in an address here on the state political situation said:

"The 'Ranimaker' candidate for governor on the democratic ticket says that he will shower tax reductions upon the people of the state and immediately points to the repeal of the code as the means by which he shall accomplish this result. It has already been pointed out that the elimination of the salaries of the code secretaries would result in a possible tax reduction of $3,100,000 per cent. This indeed would be 'some shower' but at that, it is as much as might be expected of a 'Ranimaker'. To go further: If the state-house were to be closed entirely and the salaries of all the state employees eliminated, including the constitutional officers, the code departments and the supreme court, it would result in a possible tax reduction of 7.10 of 1 per cent.

Extensive Improvements.

"During the past four years the state has been engaged in an extensive program of improvement, the very large proportion of which is accounted for in permanent improvements and capital investments: $2,000,000 for soldiers' relief, over $3,000,000 for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis, more than $5,000,000 increase for building roads, over $2,000,000 increase for the state university, over $2,000,000 increase for penal and charitable institutions, over $750,000 increase for normal schools, over $300,000 for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis, over $250,000 increase for vocational education, $200,000 increase for paving around state institutions, and over $140,000 for state aid to schools. These items and other minor items for new and increased activities of the state, after making allowances for the discontinuance of activities that were carried on during the bienniums of 1915-16, inclusive, leaves a total increase of nearly $16,500,000. Thus the increase in state taxes for the last four-year period is accounted for.

Republicans Cut Taxes.

"Of course, anyone can understand that there can be a further reduction in taxes, because the major portion of these new and increased activities have either been completed or need not be continued on the same extensive basis. It is from this source that decreased taxes will come, rather than from elimination of a few employees. The republican party has already shown its good faith in this respect by having reduced state taxes one-third for the present year.

"It is only fair now that the 'Ranimaker' candidate should point out just exactly where he proposes to effect any considerable decrease in taxes, aside from the decrease that would naturally result as above outlined, and he should tell the people about whether he objects to the $2,000,000 that was appropriated for soldiers' relief, or whether he is opposed to the building of the new capitol, or whether he is opposed to the 5,000 miles of good state roads that have been built, or whether he would deprive the young men and women of the state of the educational advantages that are afforded in the university and normal schools, or whether he would disregard the needs of the state's dependents who are now being taken care of in the penal and charitable institutions. The increased enrollment of which amounts to about 35 per cent in the last six years."

Eastern Promoter Attaches Funds of Hugo Stinnes

Court Action Reveals Plans of German Industrial Magnate to Float Loans in U. S.

New York, Sept. 29.—Attachment of funds carried in four New York banks to the credit of Hugo Stinnes, German industrial magnate, in connection with a $2,055,155 breach of contract suit filed by James A. Tillman, promoter, revealed that Stinnes, through various financial schemes, had made attempts to float loans for hundreds of millions of dollars in this country.

The attachment order, signed by Supreme Court Justice Wesservogel, was placed in effect by deputies to Sheriff Noble of New York county. The funds, the exact amount of which was not disclosed, are held by the National City bank, the Guaranty Trust company, the Equitable Trust company and Holsen & Co.

These agencies were owned by Tillman, he stated, and he was entered into an agreement with Stinnes which necessitated the transfer to a Sweden corporation controlled by Stinnes, of certain agencies for developing trade with the United States. These agencies were owned by Tillman, he stated, and he was to become managing director of the principal office at Stockholm.

Stinnes, Tillman's statement continued, was to furnish collateral security that Tillman might undertake to secure a loan at $145,000,000 in the United States.

Instead of furnishing this collateral, the statement continues, Stinnes concocted a lot of "financial schemes as a sort of panderer for Germany's financial afflictions," which Tillman thought would never be seriously entertained by American bankers.

One of these schemes, Tillman averred, was that he was to obtain a $100,000,000 loan upon Stinnes' promissory note, unsecured by any collateral. After this loan, the statement went on, Stinnes planned to use the money for the purchase in the United States of billions of marks at the current exchange rate.

Husband Won't Wash Face; Wife Obtains Divorce

Lincoln, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—One reason why she wanted a divorce, Mrs. Mary A. Harden told Judge Morning in district court, was that her husband, James Edward Harden, would go for weeks at a time without
