

President's Aid Is Sought for Drive on Cancer Scourge

Organized Fight Against Disease Planned for Week of Nov. 12-20—Facts to Be Given Public.

By GRAPTON WILCOX. Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, Sept. 29.—The president of the United States is to be appealed to this week to lend his aid to a movement which will educate the public in protective measures against the ravages of cancer, a malady which is destroying more Americans annually than were killed in the world war.

determined upon a nation-wide campaign to curb its ravages. The society has determined it to be imperative that the people of the United States be awakened to the scourge just as they have been awakened with wonderful results to tuberculosis, the havoc of which has been materially curbed within the past decade.

but it does hold that it may be cured in many instances and that in practically all cases much can be gained by meeting the disease in its incipient stages.

declares cancer curable if operated upon before adjacent glands are involved. Both these men with hundreds of others of like reputation will participate in the drive.
