Materials—Fashiona, Arabella, Veldyne, Panvelaine, Lustrosa, Normandy, Armandale
We have brought together coats of the finest fabrics and best furs at prices which are unusual at the beginning of the season. This assemblage of entirely new and exclusive models represents the Parisian mode at its most interesting moment. The luxurious softness of their materials, the generous depths of their collars and cuffs of Siberian Squirrel, Northern Beaver, Kit Fox, Caracul and Wolf bespeak the unusualness of their quality. Their extreme modishness and elegance is accentuated by the hang of the flare sleeves and the careful draping of the skirt into subtle folds.

Colors—Kit Fox, Zanzibar, Marten, Hawaiian, Jet Black, Navy

—Paris Inspired These Three-Piece— Jacket Suits

For Every Occasion of Immediate Town Wear

The three-piece suit is the suit and gown in one that Jenny, Lanvin and Patou have perfected, the art by which a tailleur of sophisticated smartness is transformed into a gown of decorative grace with the simple gesture of removing the coat. Box or blouse models luxuriously furred.

The Jacquette Paris inspired, they say—maybe so, but the woman is surely inspired who selects one of these in matelasse, satin or crepe. Not only because they are new and different but because of a youthful insouciance they lend to the fall costume. Black, browns and navy are embroidered in self colors or gold threads. Second Floor—South	The Costume Trimmings of Oriental originations are frequently employed in the new blouses we are showing. The Egyptian cabochon, Balkan designs—and styles that show mandarin influence are attractive. Persian patterns in crepe de chine, satins, georgettes and Spanish lace are among the materials employed. Second Floor—South	New Cloth Frocks Poirot Twill in charming coat models that Paris favors or in dressier styles that are equally effective. The new sleeve, the youthful apron effect and pockets that unexpectedly turn into panels are some of the methods by which these frocks achieve the mode of the moment. Sizes 36 to 44 Priced at 39.75 Second Floor—West
