

Venizelos Will Represent Greece in Allied Capitals

Wires Acceptance to Call from Revolutionary Committee — Zaimas Heads New Grecian Ministry.

Athens, Sept. 30.—(By A. P.)—King Constantine, Queen Sophie and Prince Nicholas sailed today for Palermo, Sicily, on board a Greek steamer on which they embarked at Oropos, placed at the disposal of the fallen monarch by the revolutionary committee. The departure was without ceremony.

Paris, Sept. 30.—(By A. P.)—M. Venizelos last night telegraphed to Athens his acceptance of the invitation extended by the revolutionary committee to take up the task of defending Greece's interests in the allied capitals.

Shortly after sending the message he left for London, where he hopes to see Viscount Curzon, British foreign secretary, some time today.

M. Venizelos' reply to the revolutionary committee thanked the new government warmly for its confidence in him and put him on record as agreeing to undertake the task of "defending the political program of the present Greek government."

In London.

London, Sept. 30.—Premier Venizelos of Greece has arrived in London from Paris, and declares his intention of remaining here for several weeks with the exception of such short trips to France as may be necessary.

Premier Chosen.

Athens, Sept. 30.—(By A. P.)—Alexandre Zaimis, who was premier when Constantine was expelled from Greece in 1917, and whose father headed the Greek cabinet when King Otto I was deposed by the revolution of 1912, has been selected to head the new ministry, which is composed of independents, Venizelists and military officers.

It is now stated that Constantine plans to reside in Palermo, Italy.

A favorable impression was created by the proclamation of the revolutionary committee that the arrested political and military leaders shall remain in prison, but that the manner of their trial shall be left to the future national assembly.

Nominee for Senate from New York Omahan's Nephew

John Copeland, veteran barber in the First National bank barber shop, is an uncle of Dr. Royal S. Copeland, who was nominated Friday by New York democrats for United States senator.

"I'm mighty glad to hear it," said John yesterday. "Royal is a fine fellow and a self-made man. He started at the bottom and worked his way through school and medical college. He is now health commissioner of New York City and a big man in politics with the forces of Mayor Hylan."

Artist Named De Molay Master Councilor

Russell Countryman, 19, graduate of Central High school last year and at present commercial artist with the Northwestern Bell Telephone company, has been elected master councilor of the Omaha chapter, Order of De Molay.

A drill team commanded by Knight Templar drill masters is being organized by the chapter, as well as a band, orchestra, chanters' club and a program of winter entertainments. Plans are being made for a large winter convocation.

Girls Tag Omahans for Orphanage Fund

The sympathetic appeal made to the public by orphan kiddies for funds to further the activities of St. James orphanage bore fruit yesterday in generous contributions. Scores of women and girls stationed on the downtown streets collecting contributions for the orphanage made the tag day a thorough success, according to the large amount of money turned in at headquarters in the First National bank.

Peteren & Pagan Baking company gave $100; Orchard & Williams paid $50 for a tag; Tom Denison gave $10; Andrew Murphy & Son gave $10. Women in charge of the drive are: Mrs. Peter Jolly, Mrs. E. C. Nash, Mrs. W. A. C. Johnson, Mrs. T. E. Dwyer, Mrs. T. P. Redmond and Mrs. T. E. Dinans.

Cop Changes Mind.

C. G. Lund, patrolman, who stated he was going to resign from the force, has changed his mind and will remain, he stated yesterday.

Pottery Firms Accused of Price Fixing Combine

Approximately 85 Per Cent of Corporations Named in Indictment Made Public by Government.

New York, Sept. 30.—An indictment against approximately 85 per cent of the corporations, firms and individuals engaged in producing sanitary pottery in this country was made public today by William Hayward, United States attorney for the southern district of New York. The indictment names 23 companies and 24 individuals.

The indictment is regarded as virtually the last of this series of steps taken against various industries affecting housing and begun by the investigation carried on by the Lockwood legislative committee.

The firms and individuals named are engaged principally in the manufacture of porcelain and earthenware fixtures for bathrooms in apartment houses, both in New York and other cities. Several of the indicted firms also manufacture bath tubs and similar accessories.

The indictment is in two counts. The first accuses the defendants of having been engaged in a price fixing combination. The second charges that the defendants have unlawfully restricted and confined sales of their merchandise to a special selected group of so-called "legitimate jobbers." The price fixing count alleges that since the defendants manufacture and sell upwards of 85 per cent of all the sanitary pottery produced in the United States, they have been able, by concerted action, to exact uniform, arbitrary and noncompetitive prices.

As to the second count, Mr. Hayward said the defendants had a rule whereby members of the group were barred from selling their merchandise directly to the builder, architect or the contractor. The manufacturers, according to Hayward, confined his sales to the so-called "legitimate jobber," who, in turn, would confine his sales to "legitimate plumbers." The jobber and plumber, in each case, he said, would dictate his own prices without fear of competition.

Middle names were once illegal in England.
