He gave plenty of evidence of that today when, after an hour's signal practice, he sent the varsity against the freshmen in a serimmane which started at 5 n.m. and did not stop until the shades of night were falling.

In that time the varsity ran up a large score against the freshmen, but it was not without exerting the best they had. The first machine which Couch Dawson assembled found Peterson at center: Bergulat and Bassett at guard; Wenke and Weller at tackle Scherer and Thomson at enid; Russell at quarter; Noble and Herb Dewitz at half and Captain Hartley playing

The Frosh squad had been drilled on South Dakota plays brought back by Coach Farley Young from the South Dakota-Yankton game. The varsity did not experience trouble in breaking these up but they did have trouble stopping Al" Bloodgood, from Beatrice and Doug Meyers, a fellow townsman, both of whom were in the yearling's backfield. Blood good got away for a 25-yard run and executed two perfect punts.
