Hotel Company Seeks Damages of $2,000,000

Civil Suit Filed in Lancaster County Court Charges Conspiracy-Newspaper Is Named.

Lincoln, Oct. 4 -- A civil suit for $2,000,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained as the result of conspiracy against the Nebraska Hotel Co. was filed in the Lancaster district court here by the company against William E. Barkley, former receiver for the company, Benjamin F. Good, Fred C. Foster, Paul F. Good, F. A. Boehmer, C. C. Carlsen, J. H. Humpe, W. A. Selleck, E. B. Stephenson, L. J. Dunn, Stanley Maley, L. B. John M. Stewart, Henry Guan, Henry Furrer, Delbert Lautzenheiser. John Peterson and the Nebraska State Journal association, a

The suit is an outgrowth of the receivership action involving the hotel company's property, begun in December, 1920, and ending with the dissolution of the receivership by the supreme court several weeks ago and the declaring by the court the invalidity of the sale of the hotel properties to E. C. Eppley of Sloux City.

Conspiracy Charged,

In the conspiracy action the in dividual defendants are charged with attempts to wreck the hotel company by promoting the receivership. The newspaper company is charged with furthering the purposes of the defendants by the publication of alleged libelous and damaging articles con cerning the affilirs of the company.

The Nebraska Hotel company al leges in the suit it is the owner of the lease of the Fontenelle hotel of Omaha, the Lincoln hotel of Lincoln, the Capital hotel site, Lincoln, the Oikema apartments, Lincoln; the Lincoln hotel, Franklin; the Lincoln ho tel, Table Rock; the Lincoln hotel, Scottsbluff; the Evans hotel, Columbus: a ranch at Kearney and a brick structure used for a rooming house at Glenrock, Wyo., the majority of which property was involved in the receivership recently declared invalid ed by the supreme court.

Sureties Are Named.

Defendants E. B. Stephenson, W. A. Sellek, L. B. Howe, L. J. Dunn, John M. Stewart, C. C. Carlson, J. H. Humpé and Henry Gunn are brought These bonds, the plaintiff declares,
