

Man, Barricaded in House, Slain by Besieging Cops

Peoria River Front Resident Wounds Detective, Then Holds Off Police Two Hours.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 5.—Henry Miller, river front resident, was shot and killed last night by a squad of police after he had wounded Frank L. Howell, Rock Island railroad detective, and defied capture behind barricaded doors of his shack for two hours. Miller was routed from his stronghold by a gas bomb after an attempt to set fire to the shack had failed. He emerged from the gas shield shortly to meet the fire of four riot guns and a dozen revolvers.

Mystery Girl.
Galveston, Tex., Oct. 5.—An unidentified woman, between 20 and 25, neatly dressed and attractive, was found in an unconscious state tonight at the foot of the new sea wall about 200 yards from the approach to East beach. Late tonight the attendants reported that she was still unconscious and it was impossible to ascertain the seriousness of her illness. All efforts to ascertain her identity were of no avail.

Hangs Self.
College Point, L. I., Oct. 5.—Driven into a nervous breakdown by his alleged enforced separation from his wife, William G. Stockinger, 34, A. E. F. casualty, committed suicide yesterday, according to the police, at his home here by hanging himself to the lanister. The body was found and cut down by his sister, Miss Dorothy Stockinger.

Dry Director Resigns.
Washington, Oct. 5.—The resignation of Ralph A. Day as federal prohibition director of New York, effective November 1, was announced by Commissioner Haynes.

No Long Hair Nor Flowing Tie for This Poetic Soul

Douglas Malloch Admits Charlie Chaplin and Billy Sunday Do a Bit Better Financially.

Douglas Malloch.

With no long hair nor flowing tie, but looking like any other American, business man Douglas Malloch, the poet, has arrived to address the Northwestern Hotel Men's association at the Hotel Rome yesterday.

Mr. Malloch has been called "the man who made poetry pay." His poems appear each day in The Omaha Evening Bee.

"Yes," admitted the poet, "I believe some newspapers have said that—but they didn't say how much it paid. I think Charlie Chaplin and Billy Sunday still have me beaten a little. But it has paid enough so that I can do the work that I like to do best—and that is bigger pay than many a man gets who is holding down a five-figure job. The greatest joy in life isn't in being able to play, but in being able to work at the thing you like to do."

"You wouldn't discourage the young men and women inclined to write poetry, then?"

"Why should they be discouraged, any more than the boy who wants to be a lawyer or the girl who longs to be a musician? If they have the gift, they ought to be allowed, they ought to be made, to develop it, and if they haven't it, they will eventually find it out. You speak as though a child developing poetry should be hit on the head or sent somewhere for treatment. Better make a good poet out of such a child than a poor lawyer or a worse cook."

They Can Succeed.

"But can they ever hope to make a living out of it?"

"Why not? Painters, sculptors, musicians and other workers in the arts make livings—the good ones do. Why not poets? If they have the gift, perseverance, industry and business sense, they will succeed. And don't misunderstand the word 'gift.' You have to have a gift to drive a team of horses. Most people can do a lot of things ordinarily well, but some one thing extraordinarily well. They ought to find out what it is, and go at it. That beats trying to find out what will pay the most money and then attempting that, whether you have the gift for it or not. I am glad that Shakespeare didn't decide that he could make more money running his father's lumber yard—you know his father was a juggler—but decided to do the thing he liked to do best, regardless of how it paid. I guess that most of the men who did things that helped the world took some such view of it."

"What advice would you give a young poet?"

No. Vers Libre.

"Say, I am looking for it, not giving it. I will say this: Don't try to write what the editors want, nor what the public wants. Write what you, yourself, want, what you want to do, because that will be what you'll write best. Maybe the editors won't want it at first. Maybe they won't want it at all. Then you will have to decide whether you can't write or merely whether the editors can't read. But your stuff will at least be sincere. That is more likely to win than the best imitation."

"Would you write 'vers libre'?"

"If you mean me, I wouldn't. I have three children to think of, and I want to leave them an unsullied name."

...sense, they will succeed. And don't misunderstand the word 'gift.' You have to have a gift to drive a team of horses. Most people can do a lot of things ordinarily well, but some one thing extraordinarily well. They ought to find out what it is, and go at it. That beats trying to find out what will pay the most money and then attempting that, whether you have the gift for it or not. I am glad that Shakespeare didn't decide that he could make more money running his father's lumber yard—you know his father was a juggler—but decided to do the thing he liked to do best, regardless of how it paid. I guess that most of the men who did things that helped the world took some such view of it."

"What advice would you give a young poet?"

No. Vers Libre.

"Say, I am looking for it, not giving it. I will say this: Don't try to write what the editors want, nor what the public wants. Write what you, yourself, want, what you want to do, because that will be what you'll write best. Maybe the editors won't want it at first. Maybe they won't want it at all. Then you will have to decide whether you can't write or merely whether the editors can't read. But your stuff will at least be sincere. That is more likely to win than the best imitation."

"Would you write 'vers libre'?"

"If you mean me, I wouldn't. I have three children to think of, and I want to leave them an unsullied name."

Greeks' Ire Aroused by Action in Thrace

(Continued From Page One.)
with the exception of that relating to the allied occupation of the western line of the Maritza river in Thrace, and that argument on this was still proceeding. The allies were said to have agreed to turn over Thrace to the Turkish army within 30 days and to have secured the assent of the Turks to the establishment of a definite line of demarcation between the British and Kemalists in the Chankz zone, placing them out of rifle shot of each other.

Hopeful for Peace.

London, Oct. 5.—(By A. P.)—The reports of the first two days' proceedings of the allied generals' conference with the Turkish nationalists at Mudania have produced a sanguine feeling here, some believing that an armistice clearing the way for a peace conference is already assured.

It was even reported yesterday that a protocol establishing an armistice had been actually signed, but authentic confirmation of this is lacking. The latest information to the Associated Press, contained in a dispatch which left Constantinople shortly before midnight, was to the effect that the question of Thrace was still being the way to settlement.

Says U. S. Boat Fired On.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The report that an American destroyer was bombarded by the Turks while taking off refugees at Aivali, a town north of Smyrna, first carried in a Reuters dispatch from Athens, is repeated in a dispatch from Athens received today by the Greek legation.

Neither the Navy nor the State department has any confirmation of the reported attack.

To Safeguard Catholics.

Rome, Oct. 4.—Monsignor Marimondo, papal nuncio in Bucarest, was ordered by Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, today to safeguard in the absence of the apostolic delegate, the Catholic interests in Constantinople.

Commands Greeks.

Athens, Oct. 5.—Gen. Nider has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Greek army. The government hopes further to reinforce the army through the call for volunteers.

Prominent Lincoln Lawyer Hurt in Elevator Accident

Lincoln, Oct. 5.—(Special)—Orville L. Jones, who was a member of the legal staff of Attorney General Reed and has since been practicing in Lincoln, is in a hospital in a serious condition as the result of an accident. After he had left the elevator in his office building he changed his mind and started back. Meanwhile the elevator had begun its upward flight. Jones was caught between the elevator and the floor above and his chest badly crushed.

Republican Candidates

R. R. HOWELL,
Candidate for U. S. Senator, and
C. H. RANDALL,
Candidate for Governor.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6.
Randolph 9:15 a. m.
Concord 11:45 a. m.
Wakarusa 1:45 p. m.
Emerson 3:00 p. m.
Allen 4:30 p. m.
Ponca 7:30 p. m.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7.
Winnebago 9:30 a. m.
Walthill 10:45 a. m.
Lyons 1:30 p. m.
Oakland 3:00 p. m.
Tekamah 5:00 p. m.
Blair 8:00 p. m.

Chinese Mission Robbed.

A window in the garage of the Chinese Mission, Fort Crook road, was broken Wednesday night and three wheels and tools, worth $50, stolen, according to a report to South Omaha police made by Father McCarthy.

A Queer World

Bleacher Crowd in Line for His Ticket to World Series at Midnight—A Large Frog Captured in Solomon Islands.

Watched by Police.
New York, Oct. 5.—The bleacher crowd began to assemble at the Polo grounds at midnight and he was still there at 7 o'clock this morning waiting for the gates to open. About 5 o'clock he had company. Eight big patrolmen arrived and with customary yag saw to it that the line kept straight order. The crowd was Raymond Degeer, of Stamford, Conn., and he formed his own line, held his own place and his own resting as best he could while the policemen watched him to see that he did not get unruly.

A Big Croaker.

Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 5.—(By A. P.)—What is believed to be the largest frog in the world has been captured in the Solomon Islands and brought to the Melbourne Museum, according to E. O. Armitage, F. E. S. and curator Whittly of the museum who recently returned from a hazardous expedition to the unexplored islands. The frog is a foot long. The scientist obtained many other rare specimens besides the frog, including some of the most valuable butterflies in the world. They said they often had to fight for their lives against savage tribes who had never even seen a white man.

"It Isn't Ours."

Jersey City, Oct. 5.—Standing hand in hand before a baby incubator at Mothers' Institute, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rich yesterday looked upon little Dorothy Helen and decided to take them to make them accept her as their baby, reiterating their contention that the child born to Mrs. Rich at Bergen Sanatorium five weeks ago, was a boy.

Two Held for Trial on Mann Act Charge.

Charles Wilcox, 2433 South Sixteenth street, formerly for three years on the Omaha police force, was held to the federal grand jury on a Mann act charge Wednesday, after a hearing before United States Commissioner Boehler.

State Asks Supreme Court to Collect Road Donation.

Lincoln, Oct. 5.—(Special)—Arguments were submitted in supreme court on the application of the state to overturn a decision of the lower court that the township of Bone Creek, Butler county, could not be compelled to make good a pledge to pay $4,000 of the $25,000 that it cost the state to pave a roadway across the Platte bottoms to give the farmers a good road to Schuyler. The township electors, at the annual election, made the offer. Now they say that the constitution forbade any donations of this sort unless by a vote of the people at an election. The state contends that the annual meeting was an election such as the constitution makers had in mind.

Beatrice Factory Damaged by Early Morning Fire.

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 5.—(Special Telegram)—Fire, starting in a pile of coal in the engine room of the Store Kraft company plant north of Beatrice at 4 this morning from spontaneous combustion, caused a property damage estimated at $2,000. The engine room was destroyed, including tools and other equipment. Firemen prevented the flames from reaching the main part of the factory. The loss is covered by insurance. W. B. Morton, secretary-treasurer, stated that the fire would not cause the plant to suspend operations.

Funeral Held for Pioneer.

Funeral services for Frank T. Walker, who died at his home, 422 North Thirty-ninth street, Sunday, were held at 9:30 yesterday morning at St. Cecilia cathedral. Mr. Walker was a pioneer Nebraskan, coming to Platte county in 1865 with his father from Lindsay, Ontario. His body was laid to rest in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Dodge County Supervisor Is on Trial for Assault.

Fre蒙特, Neb., Oct. 5.—(Special Telegram)—Carl Hollander, member of the Dodge county board of supervisors, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Colton, charged with having assaulted John Diers on September 22. The families are neighbors, living near Scribner.

Colorado Coal Lump.

Smokeless and Sootless—Screened at the Yards
Per Ton $10.50 Delivered

CONSUMERS' LUMP
Nic Large Lump
Delivered $10.50 a ton

ILLINOIS LUMP
Good Quality
Delivered $11.00 a ton

Consumers Coal & Supply Co.
DOuglas 0530 "DEALERS IN GOOD COAL" DOuglas 0530

OCTOBER PIANO PRICES TUMBLE!!
A Piano Sale That Will Break All Records
DON'T PUT OFF BUYING

During this month Schmoller & Mueller Piano Company has made great price reductions on pianos. Prices and terms have been made so low and easy that everyone can now own the instrument of their choice. Liberty bonds gladly accepted. Your old piano will be taken as a substantial part payment. Don't delay. Come in this week.

Hundred of pianos are on display in our building and include new and used instruments of almost every make. The instrument you want is among them, priced RIGHT and on terms which will more than please you.

Player Piano $365.00
Brand new Schmidt & Schultz Player Piano complete with bench, scarf and $10.00 worth of Player Rolls of your own selection. Remember, your old piano accepted in trade.

Behr Bros. Baby Grand $635
A rare bargain. Several in stock ready for delivery. Complete with bench. A wonderful instrument at a record low price.

Piano Buyers Attention!
These Used Piano Bargains Will Sell Within the Week.

UPRIGHTS		Steger & Sons
Kimball	$88.00	Schmoller & Mueller	$210
Conservatory	$98.00	Sohmer	$225.00
Schoningher	$110.00	Price & Teepie	$265.00
Boston	$118.00	PLAYERS
Boothe Bros.	$135.00	Mansfield	$175.00
Vose & Son	$140.00	Angelus	$185.00
Wegman	$150.00	Hartford	$345.00
Davis & Son	$160.00	Artemis	$358.00
Mueller	$175.00	Aeolian	$450.00

$2,125.00 Steinway Grand, fine condition, only $1,000.00

Make your selection from such world renowned pianos as the Steinway, Steiner, Iridman, Steger & Sons, Schomaker, Emerson, McPhail, Lindeman & Sons, Behr Bros., Irving, Camp & Co., Schmoller & Mueller and Premier. We have new instruments in the above makes ready for your selection at all times, in the finish and size to suit your requirements and on terms which are the lowest in the entire Middle West.

YOU CAN HAVE HEALTH

Dr. Burhorn
Chiropractor

My business is to get sick people well. No cases taken that we cannot help. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Phone 2-A-6666. 1244 Adams. Admittance free. 12 for $10 or 20 for $15.

Suite 414-426 Securities Bldg. Cor. 16th and Farnam Sts.

Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co.
154-168-Dodge St. - Omaha

OMAR CIGARETTES
20's 20
AGAIN

YOU CAN HAVE HEALTH
Dr. Burhorn
Chiropractor

PIANOS
TUNED AND REPAIRED
All Work Guaranteed
A. HUGHES, 1244 Adams
1512-Dodge Tel. Doug. 3445

Harry Mason,
The Tailor Goes On Trial In Omaha.
Watch This Paper for Details of This Most Extraordinary Announcement.

Do You Want to Save $250 on a Slightly Used Player?

MICKEL'S
15th and Harney DOuglas 1973

So slightly used that the newness is not worn off. If you want a player the Cable will surely satisfy you. If you want to save money THIS IS THE BUY FOR YOU.

Just one player of this kind and we offer it on terms.

$50,000 Is Asked for Alienation

Wife of Lincoln Lawyer Says Mother-in-Law Wrecked Her Home Life.

Lincoln, Oct. 5.—(Special)—Gussie B. Stocker has brought suit in district court against her mother-in-law, Mrs. Thomas R. Stocker. She asks $50,000 damages for alleged alienation of the affections of her husband, T. P. R. Stocker, a Lincoln lawyer. Stocker sued her for a divorce some time ago, but the court refused it. Mrs. Stocker did not want a divorce, and the court entered an order for separate maintenance, alimony.

Mrs. Stocker says that her mother-in-law exaggerated the merits of her son and desired for him a wife higher in the social scale, and for that reason made life a burden for the young woman, who made her home with her husband's parents. She said that the mother-in-law supplied a table abounding with food, but that she allowed bread and butter and plain food only. She had to go to her bed at 7:30 every evening and was denied a light for longer than a few minutes. She was not allowed to ride on street cars, and was called a liar and a thief, and other indignities heaped upon her. She said that her husband refused to maintain a home of his own, because of threats of disturbance.

Electric Body Head Named.
Chicago, Oct. 5.—C. E. Emmons, president of the United Railway company of Baltimore, today was elected president of the American Electric Railway association.

Thompson, Belden & Co.

October Fashions For the Discriminating

The price one pays has little to do with the distinction one can acquire in Outer Apparel

True, price is indicative of quality and workmanship, but not an infallible guide.

A correct interpretation of the mode is essential—and it is the constant intention of the entire Thompson, Belden organization to bring together only those styles which are correct, attractive, becoming and thoughtfully economical in price.

Recent Arrivals
Tailleurs Gowns Wraps Dresses Coats Blouses
Apparel—Third Floor

Do You Want to Save $250 on a Slightly Used Player?

Player ?

CABLE PLAYER--

BUY A GARLAND PIPELESS FURNACE
AT
H. R. Bowen & Co.

FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
By Judge Frederick C. Hill of Clinton, Ill.
at Eagle Bldg., 23 N. Main St., Omaha
FRIDAY EVE., OCT. 6, 1922
at 8:00 o'clock
The Public is cordially invited to its presence

Judge Hill is a member of the Board of Lecturers of the Middle Church of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

THE VALUE-GIVING STORE
116 and 118