Railroad Heads Tell Managers to End Traffic Jam

Word Goes Out After Conference in Capital to Spare No Expense in Moving Freight.

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER.
Washington Correspondent Omaha Bee.

Washington, Oct. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Following the conference of railway presidents held here last week to devise methods of averting the threatened breakdown of transportation due to a rush of business, word has gone out to traffic managers to clear up the jam, regardless of expense, as the only means of preventing radical amendment of the Esch-Cummins act by the next congress.

Confronted with demands for lower freight rates from every section of the country, railway executives are facing the present freight congestion with consternation.

The recent announcement by Senator Cummins of Iowa that he is already preparing a bill to amend the law to give force to the findings of the railway labor board insures the presentation of the issue to congress. Once there, the executives realize the entire act will be open to amendment. With the lines bending near the breaking point under the present rush of business and with their motive power and car equipment sadly out of joint as a result of the recent strike, there is a feeling near to discouragement among railroad leaders. They are fearful that efforts to prevent new legislation and reduction of rates will be impossible.

Will Oppose Changes.

They will fight all efforts to amend the act materially, urging that congress should give the present scheme at least a five-year tryout.

The intimation from the White House yesterday that administration officials hold the roads largely responsible for the present congestion because of their refusal to accept the president's plan to settle the strike has added to the discouragement of the railroad heads. They are recalling, also, that the administration made a gesture a short time ago in the direction of further reduction in freight rates. The increasing tendency of the administration to listen to the demands of the farm bloc is another element of discouragement.

The farm group, through Senator Capper of Kansas, has already served notice it will demand further reduction of freight rates as a means of relieving the industrial depression in agricultural regions. The group will urge repeal of the guarantee clause and will insist that the power of the states to control intrastate traffic be restored.

Labor Has Plans.

The forces of organized labor are insisting that the act be amended, but will oppose the plan to put the anti-strike feature into the act, and are not attracted by the proposal to write the principle of "the living wage" into the bill as proposed by Senator Cummins.

The group will demand the repeal of the Esch-Cummins act as a whole, preparatory to a fight for government ownership as the only solution of the transportation problem.

Both the railroad and farm bloc groups have been canvassing chambers of commerce throughout the country for sentiment relative to the proposed reduction in rates. The farm representatives profess to be encouraged by the reports received. The Kansas utility commission, which led in the fight which brought about a 30 per cent reduction in farm commodity rates a year ago, is leading a new fight in this direction and various farm organizations are co-operating.

These groups point out that while the government reports show an upward tendency in manufactured products and the records of the roads themselves demonstrate an unprecedented volume of business, their own products remain depressed. The price of livestock is an exception to this trend, adding to the topsy-turviness of the situation by going up while the price of livestock foods are going down.

D'strict Manager Named.

Responding to this hostile activity in the middle west, the American Railway association announced today the appointment of J. W. Riley as district manager of the car service division at St. Louis.

Mr. Riley will be liaison officer between the national association headquarters at Washington, with the western roads and with western shippers. He assumes his duties at once for the purpose of aiding the roads in averting disaster during the next two weeks, the critical period during which transportation may break down.

Scottish Rite Reunion Will Be Held in Alliance

Alliance, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The annual fall reunion of Scottish Rite Masons will be held at the Masonic temple in Alliance November 23 and 24, plans having been made at a special meeting of the order here. Scottish Rite Masons from entire western half of the state will be invited to participate and efforts will be made to secure a large class of candidates for the degree work. The degrees will be conferred by the officers of the Alliance Lodge of Perfection and the Rose Croix. Special committees have been appointed to arrange details of the reunion and other committees to visit the surrounding towns and secure a large list of candidates for the higher degrees.

Alliance Woman Injured When Gasoline Explodes

Alliance, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Bell Brown, 40, was severely burned about the face and hands when a small can of gasoline, which she was using to destroy vermin in the house, exploded, setting fire to her clothing. The skin was burned nearly off of her face and her hands were badly blistered. She was alone in the house, and after extinguishing the flames on her clothing she returned to the bedroom which was ablaze and succeeded in putting out the fire just as the fire department arrived.

Junior Fair Success at Nebraska City

Nebraska City, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Junior fair was held here for two days. There were 30 exhibitors of corn, 17 of swine, 12 of poultry, various clubs in domestic science and sewing societies. The displays were numerous and Miss Wilkins of the Extension department state university, who judged the work of the girls, was highly pleased with the work done by them. She said that it was the best junior display she had seen this season. M. F. Flack of the University farm was the judge of the swine and poultry and said the exhibit was as good as that shown at many county fairs he had visited this year. Nebraska City is to make an effort to have a county fair here. Much interest was shown in the junior work and the farmers of the community realize that a county fair would give them a chance to display their stock and grain to advantage. The Otoe County Farm bureau had charge of the event just closed, and the Chamber of Commerce co-operated.

Holdrege Cuts Water Rate to Protect Trees and Lawns

Holdrege, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The city council, to encourage the use of water on lawns and trees, made a reduction of 25 per cent on all water used until October 15. Notice was given to all users of water to use as much water as they wished, especially on trees and lawns, in order that they could go into the winter in good condition.
