Two Omaha high school football Le on the gridiren this afternoon Ceach Patton's South Side Packers Sourney to Lincoln this morning where they mingle with Coach Dow's athletes in the afternoon, while Central and Sloux City high tangle on the Buffaloes' baseball lot this afternoon.

Nearly all the outstate high mathines will roll on the field today Many important pigskin struggles are on the schedule, to say nothing of the intercity contests that are sure to attract much interest among the out state fans.

South High Crippled. Coach Patton of South high is taking a crippled team to Lincoln. The Packers are minus the services of Captain Herb Spencer, fullback and one of the best high school line plungers in the state. Quarterback Russell Graham, while he may get into the conflict, has been nursing an injured side and cannot be expected to play much of a game. Two or three other packers have been on the in jured list this week, but may be able to play this afternoon. Mertiik, back ifeld and lineman, is on the injured list and will be out of the lineup.

A little comparison of South and Lincoln can be gathered from the scores each team made against Fre ment high. Lincoln won from Fremont, 6 to 0, while South lost, 28 to South entered the Fremont game minus seven regulars. Three of these veterans are expected to play this Ruth and Meusel
