

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding Plans. On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock will occur the marriage of Miss Esther Groneweg, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Groneweg, and Mr. John C. Halloran of Lancaster, Wis.

The ceremony is to be performed by Monsignor F. P. McManus, and the bridal party will have for a background an embankment of roses. Miss Groneweg will wear a gown of white crepe satin trimmed in long panels of lace and will carry a shower bouquet.

Immediately after the wedding there will be an informal wedding reception to which about 50 relatives and very intimate friends have been invited, and in the early evening Mr. Halloran and his bride will leave for their new home in Lancaster, Wis.

Date Set for Wedding. Miss Jennie Kattelman has chosen November 5 as the date for her wedding to Samuel Schwartz of Kansas City, Mo.

Among the affairs to be given in their honor is a word party in Omaha this afternoon at which Miss Goldie Marcus will be hostess.

Dinners. Preceding the Tuesday dancing club party at the Eagle hall last week a very enjoyable dinner of 14 covers was given at the Grand hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stephan.

Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith also entertained on that evening and their guests later attended the dance. Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Copley were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay that evening and went to the dance together.

Bridge-Luncheons. Two unusually lovely parties were given last week by Mrs. W. J. Heber at her attractive home on Oakland avenue.

Seven tables were placed for luncheon on Wednesday, and at bridge which followed, the prize for high score was awarded Mrs. Harry Searle. Mrs. W. J. Schorr won in the cut for all.

On Thursday 24 guests were present and the tables were artistically arranged with baskets of Opheelia roses. Mrs. J. J. Keller had high score and Mrs. Ross received the cut for all. A guest prize was also presented to Miss Agnes Wickham who spent part of the summer in Europe and in whose honor this party was given.

To Reside in California

Mrs. L. L. Henninger and Sons

Mrs. L. L. Henninger with her husband, Dr. Henninger, and two sons, Lewis Leroy, junior, age 2 1/2 years, and Richard Glenville, who is just 11 months old, will leave Council Bluffs on Thursday to make Pasadena, California, their new home.

Mrs. Henninger is a charming and exceedingly popular matron who will be greatly missed by her wide circle of friends here.

Wednesday evening complimentary to Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Henninger who leave this week for California where they will reside.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Macrae also entertained during the past week for this couple and today Mr. and Mrs. George Damon will honor them with a dinner.

At the last meeting of the Friday Bridge club, to which Mrs. Henninger has belonged, she was presented with a lovely gift by the other members.

Hunting Club. Several members of the Elkhorn Valley Hunting club leave this evening for South Marsh lake, in the northwestern part of Nebraska, where they will spend a fortnight duck hunting.

This club was organized in 1889, but few of the original members now take any active interest. They own 250 acres of land on which a house has been erected and to this the lovers of this sport go every October and remain during the game season.

Among those who are leaving this evening are W. E. Keeline, Dr. Donald Macrae, Dr. Glenn Reed, Edwin Mitchell, Grover Beno, Frank Everest, J. E. Wallace and Ralph Metzger.

date in order to attend the afternoon card party or the evening dance, both of which will be held in the auditorium.

The patriotic organization of women, in order to raise money for the aid of the ex-service men, secured a Gardner automobile which they will give away during the dance on the evening of October 21st.

Each ticket for these two affairs bears a number and some one who is lucky may ride to their home in a new car the last day of October.

Birthday Party. Little Jean Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilcox, celebrated her third birthday last Tuesday with a party to which 12 little boys and girls were invited.

A color scheme of pink was used in the table decorations and at the place of each girl was a miniature old fashioned bouquet. The boys received cunning little favors and a feature of the party was the birthday cake on which were arranged three lighted candles.

Luncheon. On Monday last Mrs. William Pyper entertained 18 guests at luncheon complimentary to Mrs. Donald Shepard, a recent Omaha bride.

Ward robes were used as a centerpiece and other appointments of the table carried out the color scheme of yellow.

Tea. Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Wood Allen and Mrs. Edward Shepard for a tea next Friday afternoon, October 20.

For New Mexico Visitors. In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Hoagland of Las Cruces, N. M., house guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Spooner, informal dinners were given during the past week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everest, Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. Spooner.

Today these visitors are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John P. Davis, and on Saturday Mrs. Spooner and Mrs. Everest complimented Mrs. Hoagland with a complimentary luncheon of 18 covers at the Country club.

To New Orleans. Among the Council Bluffs people who will attend the National American Legion and Auxiliary convention in New Orleans from October 16 to 23, are Mrs. Donald Macrae, president of the auxiliary in this state; Mrs. Clara Bonham, local president of the organization; Miss Elizabeth Quinn, the Iowa page; Misses Mary Leonard, Ada Fageberg, Ethel Martin, Sophia Pieper and Emily Vaughn, nurses in Mobile hospital No. 1; Mrs. H. A. Quinn, Brig. Gen. M. A. Tinley and Miss Tinley, John R. De Witt, the post commander, and M. H. Green, Lynn Brown, L. H. Kattelman, Lou Passer, Sam Steinberg, Ralph Kastner, Lulu Martin and Leonard Ingram.

Attend Football Game. In New Haven, Conn., on Saturday afternoon the Iowa-Yale football game was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Day, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Binder, all of this city.

The Days have been on a motor trip through the east since early in September and the Clarke and Binders left Council Bluffs last week, all meeting Saturday for the game.

Personals. Mrs. M. A. Metzger went to Lincoln last Friday.

Mrs. George Keeline left Friday evening for Chicago to visit her daughter, Mrs. Conrad Spens, whose husband was recently appointed by President Harding as fuel administrator.

Mr. Spens is now in Washington, D. C., for 40 days and will be joined there soon by his wife who plans to make a short stay at the capital city.

Dr. P. Earl Bellinger leaves Monday for a trip to Bogot.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McAtee are at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Julius Rosenfeld underwent a tonsil operation last Wednesday.

W. A. Mauer and W. J. Heiser made a business trip to Chicago last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bogart returned Wednesday from a motor trip to Creston and Glenwood.

Mrs. Robert Davis, formerly of this city but now of Greeley, Colo., arrived last week for a visit here and in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eupke are expected home Monday from Excelsior Springs where they have spent the past two weeks.

Miss Mary Keo who spent the past two months in a cottage at Lake Manawa has returned to her home at 801 Fourth avenue.

Mrs. D. J. Gates has returned from a short visit in Des Moines, Ia. Mr. Gates, who was also there, has gone on to Chicago for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Spooner have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Hoagland of Las Cruces, New Mexico. Mrs. Hoagland is a sister of Mr. Spooner.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Damon, who more than a year ago leased their home on Turley avenue, to Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Henninger, expect to return to it some time the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Damon and the children spent the winter in California and on returning in the early spring took a cottage at Lake Manawa for the summer months. Dr. and Mrs. Henninger and sons will leave Thursday, October 19, to make their new home in Pasadena, Cal.

Church Dinner.

The first of a series of church dinners and discuss on classes will be held at McCabe Methodist Episcopal church, Forty-first and Farnam streets, on Wednesday evening, October 18, at 6:15 o'clock.

All members and friends of the church are invited to be present and take part in the discussions which follow the dinner. The Rev. E. Lammot Gossager will have charge of the program.

When about to cut a pie with meringue on it, wet the blade of the knife, and the result will be a good clean cut.

Get Acquainted Club

The Get Acquainted club will meet this evening at the First Unitarian church where Mr. and Mrs. Grant Parsons will be host and hostess. A musical program will be given by Miss Beale Middleton and Oscar Skavlan, assisted by Mrs. E. Stillman, the Misses Minnie Yorton, Neva Hoak, Ruby Anderson, Alma Mencken and the Messrs. Dewey, Hanson, Terry Rivich, Gerald Hodman, James Hedding, and Harry Schneider.

If you want to make bread quickly use two yeast cakes instead of one.
