lowa City, Oct 36 .- (By A. P.)-Jowa's victorious football team was kiven a reception upon its arrival here at 4:30 today from New Haven, where it defeated Yale, 6 to 0, that gotthe demonstration which with seed greeted the armistice announcement four years ago.

The medical school, considered the most conservative of all the colleges on the university campus, led the demonstration, which threatened to demoralize classes throughout the day. Heroes Sneak Away.

The playing of bands and the blow ing of whistles started at 4 and con tinned for five hours, combined with yells and cries of Iowa's victory. A crow? estimated at 7,000, including approximitely 6,000 students, was at the station, but it was disappointed. Before the crowd knew what had happened Coach Howard H. Jones and his team loaded into a truck and were spirited away to their rooms.

The heroes are scheduled to make their first formal appearance shortly after noon, as the guests of the lowa City Commercial club. The team then will practice for the Illinois game, Iowa's first "big ten" foe
