International Economic Conference Urged by Gary

New York, Oct. 27.—Another international peace conference in Washington for the full and frank discussion of all unsettled financial, commercial and industrial questions in which the United States is interested was suggested by Herbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, in a speech today at the semiannual meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute, of which he is president.

Such a conference, he said, should be participated in by able, open-minded, well-disposed representatives from the different nations, such as those who appeared at the recent limitation of armament conference.

Mexican Consulate Closed.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Mexican consulate general here was closed today upon receipt of an order from the Mexican charge d'affaires at Washington, quoting instructions from the Mexican government to suspend business as a protest against a ruling by New York courts against Mexico in a suit brought by the Oliver American Trading Company.

How Hitchcock Voted on Profit Tax

Mr. WALSH of Massachusetts. I suppose, in the absence of further amendments, the committee amendments is in order? The VICE PRESIDENT. It is.

Mr. WALSH of Massachusetts. I have no further amendment to offer.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the committee amendment.

Mr. HALE. In the first which I have before me I am not an amendment to section 234. There are so many points I can not and the amendment now pending.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will state the pending amendment.

The ASSISTANT SECRETARY. The pending amendment is on page 78, beginning in line 21, where it is proposed to insert a subhead, "Part III—Corporations," and to amend section 234, "Tax on corporations," and section 230.

Mr. HALE. I do not like to delay the Senate, but I do wish I could get straightened out on this matter as it is so important.

Mr. HALE. I wish to ask the Senator from Missouri where his amendment would apply that he has in mind?

Mr. HALE. That is what I supposed. That section is closed to amendment by the unanimous-consent agreement, which reads:

All amendments to said section 230, except the amendments offered by the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. Walsh), shall be disposed of without debate.

Mr. HALE. I am not dealing with that section now or not proposing to amend it, as I understand it.

Mr. HALE. I thought the Senator was offering an amendment to amend it, as I understand it.

Mr. HALE. What I am inquiring about—and I am frank to say I have been able to get the situation clear in my mind—is whether we are amending at this time to act on section 230.

Mr. HALE. That is the committee amendment.

Mr. HALE. I make the preliminary inquiry whether it is the opinion of the chair under the unanimous-consent agreement that a substitute may now be offered to section 230?

The VICE PRESIDENT. It can now be offered. It can be offered in the Senate.

Mr. HALE. Very well. I give notice, whether it is necessary or not, that I shall offer in the Senate an amendment to the various amendments for a portion of section 230.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the amendment read, on which the yeas and nays have been requested.

The yeas and nays were ordered, and the reading clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Star Witness Tells 'Hammer Murder' Story

(Continued From Page One) "After rounding a turn in the road I heard voices and went back. They were walking toward the car arm-in-arm and talking. As we reached the machine, Mrs. Phillips said: 'He also brought you that wrist watch.' To Mrs. Meadows' reply that she purchased it herself, Mrs. Phillips cried 'he did,' and struck her against the head with the hammer.

ward me. I ran down the road screaming again. Suddenly I became weak and must have fainted. Afterwards I looked up the road and saw her looking over the body. 'The next I remember Mrs. Phillips drew the car up beside me and blew the horn. She told me to get in. Her face, dress and gloves were covered with blood. She picked up Mrs. Meadows' handbag, took off her rings and dropped them into the bag. She then asked me for my gloves so as to cover the blood on her hands. As we drove away she steered with her left hand while I tried to put a glove on her right.'

Republicans Tour Madison County

Congressman R. E. Evans Warnily Received by His Constituents

Norfolk, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram)—The republican party of Madison county started celebrating Friday morning with Congressman R. E. Evans as the cause of the jubilation.

Congressman Evans was escorted about the city Thursday by Donald D. Maper, E. L. Reiker and other prominent young republicans and was then turned over to the representatives of the Evans headquarters at Madison for the swing around the county.

Charles A. Randall of Newman Grove, candidate for railway commissioner; Senator John McGowan of Norfolk, candidate for re-election in the 11th senatorial district, and the various county candidates were in the party, which left Norfolk early Friday morning for little Creek.

W. L. Dowling, chairman of the Evans campaign headquarters at Madison, and A. E. Ward, secretary of the headquarters, joined the party at Battle Creek during the morning.

The entire day was to be given over to the automobile tour of the county. Every town in the county was in the day's itinerary, and street speeches were being made by the leading candidates.

Congressman Evans received a good reception wherever he went. He had been touring this part of the state with Charles A. Randall of Newman Grove and O. S. Spillman of Pierce, the republican candidate for attorney general. Mr. Spillman has gone to Lincoln and Mr. Randall, after his tour of the county with the Evans party, expected to rest for a short time at Newman Grove. He has been working strenuously over the state and is tired.

Jurist's Wife Kills Pastor and Herself

Pastor Smelled Smoke. Returning to the Christler home with his wife, Rev. Mr. Christler commented that he smelled smoke. Mrs. Christler declared she did not tell her husband of Mrs. Carleton's visit because they had discussed Mrs. Carleton in the past and she did not want to bring up the matter again.

The Christlers had been in the home only a short time when Mrs. Carleton entered, according to the minister's wife. The three engaged in an ordinary conversation for some time, said Mrs. Christler.

When Mrs. Carleton arose to leave the house, Rev. Mr. Christler accompanied her into a small hall off from the room in which they had been sitting. Rev. Mr. Christler closed the door behind him. A moment later two shots rang out, according to Mrs. Christler.

Pierced Her Heart. The minister's wife said she opened the door and found her bodies. Mrs. Carleton's body had fallen across that of the minister. Examination of the minister's body disclosed that a bullet had entered his right side and had pierced an artery.

The bullet which caused Mrs. Carleton's death had pierced her heart. According to friends, Bishop Fair of Montana, more than a year ago investigated gossip linking the names of Rev. Mr. Christler and Mrs. Carleton and reported such gossip untrue.

Judge Frank Carleton, husband of the woman, left for Los Angeles last spring, and is supposed to be there now. Mrs. Carleton went South as superintendent of a chauntiqua circuit. She returned to have a few days ago and has been quartered at a local hotel.

Rev. Mr. Christler was a close friend of the Carleton family. His friends declare his interest was based upon his desire to aid the Carletons as a minister.

Change in Government Proves Problem for Library

Maria, Neb., Oct. 27.—(By A. P.)—A small public library, located in Maria, Neb., is offering a delicate problem for its patrons and those who contribute to its support, according to Mrs. C. J. Hall, the librarian.

The reason for this lies in the fact that a referendum measure to be voted upon in Carter county, would, if passed by the people, change the form of county and township government to the commission form, thereby doing away with the machinery by which support for the library is derived.

As the situation now is, the whole township contributes to the support of the library in furtherance of the wishes of the donor, Dr. Brenner, a pioneer citizen of the county.
