

Republican Day in Burt County Proves Popular

Large Crowds Hear Speakers in Whirlwind Tour—National State and Local Speakers Talk.

Telamah, Neb., Oct. 27.—Tuesday was republican day in Burt county when over 25 speeches were made in the various towns of the county by national, state and local candidates.

A rally in Telamah the preceding evening was opened by Dan Deane's Omaha band and the life and drum corps of Telamah. A large audience listened to addresses from various candidates for two hours, then calls of "go on, go on" urged the speakers to continue their interesting facts to the voters.

Under direction of County Chairman E. C. Houston a caravan of about 50 automobiles filled with republican men and women, accompanied by the life and drum corps and in gaily decorated cars, started upon a circuit tour of Burt county.

At every town visited the enthusiasm increased, and hundreds packed the halls where the addresses were given, no matter at what hour they occurred.

Charles Randall, candidate for the railway commission, swept the entire county like a whirlwind by his speeches and personality. The false attacks made by Charles Bryan against the high taxes were exploded by O. S. Spillman in his various talks, while E. E. Evans told of the great blunders and extravagances of the democrats.

Candidates stated that the tour through Burt county was the most interesting and enthusiastic they had met so far during the campaign.

Feature Transactions of Livestock Exchange

A shipment of 71 head of choice spotted Poland China hogs was on the livestock market yesterday, brought in by J. G. Happel of Winer. The consignment averaged 250 pounds and sold for the top price of the day, $8.65 a hundred.

Clarence Galbraith came in from Beemer with his last load of cattle for the season, for which he received $11.05 a hundred. Mr. Galbraith said the farmers were a little backward about getting cattle in their feed lots on account of the advance in the price of corn.

"Old corn has been selling for 58 cents a bushel," said Mr. Galbraith, "and feeders are bidding as high as 25 cents a bushel for new corn. Our corn crop has been good and very little of it has been sold."

Peter Olsen of Cokeville, Wyo., a visitor at the stockyards, said a large percentage of the lambs in his section were sold at home to speculators, feeder buyers and packer buyers from the Pacific coast.

"We realize we would have done better shipping them to Omaha," he said, "but we got pretty good prices as it was. The sheep industry is in better shape than it has been for many years and everything looks brighter all around."

Missouri Pacific Is Unable to Get Cars

Lincoln, Oct. 27.—(Special)—Superintendent Kirk of the Missouri Pacific told a delegation of protesting business men and farmers who called on the state railway commission with a demand for more grain cars, that the road was absolutely unable to furnish them, because eastern connections had most of its boxcars, and being engaged in carrying coal, were not returning them with the usual promptitude.

Mr. Kirk said that he appreciated the farmers' demand of the grain owners because the shortage of supply would continue to force up prices on the market.

The delegation was made up of representatives on the line from Union to Lincoln. One representing the Crete branch had previously filed a similar demand in person. Mr. Kirk says that outside of Omaha the company had loaded since July just a fourth of its usual number of grain cars. The company wants the business, but because coal merchants are "hogging" the motive power and it is under priority orders, relief is impossible.
