

A thrilling finish at the newly opened Hawthorne racetrack in Chicago with End Man, the winner, on the rail on the extreme right of the photograph.
Pacific & Atlantic

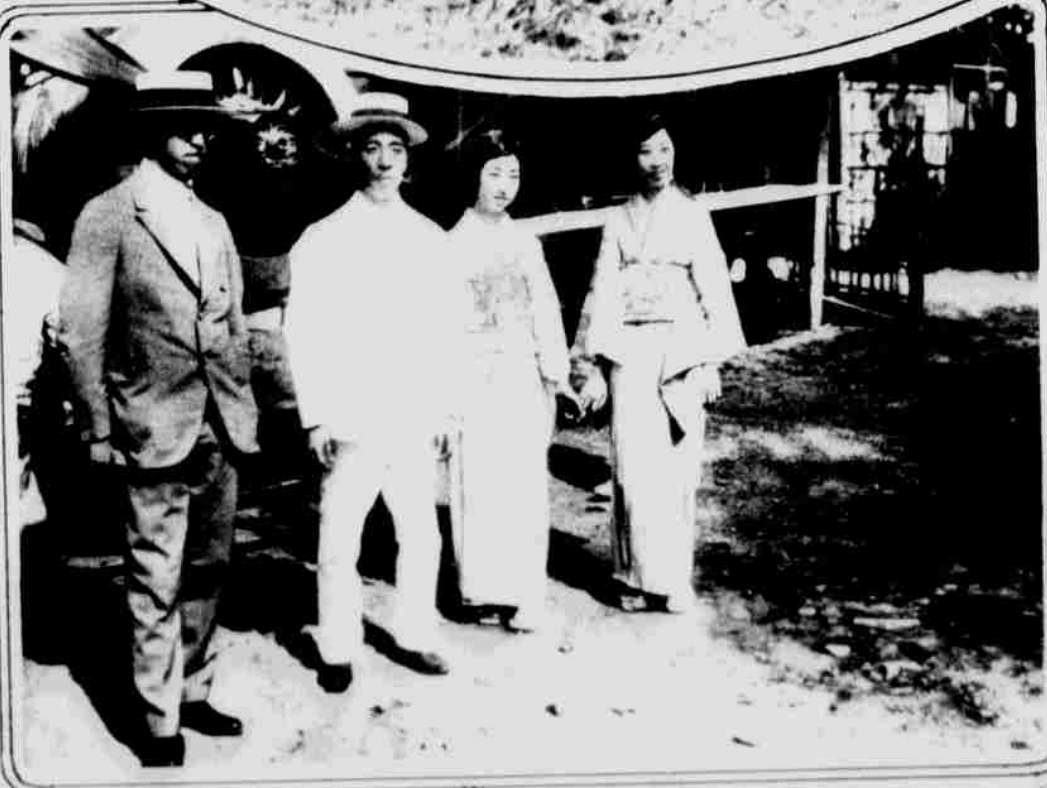

The Misses Elizabeth and Katherine Woods, twin daughters of Congressman Woods of Virginia, at the autumn fête given by the Women's Welfare Association at Pembroke Park, the beautiful Washington estate of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thom.
Pacific & Atlantic

Crown Prince Umberto of Italy, heir to the throne, stepping ashore at Gravesend on his visit to England.
International

Above—This is neither a motion picture battle scene nor a football training session—just one group of the 500 freshmen and sophomores in the annual "tie-up" at the University of Southern California.
Wide World

Above—Prince Yanashima, the only naval aviator in Japan's imperial family, and the airplane he built in the Palace compound. Left to right in the photo are Prince Kaya, Prince Yanashima, Princess Yanashima and Princess Kaya.
Kodak & Boston

Above—Members of the American Legion, some of whom are wearing "plaster" sweat suits, at the walk of Alexander Hamilton in Times Square, New York, as a tribute to the founder of the city.
The N. Y. Herald

Edward Passon, Wash. credit firm owner, counted into New York up the block of his 400th street—some Buffalo in which he beat his record by two days. Accompanying him in the photo are his secretary and a 1914 woman who joined him in the walk of Liberty Bell.
The N. Y. Herald