

Death of Mexican Rebel Brings New Sense of Security

Last Serious Menace to Government Removed With Execution of Gen. Murguia Wednesday.

Mexico City, Nov. 2.—(By A. P.)—Elimination of the last serious rebel menace to the Obregon government with the execution of Gen. Francisco Murguia at Tepic Wednesday has brought a feeling of great relief in official circles, a feeling which is tempered only by regret that circumstances necessitated taking the life of a man who was intelligent and courageous to such a high degree.

Messages are being received by President Obregon from all parts of the republic and from many persons in the United States, congratulating him upon the removal of the obstacles which the rebel movement, headed by Murguia, represented. Confidence is expressed that Murguia's summary court-martial and execution will have a salutary effect upon the lesser rebel chiefs. A general roundup of all of Murguia's adherents in Mexico is predicted.

The war office is in an optimistic mood. The backbone of the entire rebel organization in the northern tier of states has been broken, according to Secretary of War Serrano, and Juan Carrasco who is heading a revolt in Sinaloa, along the west coast.

California Trail Trip Is Planned

Nebraska and Iowa Pioneers Will Make Historic Trip Next Year.

Blue Hill, Neb., Nov. 2.—(By A. P.)—A pact entered into between citizens of two states last week at this place will in all probability result in a new expedition to California following the trail made by the wagon trains of 1848, 1849 and 1850, according to Cecil Matthews, editor and publisher of the Blue Hill Leader, and one of the organizers of the party. Other members of the agreement are George A. Jewett, Des Moines lumber dealer, and Mrs. Ada Prior, Stratton, Neb.

Of the three, Mrs. Price was a member of the original expedition that went forth by wagon trains from Red Rock, Ia., in 1849, bound for California. The wagon was captained by her father. The father of Mr. Jewett was a member of the party, as was the grandfathers, father and uncle of Mr. Matthews. George Jewett is a cousin to Mr. Matthews and Mrs. Price.

The expedition will leave Nebraska next year. The father of Mr. Jewett wrote a diary of the journey, as did the mother of Mrs. Price, who was Amanda Matthews. These two diaries still are in existence and it is with those two interesting narratives of the journey that Mr. Jewett and Mr. Matthews intend to go on the trail, mile by mile, noting each day's journey and the narratives of each leg of the trip through Nebraska, at least.

It was Mrs. Price who, when she beheld the buttes near Scottsbluff last week, declared: "There they are, just as natural as they were then—the gateway to the mountains, as we called them at that time." She recalled that it took nine months from the time they beheld the buttes before they arrived at their destination in California.

Manslaughter Charge Is Filed Against Student

Lincoln, Nov. 2.—(Special)—A complaint charging manslaughter, has been filed in justice court against Myron McGrath, business college student from Chappell, who drove his father's automobile into a cement post on the Bennett highway on the night of October 21. With him was a party of young folks. In the crash that followed, Mary Zarek of Geneva was killed and Ernest Francoeur, a student, had his back broken. The charge is that the machine was being driven at so great a speed in the nighttime as to endanger the lives and safety of the public and of his passengers and that he inadvertently killed Miss Zarek.

Pekin, Nov. 2.—(By A. P.)—Abrogation of the treaty embodying Japan's famous "21 demands" is required of the Chinese government in a bill passed by the lower house of parliament today.

The bill directs that the treaty be rejected on the ground that it never was approved by China's parliament and therefore is invalid.

Deputy Sheriff Sued for $10,000

Election Argument Ends in Arrest and Suit for Damages at Fremont.

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 2.—(Special Telegram)—Claiming that he was the victim of false arrest, Dr. James C. Agee, former city physician, has filed suit for $10,000 damages against Deputy Sheriff William Lowrey and the United States Fidelity company of Baltimore, a bonding company. The alleged arrest followed an argument between the two men regarding the coming elections, when they met in a butcher shop.

The petition filed by Agee states that the plaintiff twisted Lowrey about the chances of holding his position as deputy sheriff following the coming election. Lowrey's arrest led to bitter words, according to Agee, and later to his arrest.

Agee's plea for damages says he was "greatly injured in his credit and reputation and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace." The doctor claims to have been assaulted by Deputy Lowrey who later, accompanied by Chief of Police Brenner and Officer Reilly, effected his arrest.

When taken before Judge Dame in police court, Dr. Agee states that he was instantly discharged, while the officers left the courtroom without preferring any charges.

Deputy Lowrey refused to comment on the case today.

Horror-stricken spectators have been adopted by the French people.

North Bend Man Held on Charge of Murder

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 2.—(Special Telegram)—Charges of first degree murder have been filed against Andrew Johnson, 54, North Bend, as a result of the death of William Jungling, 40, following a shooting affray during a drinking party at the Johnson home.

The bullet lodged near Jungling's heart and resulted in his death two days later. Johnson claimed soon after the shooting that he did not realize what he was doing at the time of the shooting. He states that he and Jungling were life-long friends and that no enemy existed between them.

Assistant County Attorney John Gumb, Jr., points out that the shooting was premeditated by Johnson, who he claims went to another room to secure the gun, following a dispute with the victim, James Herbert, 70, the third member of the drinking party and only eye witness, is held in the Dodge county jail.

Lincoln, Nov. 2.—(Special)—Anybody confined in Nebraska institutions, who is not insane or under conviction for crime, can vote, rules the attorney general, and Bert Gibson of Hastings, serving time in the Lincoln hospital as a dipsonianic, will get his desire. He had appealed to the board of control for a chance to vote.

The superintendent says Gibson is not insane. He is committed there under a law which provides such hospitals for men addicted to drunkenness. The Lincoln hospital is used for all dipsonianics. A strong suspicion exists that Gibson will not vote for any dry candidates.

Mrs. Mary Crum, the girl's mother, was deserted by her husband several years ago, and since has supported her family alone. Backes, who is married to another daughter, has been living at the home of his mother-in-law for some time, and an infatuation resulting in the elopement had grown up between him and the child.
